Her Majesty's Theatre-Wm. J. Marshall North Shore Railway and Navigation Company-loseph Cauchon.

Ottawa Times.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 24, 1870. Commodore Ewing's suspension confirmed, and he is no longer in the ploy of the Dominion Government.

Lavoie sends very setisfactory reports conceroing the state of the Fisheries Gulf of St. Lawrence. Both mackerel and cod have been very abundant.

American lishermen are so closely watchof by our "essels that their season's fishi g hes proved an entire failure. While re ble that he can dream of the possibility of gretting their exclusion, they generally dmit its justice and blame their own gov. loyalty and patriotism as would prevent us per W. Hamilton, Treasurer...

roofs of houses and outbuildings should be he could not. We have heard that Earl whitewashed every two years to prevent Russell had such a thorough belief in his them from taking fire.

The latest case of mob law in the United | he would have accepted the Archbishopric States occurred last week. A man who of Canterbury or assumed the command was accused of murder and committed for of the Channel fleet at five minutes notice trial, was taken out of the hands of the but what was his self confidence compared at shanty prices, subscribed by a wealthy not belong ng to the French army, and frontier; the great Railroad following this and it is surprising no accident did ocburied alive

that many farmers in North Elmsly and North Burgess, in the County of Lanark, had had their properties destroyed

We understand that the Council have lecided upon using steel rails entirely, the construction of the Intercolonial Rail way: it being found that they will not cost much more than new or re-rolled iron rails, and will last more than double the time thus diminishing the cost of future mainten ance very materially.

Mr. Alfred Perry and guardians Mctreal Yesterday. They left the engine and for their use. Mr. Perry advises all resi- has made some incorrect statements in re- knowledge to enable him to form a sound and in case of sparks falling from the fires, | nor indirectly, made any application to us, solution on the shingles, which will make | Telegraph's correspondent unsolicited, and them perfectly fire-proof.

IGNORANCE AND IMPUDENCE.

There is nothing more thoroughly annoying to the loyal subjects of Queen Vic be supposed to be reasonably well informed. Armed hostility and undisguised contempt would be no worse to bear, than to hear of an English gentleman getting up in his place in Parliament and undertaking to talk about Canadian affairs without really knowing anything whatever conerning them. It is, in the first place, painanything but gratifying to us to find that so large and important a portion of the little account, that any Englishman who takes part in the Government of the Brittion respecting it. A few days since a same range. Border family, whose forefathers in ancient days struck many a stalwart It is very evident that Sir D. Wed derburn has never visited this country. not have talked in the manner he did about our "retrogression," or about "building legislative halls in the backwoods." Let us see what the "retrogression" of Canada has been during the last few years. Twenty 443,322 the increase being at the rate of 35.58 per cent. In 1852 the population of Upper Canada was 952,000; in 1861 it amounted to 1,396,000, having increased ten years. In Lower Canada the rate of 40.87 per cent, against 35-58 per cent, for the the census of 1871 is taken, the progress of liety to cross, placed themselves and horses prices of Boreas. Canada during the last ten years will prove in jeopardy and it was indeed nothing clse than a miracle that no lives were lost, as of the House of Commons, who are gen! Road Company doing in the meanwhile to erally supposed to be sane, well informed assist the travelling public? Not until the last moment did they pay a man to keep a single leaky boat plying between ada, and the folly of attempting to do the property of W. Wright, Esq., (now ocanything with a view of developing the cupied by Mr. Bourinot) and the great Orillis resources of this country! We would not | dam erected by Mr. Eddy. It is true the burn, but were we on terms of intimacy obliged to go caily to the city. The company, however, appear to have collected with him, we should certainly be disposed ing which he has some little knowledge. dirty river boat. Now what the travelling Hawkesville, Ont., says the crops are tained a verdict against Lurd for commis-In the old days of Roman Imperial gran. public wish to learn is, whether we good. deur, when there were no steamboats, or are to have a repetition of this disgraceful telegraphs, or newspapers, or printing state of things next spring. If the com. ing apparal. presses, we doubt if a single Patrician verts and raising the road—all of which place on the 2nd of next month.

The postponed Cobourg regatta will take named Prankard, murdered his two daugh importance and out of date, every warnewspapers, or princing pany do not intend building proper culthe postponed Cobourg regatta will take named Prankard, murdered his two daughthe postponed Cobourg regatta will take named Prankard, murdered his two daughthe postponed Cobourg regatta will take named Prankard, murdered his two daughthe postponed Cobourg regatta will take named Prankard, murdered his two daughthe postponed Cobourg regatta will take named Prankard, murdered his two daughthe postponed Cobourg regatta will take named Prankard, murdered his two daughthe postponed Cobourg regatta will take named Prankard, murdered his two daughthe postponed Cobourg regatta will take named Prankard, murdered his two daughthe postponed Cobourg regatta will take named Prankard, murdered his two daughthe postponed Cobourg regatta will take named Prankard, murdered his two daughthe postponed Cobourg regatta will take named Prankard, murdered his two daughthe postponed Cobourg regatta will take named Prankard, murdered his two daughthe postponed Cobourg regatta will take named Prankard, murdered his two daughthe postponed Cobourg regatta will take named Prankard, murdered his two daughthe postponed Cobourg regatta will take named Prankard, murdered his two daughthe postponed Cobourg regatta will take named Prankard, murdered his two daughthe postponed Cobourg regatta will take named Prankard, murdered his two daughthe postponed Cobourg regatta will take named Prankard, murdered his two daughthe postponed Cobourg regatta will take named Prankard, murdered his two daughthe postponed Cobourg regatta will take named Prankard, murdered his two daughthe postponed Cobourg regatta will take named Prankard, murdered his two daughthe postponed Cobourg regatta will take named Prankard, murdered his tw could be found who knew less concerning the little outlying Province of Britain even, than Sir D. Wedderburn does about the little outlying the little outly is based on the little outlying the little outly is based of both navies has, previous to the province, we will be made within our own Province, we will be made will age, the little outly is based on the little outly in the country. He then poisoned himself.

See York, Aug. 23.—A private destant the little outly is based of both navies has, previous to the province of both navies has, previo the Dominion of Canada; we doubt, in approaching, when we are likely to have drunk for the last 27 years. deed, if there was ever a Plebeian whose heavy rains after continuous dry season, ignorance of any place where the Roman and the work should be commenced imeagles flew, was a match for the mediately. Is trade to be embarrassed at lamentable want of knowledge which distinguishes this member of the Imperial Parliament, this degenerate representations that the company have sustained damage crop.

Rumour hath it that another large hotel will be built in Onllia in time for the next that the company have sustained damage.

tive of a once famous race! Well might by the erection of dams in the vicinity Englishmen look forward into the Future | but the public have nothing whitever hopelessly if all their legislators were such the mill owners, and simply look to the men as ho! Weil might the subjects of former for the strict performance of their the Empire in all parts of the world be contract. If further negligence is shown tempted to despair, if questions of Impe. in this matter the people interested should rial grandour whi h require to be dealt bestir themselves to obtain a prompt with by men of ability and extended exert themselves in the interest of those general information, were to be confided over whose affairs they are called to preentirely to the keeping of men of Sir. D. side. Let every man who has to travel the Wedderburn's limited knowledge and ca. | road combine with his neighbor to force pacity. But ignorance is not his only fail obligations to the travelling public. If ing. If it had been we might have borne no other remedy is open let the courts with and pitied him. What is far more be applied to, for the company have no offensive, in fact positively disgusting in right to collect tolls when the road is imhis late speech, is the fact that he hinted at the possibility of selling between four Hull, 17th Aug., 1870. or five millions of British subjects to the

was kind enough to say, "would pay any reasonable sum for the acquisition" of this

"retrogressive" country. Did it ever strike have a right to be consulted own ability, that, if he had been required,

A FALSE STATEMENT REFUTED.

In reference to a false statement lately

pablished in an evening paper in this city, latest and most reliable information.

North Gower Fires.

cited at seeing a large fire raging furiously about the west end of the concession, and work at digging a ditch and clearing a space to prevent the onset, while others sent their movable things away from their

North Gower, August 20th, 1870.

THE STONE BRIDGE AT HULL.

Siz, - Although the water of the river is could be chosen for raising and repairing

the stone bridge between Hull and Aylmer, public, though I have not heard that they are ever careless in collecting their tolls

several persons were carried away on more than one occasion. And what was the boat was put on previous to the Company's expense of other gentlemen, who were doubt considered they performed a highly direction. A number of people set such sentiments, but it is certain that Hon. James Skead SENTINEL. To the Elster of THE TIMEs, United States as though they were so many sheep! "The United States," he

Str. - With your permission acknowledge through the papers from day to day the receipt of subscriptions to the " Fire Relief Fund." The following sums have been received to date

Sic. D. Wedderburn that the people of this J. M. Currier, M.P. country are neither serfs or chattels, and that before either Canada or Canadians Rev. Daniel M. Gordon are traded off to the Yankees, we John Heney the matter? We do not suppose it proba. Allan Gilmour., Henry Chepmel our being inspired with such feelings of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Churc from lightly laying aside our British birth. Thomas Reynolds. right. Sir D. Wedderburn's ancestors might have understood and appreciated J. E. Whyte.

> Total cash received to date. JAS. CUNNINGHAM.

Ottawa, August 23, 1870.

Instead of the $200 in goods, no doubt Wedderburn? Knowing nothing whatever have taken this opportunity of refunding army, shall be shot. of the progress and position of Canada, and the $2,000 which belong to the public, utterly unable to understand the depth of and which he promised through an honorlove for our country and for England, able Senator should be given to some pubventures to dictate to the British peo lie charity. There never was a better ople at home, what should be their mode of portunity for carrying out this promise, dealing with Canadian affairs' And this and we hope the Honorable Senator wil now had the use of the money for three and renown! "Oh, what a falling off years past, and, ne doubt, has made good use of it in pork and other speculations, Dawson's Road.

From the Toronte Leader. A good deal has been said lately, about we copy the following from the Toronto the character of what is called the "Dawson Road," some people freely asserting nied "We have lately made arrangements, that it has been constructed in such which will render our telegrams from the of Government more reliable than those of any other newspaper published in cation. We are assured, upon the authoference to this change, we deem it but just judgement, that the road is in excellent order, and considering the difficulty with telegrams, to say that he neither directly | which labour was carried on upon it, equal simply with the view of obtaining the navigation and back. Thus the journey of ixty-five miles from Fort William to the restern extremity of Lake Shebandowan an easily be accomplished in one day.

Life on a Racing Yacht.

A passenger on the Dauntless thus describes part of his experience on his mem-We almost daily saw vessels, and must have homes where they might not be saught by on the weather side; though, as the event the fire. The wind changed during the night has proved, without foundation. We ex- Mahon has joined Bazaine with a great and has given a degree of quiet to the minds changed colors wi k most of them. We only number of troops. Bazaine has not aban- violability of private property, are most used our rockets and plue lights, however, once—on the fourth day out. The effect McMahon moved north, and France is Special telegrams from Pont a-Mousson A troublesome fire has been at work all of the light upon the sails and water was saved by way of Rheims, Vousiers and on Sunday, says the French, in the battle this week on Mr. Wm. Garland's farm. He extremely striking, and was, in fact, one Mommedy. McMahon has reached a posi- of Thursday, were driven back to Fort St. is a man of over sixty years of age and has of the "effects" of the voyage. The waves | tion where he can enter upon the decisive been fighting it day and night, and has were illumined, as if by some strange struggle." succeeded in keeping it under his control | magic, with a curiously unnatural sheen; himself but also to his neighbors in the silhouettes of the sailors and the outlines to-day."

that we felt it to be very "up hill" work | Herbert Bismarck, one of the sons of the show the battle of that day to have been to be passably cheerful. But it should be Prussian Prime Minister, was wounded in as terrible for them as that of Thursday. clearly understood that we did not allow the foot. ourselves to become utterly miserable. Renow exceedingly low, and no better time creation took almost a purely literary form. Reclined in the cab.n. we calmly smoked, A letter from Baden says the French toward Vitry. and sought distraction in a cargo of novels. work. Any one who is so unfortunate as | tion of Dickens' novels, so ethereally flimsy sian violence are exaggerated but in a few metz. to be obliged to pass in a vehicle over that in their manufacture that we felt it to be a'- instances. most a moral duty to reduce t to a state | The Times to-day asks the French peouncomfortable; but it is not now that one order. Then for music we had now and fence of Paris cannot possible defer its looking older, blotched, and puffy, and then the popping of a champagne cork, capture. is to suffer particularly from the negli- or the sullen swish of the water through gence of those who show so much indiffer | the lea scuppers, or such choice gems o | been raised. ence towards the interests of the travelling current melody as "Snorleygoster," and more crazy morceaux of "La Belle Helene" | into battle 520,000 strong. and other dues. When the spring floods and "Genevieve de Brabant." Two of our The successes attending the Prussian on that line. no means getting the best of it. So it can submitting the subject to the people by a his son, but the Emperor refuses. and 1870. At that time the bridge was easily be seen that we managed to point plebiscitum. impeded to the very great inconvenience en fect, with an occasional laugh. But is not expected at present. United States. In statistical returns of other of many thousands of people who have this is a matter of course. It is absurd to The general headquarters of the French appears the Emperor's escape from capture part also beyond all human power to conclude the first there are the Magenta and the conclude the conclude the conclude the first there are the Magenta and the conclude th

CANADIAN GOSSIP.

Pictou, N. S., supports France. Railway is again the great topic Muskoka is now called "the Highlands their tolls with singular regularity, and no beech The first cargo of grain from the West lets out important secrets. has arrived at kingston.

The scenery of Lakes Muskoka and Rosseau is unsurpassed in America.

should know it at once. The autumn is not a mile from that village who has been The Bradford News is informed th crops in that section will be an average

Latest by Telegraph

BY PEOPLE'S LINE. rick :- 0. P. Drummond's Exchange Office 19 Sparks Street. Midnight Despatches.

CABLE NEWS. Latest from the Seat of nounced a despatch, giving re assuring Paris. news. Deputy Keraty demanded the date, and also whether the despatch was from Benzaine himself. Palikao said the despatch was dated the 19th, but the uproar was so great as to drown his answer touching the authority of the message. Deputy Keraty then proposed that nine members England nor Russia dared for a moment of the chambers be chosen to form part of . $200 00 a committee of defence. The members of 2. 00 the Left immediately gave signs of appro- ing. 50 00 val, but the majority hesitated. Keraty declared that the state of affairs urgently 500 00 jornty rose as approving, and several mem- here. I have the following from good au- sity. To-day they will be again shown, offer the world the product of her own 50 00 bers of the Left, which was accepted as es- thority :- The series of battles which con-30 00 tablish ng the urgency of the case.

100 00 .companied him to Rheims. 100 00 | The Soir says the despatch above allu- tained open 100 00 ded to was from Bazaine, brought to Pali- On Friday afternoon and early on Satur-100 00 kao by a messonger who understood the day morning, the main body of Bazaine's message contained such important and fa- command succeeded in effecting a with- gathering is expected.

from the public; and the Soir says fur. ville, between Fort St. Quintin and Moni ther, that Palikao is certain he will be lusleo de Metz. he would not have been so decided at the meeting of vesterdiv.

and fifty million france loan has already to Rheims. This line is still intact. been taken up by more than was anticipa- By latest accounts Bazaine was reported tel. Five million france have been dis- in Spincourt, near Montmedy, a town on tributed in the city among the families of the river Cheers, a tributary of the Meuse,

A private Lon ion despatch says it is re- north-east of Metz. It was presumed that ported that the Crown Prince of Prussia his intention was to cross Argonnes by has withdrawn from his advance on Paris Stenay to Vosges, and then strike down and gone to support the Prussian armies | the valley of Aisne to St Menchould, west of Metz, a portion of the latter being where, half way between Verdun and threatened with a formidable attack by Chalons, a junction could readily be ef Bazine, who is said to have been reinforced by McMahon.

pose he had been on a mission to King of which Chalons is the apex. Victor Emanuel, but the report to that At St. Menehould a great battle wil effect made public a few days ago is de- probably be fought, as it is thought Mo

The Archi ishop of Paris has directed the at this objective point. A number of Prussian spies were arrest- in case of defeat.

Many prizes are given by the French in another direction, by the French troops. Navy Department to encourage gallantry. Paris, August 22, midnight.-Nothing bombardment of the city so far has done the ultimate success of the military moveto any of the roads in the settled parts of little damage. The French in Strasbourg, ments now in progress is increasing Ontario. The journey from Fort William however, have shelled Kehl, on the other here. to the dam at Lake Sherbandowan, a dis- side of the Rhine, with effect. The place The Minister of the Interior to-night anin eight hours—a rate of travelling which The Journal says that a despatch has received from the army for some days to shows that the highway must at any rate been received here from Bazaine, in which come, it being withheld for prudent reabe in a tolerably good condition. In order the Marshal declares his intention of re- sons. to extend facilities for communication a mainining near Metz without further insmall steamboat has been placed upon the formation. The despach admits that his | 70 cents.

> All quiet at Rheims. It is reported that Drest, the leader the Villette outbreak, has been condemned. He wishes to make a confession, to the rescue of France will be assued imand promises startling revelations. The Gaulois asserts that Prussia applied | ed to re-enter France. through Lord Granville for to get the con-

> her wounded, to the number of $5,000, to quarters at Herny, 174 miles W.S.W. be sent home through Belgium and Lux. | the railroad to Forbach, on emburg, and Bazaine positively refused. stant, that the ninth army corps encamp-L'Express, in an extra, makes the fol- ed there has moved forward on Metz. lowing statement: "We are now at lib. Four corps, at least 200,000 men are alerty to make public the fact that Mc- ready near that fortress. Orders of the King, respecting the doned his strong position near Mets. stringently respected

His brother William had a horse killed peasants are poisoning the wells in bridge, must feel anything but friendly to reduce to a state of dilapidation. Sleeping also became a towards the Road Company, for the stones towards the Road Company, for the stones with which it is covered make it decidedly with which it is covered make it decidedly occasionable cocktails were ruled to be in occasionable cocktails were ruled to be in looking older. Blocking older, blotched, and puffy, and sands are represented as having been left.

The French at Frankton are well treated. Statement to descript the city seems past, and the panic has ple to consider what the attempt to descript is not in proportion to its size. Compared fend Paris will cost, and urges them to consider almost any alternative. The description occasionable cocktails were ruled to be in looking older, blotched, and puffy, and looking older. Blocking older, blotched, and puffy, and looking older, blotched, and puffy, and looking older. Blocking older, blotched, and puffy, and looking older, blotched, and puffy, and looking older. Blocking older, blotched, and puffy, and looking older, blotched, and puffy olders are represented as having been left.

"Jem cracked corn and I don't care." dergone a partial re-organization, and is The long tunnel on the railway between ever meets a prompt and generous res. den of 5,090 tons. Four very powerful varied with distorted renderings of the re-inforced and re-distributed, and will go Epirny and Rheims has been runed by the ponse in Canada, and we are sure will not vessels at least, the French navy can op-suppose that Americans returning home army on Sunday night were a few miles at Longeville on Monday last was made see. But we can, at least to some extent Solferino, which are large but are oldkinds the result will be found equally fa business with Hull, Ottawa and other can be rendered hopelessly unhappy even west of Rheims. Edmond Texier writes through the very midst of the Prussian mitigate the first pangs of their attendant fashioned; then the Gloire, Invincible and the result will be found equally fashioned; then the Gloire, Invincible and the result will be found equally fashioned; then the Gloire, Invincible and the result will be found equally fashioned; then the Gloire, Invincible and the result will be found equally fashioned; then the Gloire, Invincible and the result will be found equally fashioned; then the Gloire, Invincible and the result will be found equally fashioned; then the Gloire, Invincible and the result will be found equally fashioned; then the Gloire, Invincible and the result will be found equally fashioned; then the Gloire, Invincible and the result will be found equally fashioned; then the Gloire, Invincible and the result will be found equally fashioned; the result will be fashioned; the result will be found equally fashioned; the result will be fashioned; the resu places. Last spring, people, in their anx- by the wildest and most ill-natured ca- thence to the Siecle that the greatest de army. pression prevails, and the Emperor sees | New York, Aug. 23 .- A private despatch | ince we have had too sad an experience of much better than our Warrior. The despatches to-day are meagre.

there is no hope for a triumphant issue of country people and workingmen, nearly sary, the appeal most touching, most pa which are small in size and unimportant the war unless the Emperor and Prince all of whom are raw. Bazaine professes to thetic, most convincing, is printed in our These form the sea-going war fleet of White fish are plentiful at Burlington turn to Paris. The Prince chatters about Longon, Aug. 23.—Bazaine has forced a read there the story of the calamity to be of the ceasts, there are twenty seven float-Imperial cease their interference and re. be master of the situation.

> The Dutch Consul at Liverpool has obhim by Holland.

Another submarine cable has been suc. essfully laid between France and Eng.

British ironclads are anchored off the Nore, with fires banked. Baron of the Exchequer, is reported.

The Stock market is depressed by the expected movement of bullion to France.

The Stock market is depressed by the expected movement of bullion to France.

The Stock market is depressed by the expected movement of bullion to France.

The Stock market is depressed by the expected movement of bullion to France.

The Stock market is depressed by the expected movement of bullion to France.

The Stock market is depressed by the expected movement of bullion to France.

The Stock market is depressed by the expected movement of bullion to France.

YESTERDAY'S DESPATCHES.

Movements of the Combatants-The Orleans Family to be Allowed to Re-enter France Prussians. &c.

A special to New York, dated London August 22, says .- The Crown Prince, it is believed, is marching on Paris direct. is reported that McMahon and Canrobert prevention of the dismemberment are moving upon the road taken by him. The Prussian army is estimated at 200,-000; the French Marshal is supposed to have an equal number of troops of the l.ne. Paris, Aug. 23.—The Corps Legislatif but it is believed only a very good posimet yesterday; when Count Palikao an- tion can stop his advance much short of

The English Government is in constan communication with the great powers in regard to the demand made by Prussia for the cession of Alsace and Lorame. A Cabinet Minister said to day that those demands meant a European war, as neither

A Paris despatch to the Times says the pretended victory of the Prussians at Ri-, driven around the city yesterday, and inlonville on the 18th finds little credence | spected the Lunatic Asylum and Univer-It was reported that Righer went to ing the Prussians command of the roads to a banquet. They leave for Montreal this increased year by year. So remarkable is Chalons to confer with the Emperor, and Verdun, which diverge at Gravelotte. evening. Communication by the North is still revorable news, which has been withheld drawal from Metz by the Gate of Thion sustained by the Corps Legislatif, or else | The highway follows the left bank of the .It is reported that King William has is- in a north-westerly direction towards sued a pio lamation that every individual Longuey and Montineay, on the Belgian authorities, near Memphis, Tenn., and with the pretensious impudence of Sir D. merchant, we certainly expected he would taken in open hostility to the Prussian line, and connecting Thionville with the cur. The Siecle says that the seven hundred which latter point it proceeds due South

tected with McMahon. St. Minehould is 30 miles north of Vi

Paris journals blame Prince Napoleon for le Francais, and 25 miles north-east of leaving France on his return. It was sup- Chalons. The three places form a triangle Mahon is now on his way to join Bazaine clergy to contradict the report that the The French position covers all the rail-Pope has felicitated the King of Prussia, road lines, and secures a retreat to Paris Important movements are in progress amounts to $1,237. The Semin y lead

Reports from Strasbourg show that the further from the front. The confidence in Bourse-Consols weak; rentes 61 frs.

The Empress has asked permission to cross Belgium territory Paris. August 22.-Napoleon, i ported has escaped from France. A general appeal to Frenchmen to come mediately and the Orleans family be allow-

Naw York, August 23rd .- A corressent of the French commanders to allow pondent writes from the King's head-

> Quintin, where, from the Prussian front, they are still visible.

Le Public says: "Full confirmation of The villages of Thionville, Flagney, Rethus preventing much harm, not only to the mainsail grew almost spectral, and the the good news from the army was received zonville, and Gravelotte, are much burn of the spars stood out in bold relief against | London, August 23 .- This morning's | The fields are covered with dead Prus-Keep Cool," predicts the defeat of the French lines beyond Gravelotte suffered Our life aboard was extremely quiet, Prussians as the result of pending combin- much. Vast numbers of dead French are still on the battle field of Tuesday, and | ready apprised our readers of the vast ex- to a definite plan

> The King arrived here last night. The Crown Prince is said to have visited him this morning and to have returned A special telegram from Frankfort says days of the conflagration from the Ottawa | the other hand, if the ports of France are the movement of troops to the front is in. Times of Friday last, from the details not so important as those of Prussia her not the first step has yet been taken to New York alderman largely contributed, as Captain Jeannered writes to the Paris cessant, another large portion of the Prus. of which may be gathered a fair conwards performing that very desirable he had sent aboard a complete cheap edi- Temps admiting that the accounts of Prus- sian army is on its way to reimburse Steinsession of Alsace.

moves about with an air of helple The fortifications of Luxemburg have The Gardes Mobile are all le wing, and Chilons is much more orderly without come we shall have presented the same party, too, were incessantly engaged in arms caused a revival of the question of The Tribune's despatch from Paris, on ling, so unsparing, that it is diffi- bere, and the Boule Dogue. These four disgraceful spectacle that was witnessed a backgammon tournament, in which blind the Hohenzollern candidature. There are | Sunday says it is believed the Empress is cult at first to realize its full horrors. are steam-rams, and have a speed of about for many weeks in April and May of 1869 luck was pitted against skill, the latter by rumors that Minister Prim is in favor of urging the Emperor to abdicate in favor of There is no difficulty however in fourteen knots each. They each carry

from London says: A Paris despatch says such calamities as to be insensible to the Couronne then stands alone, being better The forces called out by the Swiss Gov. that the armies of King William and Stein- sufferings they entail. In the present in plated and protected than those we have ernment are returning to their homes, the metz are reported to be too severely crip. stance the extent of the devastation recom- mentioned, but in ordinance being on a regular army being considered sufficient to. pled to assume the offensive, and it is given mends it with special force to the benevo- par with them. Then comes the vessels out on high authority, that Bazaine was re- lence of the whole country. The city of built on one uniform system, to carry 36 Details of the battle of Gravelotte are inforced from Chalons on Sunday, for the Ottawa single handed cannot cope with the guns and of 900 horse power. Then the still wanting; even at Berlin the German purpose of giving battle to the enemy near distress surrounding it. It will, we are Belligueuse is a remarkable vessel, which Metz. He is confident of victory, when he confident, do its share or even more. But stands in a class by itself, and is known to Advices from the vicinity of the hostile | will march on the army of the Crown | it must not be left unsupported in a work | us chiefly in connection wit a armies state that heavy rain fell all last | Prince and rescue Paris.

The correspondent of Le Temps says recruits are only to be had from among the elaborate appeal. The only appeal neces d'Acre and Atlanta, and four vessels

It is reported that the armies of the the story is but half told. It is the great speed. Prince Royal and Prince Frederick Char. story of Wednesday night and As regards ships, then, there is no comsion on three frigates ordered through les have formed a junction west of Metz. Thursday only. Of what followed purison between the French and Prussian ANTWERP, Aug. 23.—The war has para- on Friday, our Saturday's despatches gave navies, except that, while the French navy Yesterday a school teacher at Bath, lysed business here. No failures are yet some outline. When we come to read in includes a large number of vessels of no ters to prevent their seeking situations in Here, as everywhere, the only hope of re- the people of Aylmer, Hull, the Gatinesu ship or iron-clad in the Prussian navy patch dated London, 1.30 p. m., says that hour. But we have already known enough the Paris correspondent of the London to know that they are imperative. With standard telegraphs that Bazaine has suctions and the sent year, undergone great mother than their better aware of the true exigencies of the Both Prussia and France found out their to know that they are imperative. With ordnance was unsatisfactory two years this knowledge we can make no error in ago. Admiral de la Ronciere in France and this knowledge we can make no error in ago. seeded in cutting the enemy's lines and giving practical expression to our sympais retreating on Montmede.

this knowledge we can make no error in ago. Admiral de is nowledge we can make nowledge we can make no error in ago. Admiral de is nowledge we can make now

The Paris journals continue to urge levy en masec to exterminate the vaders. The French gunboats now operating on the Rh ne have been re-called to the Count Palikao announced to the Corps Legislatif yesterday that he was in receipt -Fields Covered with Dead of good news from Murshal Bazaine, giving proof of the Marsh d's confidence in which he Government shares. Paris, Aug. 23.—It seems certain that a up our army and navy, but few of us realize project has been brought before the Great Powers of Europe, having for its object the LONDON, Aug. 23 .- The following is just received from Alexandria: The Prussian frigate Hedtha, carrying 28 guns, has been frigute Hedtha, carrying 28 guns, has been oughly efficient state. Yet one word is being found in the de captured by the French. No particu-

Assurances have been sent from French Government to His Holiness Italy has no intentions of attacking Rome. Papal troops had been withdrawn from Campaigna to defend the city.

TORONTO.

TORONTO, August 23. The Illinois Press Association with their Italy is putting her army on a war foot lady friends numbering one hundred, were France, since the some of the civic lions, and entertained at markets, but her import trade has steadily

> The Corner stone of the new Methodist trebled. The French merchant navy has Church in Magill Square is to be laid tomorrow by Rev. Mr. Punshon; a large 1853 there were only 14,000 vessels, there

There was great excitement in the city has gradudly during the last twenty years last night by a rumor that the Norseman devoted herself so steadily to the pursuit with over a thousand. Young Britons, had Moselle, and runs due north till within sunk near Port Hope. Fears were allayed five miles of Thionville, where it strikes off by the return of the boat late at night. She was much too heavily laden for safety, of the Imperial navy.

MONTREAL.

MONTREAL, August 23. The depth of water on the flats of Lake Peter shows that the water is gradually

The Harbor Commission is pushing on the works intended tho widen the portion transport of goods and merchandize rived at Bonaventure station yesterday. The car cost $23,000. The P. C. O. Rifles give their farewell smost important, which is established in a concert at the Crystal Palace to-night-The first list of subscriptions collected in aid of the wounded and widows and most superficial glance on the map will orphans of the French army already show the importance of Kiel to the Prus-

Flour-Very little business 16 por ed. market firm at yesterday's prices. The Tyne crew arrived in this . to this

QUEBEC.

QUEBEC, August 23. The funeral of the Grand Trunk conluctor, Mr. Corneau, drowned at River du Loup while bathing, takes place to-mor-

The Corporation official contains advertisements calling for half sterling has been spent upon it. & fee of be a sterling able to be chief of the Quebec fire debt, is generally thought, however, that those being a secondary matter with them.

Sir M. Jones, Bart., and Lady, and Rev. Jas. Carmichel are at the St. Louis Hotel. Sir John Young and Lady Young have gone to Spencer's Wood this morning for Freidrich Karl and Kron Print, which are ST. MAURICE NAVIGI a few weeks.

Arrived to-day from sea for Montreal teamer Sweden with general cargo.

The Late Fires.

tent, and terrific power of the tremendous The French navy has the advantage fires which have been raging round Ottawa; age, tradition, and size on its side. The for some days past, filling the hearts of ports of Prussia are important, perhaps the people of the capital with consterns | more so than those of France; but the tion and awe. We reprint this morning German ships are not numerous enough a very graphic description of the grat to protect her merchandize efficiently. On ception of the frightful devastation wrought by the flames, and at least an ap- The war fleet of France consists at the The South German press demand the proximate estimate of the loss in life and present moment of about sixty iron-clads, property. Now that immediate danger to including floating batteries. Large, howthe city seems past, and the panic has ever in size as is this war fleet, its strength houseless and homeless, and actually, heim. The Rochambeau, which the French men, women and little children, in want government bought from America in 1867, of the absolute necessaries of life. The is a most powerful vessel. It is a ram, but call of crushing misfortune such as theirs carries its guns broadside, and has a bur-French, as they are expecting the Prussians | to-day appeal in vain. The calamity has | pose to the two turret-ships of the Prusbeen so comprehensive, so overwhelm sians-the Taureau, the Beller, the Cer- Every in All acts of the Corps Legislatif take ef- and ample, is looked for from the whole is covered with a cylindrical ballimpassable and travelling almost entirely the hours as they fled slowly by with lad. An extraordinary meeting of the Cortes fect without imperial decrees confirming country. The losses of one frightful night proof dome. The remaining fifty-four them, or directing their execution. It are beyond our power to repair, and in iron-clads may be divided into nine.

> that recommends itself to the Christian voyage round the wold. It carries 10 night, which must have seriously impeded a thrill of horror throughout Germany, and operation in that work it has no need of vessels on a modified form, the St Jean columns to-day. It is only necessary to France. Besides these, for the protection military movements to everybody, and passage by way of Anteuil and Longuion, come at once aroused to the necessities it ing batternes and four coastguard vessels, entails. And it must be remembered that | built to carry heavy guns, but having no London, Aug. 23. -It is almost certain that there will be no difficulty in gathering duced great improvements, but t ough

The Opposing Navie

From the Loudon Times

and our only anxiety is in the efficiency of

In the terrible struggle which now seems our weapons of attack and defence.

Few people realize the existence of war forces in foreign countries, and fewer still their meaning and their power. We for instance, are accustomed year after year to skill of both of know that so much money is voted t keep favor. what the expenditure of that money means.

Most of us associate the income tax rather than war with our army and our navy, and to many there is a more genuine feeling of delight at hearing of the remission of a enough to dispel those illusions. The N. B., turns out to be whisper, the possibility, the threat of war, Mr. Phomas Ber throws these ideas at once to the winds. mill erected at the The income tax may take c. re of itself then, kosh.

imm nent, it is interesting to know what is fatally and Prussia may not be what are known as maritime powers, but few people are aware value of imports into France has almost also so greatly increased that, while in are now nearly 16,000; and, if statistics are worth anything, they prove that France DUEL of the merchant navy, to the increased cul and, onsequently to the increased strength In Prussia the same influence have been at work. Little is known, comparatively speaking, of the rapid and extraordinary strides in commerce which have been made by the North German Codiederation ing but proportionally they are greater even than in France. Less still is known of the extrao dinary m . n. which Pruss has taken to benefit by her newly acquired property and establish a powerful war navy. ME HAZZYI During the last few years Prussis has altic and North Seas. On both these she coast. On both coasts she has endeavored to establish ports which might be useful either in time of peace or war. On the Baltic Prussia has three ports - Dantsic, on the extreme east; Stralsund, midway be CONCERT

tween Memel and Holstein; and Kiel, the fine bay in Holstein. Of these three ports SUFFERERS Kiel is so important that Russia has been will take place in the represented as sore on the subject. The sians When complete, it is so well situ- FRIDAY NEXT, THE ated, both geographically and locally, as to show that it may easily be the Cher bourg of the Baltic. It is said that when ir & E. Cartier. it is finished the Baltic will be merely a | ton f. L. They, C. B. Prussian lake, and that Prussia will then, | to. D. C. Alife. without any difficulty, not only be able to close the entrance to foreign fleets, but | The Mayor and Coasell . will possess the most complete power over | and Cat, Williams and Ob. Copenhagen. Since she has been at peace wa E. E. set about ## # # Prussia has endeavored, by every meins in her power, to establish a strong navy. The fellering ladies Money has been her only obstacle, but this has not prevented her making every year large adultions to her ships and her ports. For instance, though we have only nitherto spoken about the ports in the Baltic, the port of Jade, in the North Sea, | Mr. BOLL BOW ARD Co. has been established and extended with such spirit that already a million and a ts situation is most tempting, for completed or being built, of which six are It was built originally for the Turkish

Adelbert, which are turret ships. Beside these there are 33 wooden vessels of various sizes. It is hardly worth while at the present time mentioning what the intentions of the Prussian government were at pany of date the Fifth the beginning of the year, but during | instant, is be ely then navy, but was bought by the Prussians, after it had been offered to the the pext seven years it was intended to increase the navy materially, according misery and privation. In our own prov. Normandie are slightly smaller but are not