District that they have opened a

WHOLESALE DRY GOODS

BELL'S BLOCK, ELGIN STREET, OPPOSITE THE

And are now receiving and opening largpments by sailing vessels, " Lake Erre, " Lake Superior," "Cherokee," " Medors," and steamers " Austrian," "St. Patrick," "Peruvian," and others. Their Stock will be complete in a few

RUSSELL HOUSE.

Wholesale agents for the sale of Cornwall MAGEE & RUSSELL

Ottawa, August 27, 1870.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Her Majesty's Theatre-Wm. J. Marshs

Wholesale Warehouse-Magee & R Second Annual Exhibition of the City of Ottawa Agricultural Society. Her Majesty's Theatre-Chimney Corner

-W. J. Marshall. Life Association of Scotland-J. T. &

Auction Sale of Imported Stock-A. Row Caution-Cornwall Blankets.

The Ottawa Times. Affice 1 38, Sparks Street.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 26, 1870.

Hon. Mr. Mitchell left town yesterd

Col. Robertson Ross, Adjutant General ing the case, young inexperienced rifle-Ontario and Quebec Battalions in Kings- they know they have little ton on Saturday next. The Picton Volunteers will be inspected on Tuesday next.

for the appointment of chaplain to the were five hundred years ago, and to make says: two depot companies of the North every man accustomed to the use West expedition stationed at Kingston, rifle; to teach him to fire steadily and cided that as every opportunity is afforded become competent, if ever he should be the men belonging to these the defence of Fatherland.

we have to announce the death of Joshus "a coarse personal attack on a prominent been associated with the Ottawa lumber | gested that one of our wealthiest commerbusiness since the year 1844. Mr. Smith | cial men, E. McGillivray, Esq., should avail The latter gentleman was well and fa- some charitable purpose. The Citizen vorably known among the excellent class having undertaken his defense, we shall was a portion, who in the make a statement of the facts having con of Ottawa were the fore- nection with the $2,000. that his heritage of six sons to his adopted Esq., who was really the choice of the Charmant! home was such as few gentlemen of any Conservatives, withdrew in consequence of A slightly frowsy looking woman Joshua Smith, Esq.; his every acquain- quence, Mr. Currier, who probably would that would (and will) administer a blow tance was a friend. The name of Joshua not have opposed Mr. Scott, took the that you nor I would not care to be the re-Smith his been associated with the lumber field, we presume, in order to save the tied down with a red handkerchief, a trade ever since the year 1844, when as a city from the disaster of being represented brown serge gown, and boots, oh dearyouth, young Joshua Smith commenced by this "prominent merchant." A brisk can rather large and heavy for a negro minstrel He brought a raft to Quebec with a retired gave Mr. McGillivray a hearty support, and such as her; many a dying soldier's lumber merchant of this city, and has when to their surprise and disgust, three head she has supported on since been intimately connected with the days after the nomination, and when it bosom, and received their last "God bless spirit well worthy of his honored parent. | contest for the consideration of two thou- than my dainty Lydias and Paulines! His donations in money for benefits to the sand dollars. It may be remembered that public, and his useful promotion of ali the indignation of his supporters scarcely matters which tended to good progress, knew bounds; his name was associated for war. It will soon have assembled sufficiently recent record as to make it while others treated his unqualified baseness

Possessed of the qualities of a true gentle man—the affability of maner belonging to a generous nature, coupled with the spirit with which the pioneers of this part have been held in Liverpool, as follows: January, £10,323; February, £10,323; Febru

He leaves none but friends among those not only would unpleasant memories be Now that we are beginning to receive by the way of atonement would be made mail some intelligible accounts of the battles of Worth and Weissenburg, we are to an abused public in the turn of goods not over well-gotten. As able to form some idea of what really took place, and to trace the success of the Prus- so long will the public remember the "bar long as he retains that bounty money, Worth, as described by those who were gain, and sale "of the last election, and present on the field, seems to have been public servant, respond to the public contested with desperate courage, and the wish by holding up both the person, and defeat of the French is attributable, not the act perpetrated by him to public noto any superior valour on the part of their tice, as an instance wherein their generous powering numbers, but rather to the fact wards most foully betrayed. We are glad of the Prussian troops being thoroughly that the Citizen has taken up the matter in au fail in breech loader drill, and to their Mr. McGillivray's behalf, and that "a change steady and well-directed firing. The im- has come o'er the spirit of its dream. And provements which have, of late years, now that a respectable journal has espoused been made in artillery and small arms, his cause, we would like to ask it to and more especially the invention of state in plain terms whether it considers breech-loading rifles, have rendered that the $2,000 to which we have alluded, steady discipline of belong of right, to Mr. McGillivray, or to more account than ever, and have the people of Ottawa. made that fiery impetuous heroism, has ever distinguished French troops, CITY OF OTTAWA AGRICULTURA of less value. The man who from sheer force of habit and discipline We are glad to find that the City of Otable to take cool deliberate aim and tawa Agricultural Society are not disheartmake every shot tell is of course ened by the calamity which has lately though firing two shots to his one, shoots wildly and without taking proper aim. From what we read we gather that the French soldiers fired, on an average, at least twice as many shots as their opponents. As soon as the word was given they commenced to blaze away with their Chassepots with wonderful rapidity, actually

BREECH LOADING RIFLES.

by the weight of fire.

The lesson which this fact teaches should experience of the present war already proves its truth. Every Canadian who its freedom preserved, should endeavour

as far as possible to become familiarized

It is not only necessary that he should know how to load and fire it, but that he did shots if the great mass of the people at our various rifle meetings men who have won prizes in public matches should be "weighted," that is compelled to give a point or two to less skitful competitors. Now, before a rifle match comes off in a district it is pretty generally understood by whom the prizes will be won, be sause the relative merits of the various contestants are so well known. This be-rifle shooting. We have always fallen upon the agricultural community in this vicinity, and that they propose holding their annual Exhibition upon 21st, 22nd and 23rd of September. We hope that they will receive all possible sup port from the public, so that thus they may be enabled to go on and prosper the work of affording encouragement all the good farmers of the neighbor in some cases exhausting their supply of ammunition before the cooler Germans began to reply. The latter, on the other hand, MR. ALFRED PERRY waited until they were sure that their adversaries were within range, and then Mr. Alfred Perry has long been we going through every movement with the known in Montreal for the energy same steadiness as though they were on distinguished courage which he has parade, they took aim with eve.y shot that many occasions displayed in buttling with heard of the danger in which we were placed, he immediately came to our assis-French columns were literally annihilated tance as fast as a special train could carry him, and remained with ns until all imme diate danger was over. But when he re turned to Montreal he did not forget us or the sufferings of our neighbors in the often been preached in Canada, and the burnt districts, as we find by the following appeal which appears in the Montreal really loves his country and desires to see papers of yesterday:

Having just returned from Ottawa, cannot refrain from appealing to th public of Montreal on behalf of the suf ferers in the country around that city Upwards of 200 families, most of them cuit I visited, and most of them have lost should become thoroughy accustomed to their all. Buildings, crops, fences, stock doing so in certain regular time, so that |-all gone; and in several cases, the father when he is called upon to exercise his or some member of the family has per-skill as a marksman against an enemy, the These destitute families have no horse force of drill and habit will overcome the or carriages to bring them into Ottawa tendency to shoot wildly and rapidly, and if they had the bridges are burned which is one of the natural mistakes which They are crowding under any kind o a young soldier is liable to make when cases, destitute of food and clothing. The first he finds himself under fire. Nothing most prompt assistance will be necessary should be left undone that can be done in to save lives, especially of the children. the way of er couraging rifle shooting What is most urgently wanted is clothing, and anything in this line would be most among all class is of our people. Much valuable to them. has already been done in this direction,

Providentially the potatoe fields are and Canada to-day can probably boast safe, and will afford the means of preserving life in the way of food ; but no supplies of clothing can be obtained except men who would scarcely find a superior even at a meeting of English "cracks" at

The corporation and citizens of Ottawa Wimbledon. But it is of little real ser- and vicinity are doing nobly, putting forth vice to the country to possess a few splen- the most energetic efforts and subscribing most liberally; but they cannot and must not be left to shoulder the whole burder not also trained to a knowledge Montreal ought to send in a supply second-hand clothing-children's clothin and womer's being most urgently needs -at once, addressed to Mr. Carrier, M P., of Ottawa, President of the Centra > urgent need may send in their parcel to the Mechanics' Institute, where I will receive and pack them and send them off

ALFRED PERRY. Wednesdag Afternoon.

The Toronto Telegraph, with that winning. The object of rifle matches is tinguishes it, has sent a special not to turn out a few crack shots, but to dent to the seat of war. We take the folrender the yeomanry of Canada as formid- lowing extracts from his last letter. several applications having been made able marksmen as the archers of England speaking of the King of Prussia a noble countenance, "an eye like Mars to the composition of the army.

It is with no small amount of pain that cool in taking us to task for what it terms certain flabby look in his face. He sits ters Rouher, Schneider, Persigny, Baroile stone. They are massive and rich in extermine the Northern part of Alsace. On the the advances here now mount of pain that cool in taking us to task for what it terms certain flabby look in his face. He sits ters Rouher, Schneider, Persigny, Baroile stone. They are massive and rich in extermine the Northern part of Alsace. On the the advances now mount of pain that cool in taking us to task for what it terms certain flabby look in his face. He sits Smith, Esq., a gentleman whose name has merchant of this city." We merely sug- credited, he owes a good deal of his military carriage to padding and stays. He was born in Tipperary, Ireland, and then himself of the opportune moment to ren- and, is disconnected from his royalty. a when quite young emigrated to Canada with | der up some $2,000, which it is generally "very weak old man." This is the naked his father, the late Isaac Smith, Esq. understood had been promised by him for truth, I have pierced the "divinity that doth hedge a King," and presented you London, August 25 -Prince Felix Sa o'clock in the City Hell, an old affair defeat was sustained by McMahon.

their way to order among At the last general election Mr. McGilli- with charming naivete on one side of a those whose ways were those of rapine and vray forced himself on the electors of Ot rogush looking face, sparkling eyes, lips Isaac Smith, Esq., came to Can- tawa, as a candidate for the representation little waist that would tempt the arm ada with ample means, and the entire of of the city in the House of Commons in an anchorite to twine round it, and little the Ottawa community will bear testimony the Conservative interest. R. W. Scott, feet in silken hose and red laced boatsountry can boast of. Of these the eldest, certain declarations made by parties in forty-five, muscular and mannish, with the the timber making business vass followed, and numbers of conservatives to try a break down in. But, good old brought a raft to Quebec with a ratified grow Mr. McGillisman a heart soul, the army would fare ill without her was impossible for the conservatives to find you f' Amen, say I, and rough and un-Mr. Smith always manifested a public another candidate, he retired from the more fitting associate of grim old Bella, > well-organized and well-armed corps of tivity. with the scorn it deserved. Mr. McGillivray sympothy with France is well-known.

ever been inspired, Mr. Smith sank to his for the would devote the two thousand dollars are while in preparation for another to some charitable use. We merely wish to some ch

Latest by Telegraph BY PEOPLE'S LINE. OFFICE :- G. P. Drummond's Exchange Office

19 Sparks Street. CABLE NEWS.

Latest from the Seat of War.

Midnight Despatches. Paris, Aug. 25 .- The Figure of this at ernoon contains the following : A person who arrived from the vicinity of Epurney his evening states that he was informed to-day between Verdun and Chalons. ' over the rumor in the Stock Exchange Prince had been defeated by the French are allowed to cross Belgium territory is a nere pretext of intended violation of soil. sued an extra with the following news:

osed of the fortresses of Mont Medy, Verdun, Thionville and Mets, would await It is not expected any important engagement would occur within two days. The Emperor quitted Courseles last night and goes to Berne, in the canton Rheims. Yesterday the Imperial headquarters were at Chalons. The defence of Toul by the National Guard and the Garde Mobile is described At St. Marie aux-Chenes Marshal Canrobert threw himself before his troops, and for heavy seige guns.

after a sharp sword combat with a Prussian officer, drove the enemy back. It is said the garrison at Brussels have received orders to march to the frontier sian Moniteur states that King William's headquarters are removed from Pont a Mousson to Bar Le Duc. The headquarters of the 1st and 2nd

The Belgian Minister here says the ournals have received authority from his Government to positively contradict the statement that the passage of wounded Prussians is that some success of the Prussians through Belgian territory had een permitted or attempted Roun, August 25 -The Osservator nano, a journal favorable to the Prussian cause, has been threatened with violence by the soldiers of the Pontifical army, un ess it speedily alters its tone. More Prussian ships were arrested torday, while taking plans of the work along the river. Some others were also arrested here, and some detached with McMahon's army.

Remittance has been received from Dublin to aid the wounded The Empress asknowledges the contri butions in a note, in which she says til offering to the wounded French is received with gratitude. The generous senti ments which have inspired this act and your wishes for success of our arms and appiness of the Imperial family, have andly touched His Majesty.

Prussian troops closely surround Strasbourg yet the government treasurer man-Grarden, offering a wager that he will be den publishes the letter and accepts the the tall towers of the Parlament Houses

Minister of the Interior will be forced to Rideau river, as it nears the city, and apply the law regulating the press with crosses that and the Rideau Canal, which spite of the representations made to them Ontario, 125 miles to the South West. Will you have romance or reality? Shall by the Government, continue to publish | We arrived at Ottawa about noon, and we learn that the government have de- never to fire without taking sim, and so I give you a fancy sketch of the movements of the were driven to the Russell House—a large Scene on the battle field—Over > you may have set up! The King is seventy- terday, Gen Wimpfen, who has recently are the finest structures in Canada, and "The swift and skilful movement two years of age, and looks it. He is been operating against rebels in Algeria, The Citizen is somewhat refreshingly His figure has a tendency to corpulency, a The Council is now composed of Minis-

London, Aug. 25.—Paris is utterly without news from the seat of war.

Cent in size, proportions, and architectural beauty. The interiors we found less gained a victory ove the ablest Gen ral in out news from the seat of war.

Corps Legislatif has gone to the Emperor and elegance. to demand his abdication.

two prizes into Cherbourg yesterday. MADRID, Aug. 25 .- A Carlist movement ject. is reported in Aragon, in the neigh. After the meeting we took carriages for strip of forest which forms a cover for reborhood of Uscha. Troops are sent there. a drive through the city and to the great treating troops. London, Aug. 25.—The weekly returns mills on Victoria Island and across the ... The little river Bruder, not big enough Dr. J. A. Grant...... of the Bank of England show an increase river at Hull, which is really but a suburb in summer time to float a skiff, flows and one of the most popular, was the late Mr. McGillivray's interest. In conse- biceps well developed, and a brawny hand of bullion of 207,000 pounds sterling.

> Manderines implicated in the massacre be blocks of stores show that it is the centre and cart loads of needle suns were col- Rev. Mr. Pollard...

Possessed of the qualities of a true gentle not eing able to stand the storm of indig. The Revenue of the Suez Canal Company London, Aug. 25.—The Pope reports them.

YESTERDAY'S DESPATCHES.

First Naval Engagement-A Run-Guns Harmless Against

of the 17th inst., the German despatch although nobody had yet seen them the Danish island of Moen, the Grille at there that the Prussians were defeated length discovered the tall masts of the London, Aug. 25 -There is a great deal frigates and several smaller vessels, and of excitement in this city this afternoon approached until within three thousand paces. The French opened fire and dileet. She lured them to follow her as far as Posthouse, at Whitton, where the three The French iron-clads are blockading gunboats Drache, Blitz and Salamander. the cannonading immediately got up f the French that the Prussian wounded their consort.

The Commodore of the little sonadron made signal to the commander of each Paris, Aug. 25.—The F go o has just is gunbout to attack the enemy at his own discretion, which produced loud A person who arrived in Paris at eight cheers, and they all steamed out ready for e'clock to night, coming from Eperney, re- action with the superior force of the enemy ports he heard in that city that the Prus- After a running fight of three hours, the sians were defeated to day between Ver- gunboats finding their guns were harmless dun and Chalone. Groups of Prussian against the plated sides of the iron-clads. stragglers, cavalry and infantry were returned to the protection of their shore and coming into Chalons. The combat com- batteries. Several shots from the gunboats menced this morning at three o'cleck, and hit their mark, and shells from the Sala the news reached Chalons and Epernay at mander were seen to explode on the deck , but according to the rumor the en. The German flotilla suffered no losses tire army of Prince Charles was in the whitever, though it might have been very different had any of the heavy 28 cemti-A despatch from Rheims on the 23rd metre shells, fired from the French ships, says it was supposed the armies of Mc-Mahon and Bazaine had effected a junction, the gunboats. The latter, filled up their and supported by a quadrilaterial com stock of ammunitions and coals at Stralsund, returned to their station in the outer roads, where they are on outpost duty.

The special correspondent of the Tribune at the head-quarters of the Crown Prince that the German attack was made with ing peoples like those of Canada and of horses in the stream, infantry to pass field artillery, and that a great many of the United States, should understand each through and reconnoitre, and some to their light guns have been brought into other; should see eye to eye in matters make purchases. The capture of Pfalsburg is an impor

London, August 25.—Strasbourg is well endorse the words of the Ottawa Daily precedes the storm. In a few minutes defend d. According to the Telegraph's Times, in its comments on the meeting It some Prussian sharpshooters, coming in correspondent the defensive fire had desarmies are near Metz, while other corps troyed all property within range of the

The French armies are now well Paris letters say the great fear of for peace beyond the Rhina. Le Liberte says the siege of Paris lin has just been received :- the French, and that the Prussian column is west of Chalons, advancing rapidly Parts, August 24-midnight.-It is ported that the Prussians are at Sesanue to-day, 65 miles from Paris.

Prince Royal is reported at Nancy. Le Patrie repeats that the Prussia were defeated in the battle of Sunday.

A Visit to Ottawa.

The correspondent of the Burlingto Free Press and Times gives the following could be seen looming faintly through the the utmost rigor if certain journals, in connects Ottawa with Kingston, on Lake a hero in appearance, stalwart and upright, troops, the state of the fortifications, and and handsomely appointed hotel, with modern conveniences, and excellently threaten and command," and all that, or The national loan has closed, more than kept by Mr. J. A. Gouin,—where a bath will you have the truth? The truth, sir! the amount required having been sub- and a lunch contributed to the general who was with the Prussian army at the inations with which they are respectively MR. McGILLIVRAY AND THE "CI. madam, though I may disturb some ideal; At a Council of Ministers held here yes. the Government buildings near by. These count of the conflict: serenity, and prepared us for a stroll to battle of Worth gives the following acamong the very finest on the Continent. against Wissemburg, resulting in com-They are of cre am colored sandstone, re- plete success to the German arms, was but rior ornamentation, and are truly magnifi- second day after that of Wissemburg came the advancing line, who are now mounting imposing, the halls of the Senate and France. It is admitted that the Fench Commons looking too much like chapels, fought with reckless courage, and that Prussians, who had advanced so solidly, It is believed that a deputation of the and the passage ways often lacking breadth they inflicted heavy loss on their oppo-

lam Salam, Major in the Prussian guard, which cannot be very highly praised for "I traversed the field while the dead fence. Their reserves enabled them to distinguished for services in American and | beauty, size, or, convenience. But sill lay unburied on the trampled ground, send in fresh troops while the defenders Mexic in wars, was killed in the battle of the city is going to mend it shortly with a an I could form a good notion of how the new one. The meeting is elsewhere re fight had gone by the ghastly evidences ATHENS via London, August 25th. The ported, and need not be further described. | Watch remained. Worth is at the bottom Prussian ship Velladen was captured by a It made an evident sensation among the of a fertile velley, between two ridges of rench man-of-war and taken into Sierra. citizens of Ottawa who are interested in cultivated ground. There is much of It is said that a French ironclad towed the prosperity of their city, and will doubt wo ded land in the neighborhood; and less bear fruit in time, for its grand ob- especially behind the French position or be taken by the French Government, now that Belgium has permitted the violation of her neutrality by Prussians.

London, August 25.—Preparation for kind of yellow murky and depressing twilight, which suggested hurricanes, pestilight, which sugges smarting and teurs to every eye. The and rigid discipline of the one army had John Lumsden..... 140,000, which will be placed under the Paris papers are persuading themselves dust filled every hole in every counted been more than a match for the desperate James McKinny.

Victoria Island, which is covered with im- steel breast-plates and brass helmets scat- William McGillivra pumps—one of the mills having already sacks, rifles, and overcoats, either thrown 8 men employ been on fire from sparks blown from the away in flight or left by the wounded on George Mason. French Iron-Clads — The burning woods, and considerable appre- the field. Then I came upon a spot where Philip Mason, the French had rallied and where the dead Passing over the river, we examined of both sides lay thick. Turcos were there A. W. Fleck Bombardment of Pfalzbourg. with great interest the mill of E. B. Eddy. who had evidently fought to the last and W. Atk uson. Mr. Eddy is a Vermonter, who started a had tried to fire their pieces as they lay. Jesse Wigmore NEW YORK, Aug. 25 .- The Tribune's spematch factory in Burlington fourteen years Frenchmen of the line regiments had here Monday, gives an account of the first naval ago; had to fight suits on some of his pa- and there fallen in numbers, as though engagement of the war. On the morning tents, and finally gave up the effort to es | they had halted and faced about in regul tablish his business at Burlington. He now lar order. boat Grille started out of the bay of Rugen owns and runs a match factory, pail fac- "But the aspect of the fields beyond much respected, and is one of the most and many knapsacks were to be seen. After proceeding out to within sight of enterprising and worthy of the Americans one who had passed over that battle squadron; consisting of seven iron-clad gave us new views of the extent of the befallen the French arms, though my lumber trade of the Ottawa. We had sup- servations were made when most of the posed that if Canada had any difficulty it wounded had been removed. that the Prussian army under the Crown rected several broadsides at the little specting these mighty mills, we could have been impossible to judge of the exact craft, at the same time giving chase every easily understand the possibility of a stric- loss sustained. I see no reason, however, under Marshal McMahon. This rumor, now and then, lying-to to fire a few shots ture from the inadequacy of the existing to doubt the official return on the German although occasioning the wild st excite at her pursuers from her two rifled twelve avenues of transportation, and the need of side, which gives about 10,000 Frenchmen ment, can be traced to no reliable source, pounders in answer to the guns of the the Caughnawaga canal to bring relief. and 7,000 Germans hors du combat, and At 6 o'clock the Directors of the canal about 7,000 prisoners taken by the victors company and the delegates from New Eng. -4,000 in the battle, and 3,000 in the purland, nearly forty in number, were the suit. These losses, with the further loss

Cruxhaven. There are three merchant were lying, which, on hearing the report of guests of the citizens of Ottawa, at a din of cannon and colors, made the battle per at the Russell House. As there had Worth an evil day for France, Well might Belgium intimates that the complaints steam and weighed anchor to stand by been a good deal of talking done in the the wounded Germans raise themselves to afternoon, set speeches were omitted. The cheer the Crown Prince as he passed, and e itertainment was a handsome one, and ory that Germany was safe. ti interchange of social feeling pleasant and doubtless profitable. Next morning the party started for home by way of the Ottawa river. We took the good steamer Victoria at 7 o'clock; had of the Paris Figaro, who, in despite of the sies from Capt. Bowie, the genial comman- pondents, determined to dare the perils der of the Victoria, and as we steamed down the river we found grateful relief from the smoke and dust, which gave such what he saw. pungency to our visit in Ottawa. The It had been supposed that McMahon Double Irish Jig. Joint In the saw.

Ottawa is among the largest of the lordly would cross the river at or above Straso'clock in the afternoon. Nothing defi- of one of the ships, and must have done rivers of Canada, and the ride down to bourg, but, for reasons of which, good or nite is stated as to the number of men en- some damage to the men at their guns. Montre l was full of interest: but our bud, I know nothing, the Duke de Magenta space fails us for to-day.

The Caughnawaga Canal.

From the Burlington (Vt.) Free Press. the Caughnawaga Ship Canal, held at the Capital of the Dominion of Canada on on the 14th :- "I tell no secret when I say | because it is important that two neighbor; duty or of curiosity-cavalry to water their of common interest; and should live in MA hilly country is that around Worthpeace and mutual good will. To such har | vineyards, the river Suar, the road to Ha tant matter for the Crown Prince, but not mony and mutual good understanding guenau, and the heights of Freichwiller, important enough to make his army wait such meetings as this, which might almost which command Worth on one side and have been called an international one, from Joulzbach on the other. The eng gement The Prussian tactics are to push forward, the number and weight of the interest re- began at twenty minutes to 7. The Prusmasking fortresses that are encountered presented from the two countries, cannot sians opening fire on the village, the first on the way, and leaving a few battalions to but contribute largely. The tone and ball striking the church. This rude signal watch them; but in this case the chances spirit of the meeting can be gathered from sent the soldiery flying back to the camp have seemed so to favor the probability the report. The necessity for the canal and to their regiments, and in a few mo-Berlin, August 25, 7 p. m.—The Prus. of Pfalsburg being unprepared for serious grows in the mind of every man whose attentments the little town, so full of unwonted tion is drawn to the subject. We copy and life, was still and silent—the stillness that Will take place on > convince any one, even the most skeptical, neglected. They scour through the vil sup- of the advantages which the construction lage and make for the French centre at On the Society's Grounds, adjoin of the Caughnawaga Canal would confer Elsenhaussen. They are soon followed by upon Ottawa and its vicinity. They are so more numerous masses. The firing is beobvious as to be impossible to dispute, and gun in the vineyards of blsenhaussen be-French arms may enable the Emperor to in fact they are generally admitted by all. tween the skirmishers; at the same time But the people of Ottawa must not suppose | the art.llery on both sides commences. The French authorities will only treat that they can quietly sit by and see the was more the air of a recon enterprise carried out by large capitalists force than of an attack. About 8 o'clock a only without lending a helping hand. It (young Prussian officer is brought in wound is true that some of our lige manufactu- ed. Half an hour later there is a full in the dent; John Ashworth, in Ven ha The following official despatch from Ber- rers and dealers are the men who are most commonade. My host refusing to open his directly interested in the matter, but still door, I got out of the window and ran to The Government has received a despatch it must be borne in mind that anything the little tower in the midst of the little which promotes the prosperity is certain village, whence I got an excellent view of to conduce to the welfare of the entire the surrounding country. And now the community also. If a man cannot afford guns open in earnest on the Prussian right. to take a large number of shares in the The previous movement had only been a enterprise, let him do what he can, re- leint. The Pruss an right is turning the membering that every share taken helps French left. The flanks of the Liebfrauen > > shall be accomplished. We cannot conclude without again ex- whose attack is masked until the very mopressing the gratification we have felt in ment of the assault. The observer can seeing so many American gentlemen of follow the course of the battle as it aprecognized position among us, and taking proaches Freichwiller, and sways to and part in an enterprise which we trust may fro by the smoke of the guns. Four times con'e bene .ts upon them as well as upon | we saw the Prussians | beat the retrest. us, and form one more link in the commer- Towards midday the battle was won on one cial union which ought to exist between

With the substitution of Burlington for attack on Freichwiller had failed; brought Ottawa the advice of our Ottawa contem- up their guns, changed froot, and assault ments will he made with the Car porary is as go d for this community as ed the right and centre. For two hours partment for the Free Butry of Arts may well be extended indeed, to almost every New England centre of trade.

THE BATTLE OF WORTH.

hundred thousand men engaged A French and a German account.

nents; but the fact of this hard fighting three times they retired precipitately. The Canal Meeting took place at one and of this heavy loss shows how serious a But their numbers overwhelmed the de-

the western side of the valley, there is a John Rochester, Mayor...... 200 00

Latest advices from China says, the seen Ottawa were agreeably surprised by winding down toward the village on the W. McClymont & Co... The French demanded that the three Hull) about 25,000 inhabitants, and 1 ng were heaps of spiked h men a to be seen; John Mather. A scout of the Prussian army have made Indeed, it seemed as if all light was about heavily than the German; and I heard their appearance at Chalons-sur-Marne and to depart, from inability to pierce the that the French artillery had been very collected in New Edinburgh BY MCNAUGHTON

140,000, which will be placed under the command of the Archduke Albert, whose that Bazaine is realizing a deep laid stration of Frenchmen had been moved down in their wild attempts to check the enemy's COLLECTED IN VICTORIA WARD BY MCKAY AND manufacture. The style and ting time could not be chosen than the present to fulfil that promise; and as showing an increase of nearly 40 per cent. by James Stephens.

Year were thus $49,856, while in the second three months they were £67,252, The Emperor Napoleon has declined the showing an increase of nearly 40 per cent. by James Stephens.

Yictoria issuad, which cut into tered thickly on the line os retreat, while boards the logs which are floated hither the dead hors in all directions might be James Dulglish.

Yictoria issuad, which cut into tered thickly on the line os retreat, while boards the logs which are floated hither the dead hors in all directions might be James Dulglish.

of the upper Ottawa. Several of these are "And so westward through the wood F. Hallandale six gang mills, each gang consisting of went the traces of increasing disaster; offitwenty-five to thirty saws, which take two cers and men lying grimly where they have D. L. Jones. logs at a time and cut them into boards in fallen. Some in quiet, shady spots, as p.r conignt. ning Fight of Three Hours little less time than it takes us to tell though upon a pic nic, seemed asleep. Miss Jane (rawley about it. We found the men engaged in Pools of blood remained where the wound. Thomas Russell -The Prussian Gunboats' wetting down the yards with hose and force ed had been found. There were knap A Bailey. the French had rallied and where the dead John Pushman

to reconno tre the position and strength tory, and saw mills, which give employ- the wood seemed to indicate a hasty reof the French ships of war, whose arrival ment to fourteen hundred hands, and brings treat. Wagons were overturned. Bag in the neighborhood had been reported, im in a small fortune every year. He is gige was thrown out upon the roadside. who are building up the prosperity of Ot- gr und of Worth when I d d could have taws. The visit to these immense mills failed to reduce that a great disaster had was not in its lumber region; but after in | ... On so large a scene of action it would

The battle of Worth

reakfast on board, received many courte- Ollivier-Lebouf order against army corresof provost-murshal or Prussian bullet, and, in the true spirit of a special, to set down son would cross the river at or above Stras- To conclude with the had made no step towards crossing into Germany, but, either from choice or necessity, waited to be stirred up in his lair. move down to Worth by way of Haguenau. Atthough civilians had no right to be with the army, it was possible to see something. and being at hand to get at least the most Wednesday last, will be found in our col- recent information. At had rained umns to-day. It was an important meet- whole night without intermission, and at ing because the enterprise it was intended daybreak parties of French soldiery came to aid is a most important one; and also into the town on various errands, either of by the Soultz road, passed the bridge over Enough has been written and said to the Saar, which the French centre had to bring nearer the day when the work burg, covered with trees, have concealed the masses of Bavarians, and Prussians, side. There was a brief respite, ten minutes perhaps. The Prussians, finding the panies -ill carry Passengers and Facilities p.dly repeated crack of the last arm being mult. And now the assault of the Freichwiller begin again. Dark columns of infantry came down the hills on both sides of the Prussian line, and took position as close as possible to the French lines, tak- the Fair, ing advantige of all the cover afforded by the ground. In the distance were heavy masses of cavalry skirting the forest of Hagenau. It looked as though the French were about to be finked. Towards 2 o'clock another pause. The Prussians French right in two. Then we see the

Subscriptions Received by Treasurer

On the fourth assault, towards 4 o'clock.

5 00 | Cornwall, 17th August, 1879.

Patterns P

Mess._Ti

eing at 4 o'c Ottawa, August 25, 187 dessicated occos nuts actory, has arrived in P

HIMNEY CORNER H will be

Friday Evening August CHIMNEY CORNE Monday, August 20 be be OLIVER DOWN HUS h successful drama of

Will shortly be putsed Let by DOT A AZEPPAT new -cenery, Dram, &c BOX PLAN now open at Orne rivate Boxes, 75 cents. A len son Family flekets at red

IPY OF OTTAWA AGRICULTURAL 8 The Second annual EXHIBITION

OPEN TO THE WORL WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY & SEPTEMBER 21st, 22xD, AND Manufactures, Domestic Products, &c.

Officers of the Society-J. B. Lewis A. S. Woodburn, Secretary and Tree M. P. J. M. Currier, M. P. George W. A. McKellar, Thor. G shen, W. I. Por R. Kenny and Ire Morgan. Entries must be made before the joi

on parment of $2.00. The Building and Grounds will from MONDAY morning, the life for receptions of articles satested for For Prize Lists and Entry Forms Secretaries of County Agricultural Sec

The dife ont Bailway and Strambel

EXTENSIVE AUCTIONSID IMPORTED!

MAUTION.

ance of the Cornwall Blankets h Manufacturing Company" are said words " Canadian Manufacture" 15 00 Persons desiring a really good and germ 10 000 ticle will have to see that the words 15 00 Manufacturing Company" are on the 5 00 each pair of Blankets.

TIGHT BINDING