

The Ottawa Times. Office 1 38, Sparks Street

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBERS, 1870

arrived yesterday.

World mys: Bismarck makes a terrible mistake if he thinks he can bully England.

Henri Rochefort and his Republican the men to save France.

damage to ter furniture. On Monday however, managed to keep together a few one who but a few short weeks ago wis night another house was visited, and a regiments, with which he covered the re regarded almost as the arbiter of Europe n me, and I have bought a good many

A HISTORY OF THE WAR.

tion of his army was anything but com- in the neighborhood of Metz. From the For $200, all plete ; that among the crowds of parcents | 15th to the 18th of August a series of san-enriching themselves at the expense of the of Gravelotte, was probably one of the For $100, in 5 dollar bills 10 00 Sundham, Montreal; F. M. B. Smith. do; nation, and that, as he afterwards declared greatest battles of modern times. Mar. This, Mr. Stockton suggests, would be J. McDougill, do.; Rev. J. Mullen, do ; he had been "betrayed." Still with all shal Baz ine was murching with the bulk a nice little stock for anyone John Murphy, Toronto; Rev. Wm. Anfortnight after war had been declared, the which of itself considerably outnumbered shall be sent by express, as all letters first battle of the war was fought at Saar- Marshal Bustine's force. In these battles coming to him by mail are opened by the brucken. A small Prussian force held the French had somewhat the advantage; New York post office authorities. The undertaking. Their numbers increased sionaries.

some heights in the neighborhood of this they held their ground, and the Prustage of sians asked permission to bury their dresses, that he trusts a to his honor as a they established a night school which had they established a night school of the French army, began to advance to- peror and the Prince Imperial, had wards the frontier so as to place himself in marched northwards close to the Bel-tling all claims. The promptitude which ity of the Prussian , however, proved too Marshal McMahon fell severely wounded moralized. Nothing was left of what, but best, from personal and political motives a few hours before had been a magnificent to include imself in the surrender. He the habit of causing great tives, who throughout the whole afternoon simple words he announced his surren en nces in Nelson street, near Rideau filled the streets of Haugenau and crowded to the King of Prussia, "As I connot die On Sunday night they broke into along the dusty roads in frantic haste to at the head of 'my army I lay my sword at 'e the Fditor of THE II . se who resides escripe from the vengeful pursuit of the the feet of your Majesty." Who that lived there frightened almost treat of his broken army. Nearly 20,000 destiny, can fail to pity him, or to call to "Montreal Witnesses," "Free Presses" It is about time that the police French soldiers were killed, wounded and mind all that was good and noble in his and "Daily News" "here sold for a copper."

not take in their blo dy burdens. Along even dreamed, will treated to Strasbourg, and still forms a that he sacrificed the efficiency of his sol- Fr nce stood by Engl nd in the Crimea afterwards to Nancy. The news of the Now, if there was any branch of the public move Southward, with brother Jonathan John Murphy, Toronto; Mr. Balfom, St. tack on Montmartre, but the main attack myself to accept the conditions imposed by civilized world. It was at once asserted, which he would be least likely to sacrifice, land made a downward step, when she of facts as will ena- Emperor was unfitted to command, and found that whatever pilfering was done, ed; I fear she has made a dawnward that the defeat of the French army was was the work of men in whom Napoleon plunge in permitting her gallant ally to be of military genius. On the 11th of August himself. It is certain that the French | who can prophesy? To my mind the conthe Ministry having resigned, Palikuo be army when it took the field, was not in a quest of France by Prussia, means a total made known. We do not believe that commandant of the capital. Marshal Ba was a lack of generalship and of organ. United States, and the humiliation of the man delivered a most elegant address to man delivered a most elegant address to saine assumed the command of the grand stion, and that the Garde Mobile, vastly a very large congregation. A telegram have certainly proved that he was not pre- army of the Rhine, and from that time inferior in drill and discipline to the rawest the battleand the breeze." pared for it. But the risk of war was not Napoleon seems to have become a noner corps of Canadian soldiers—proved for the so great for him as the dangerous results tity both in a political and military point of most part utterly unreliable and worse which would follow if he permitted the view. The French army changed its front, than useless. When a calm and dispasn me and dignity of the French Empire and its left rested on Thionville, the forti- sion te history of this war is written, we To the Editor of THE TIME.

kened, and for Napoleon to have "eaten lasted for many hours, the French being teresting drama; the establishment of a taxation, his given three times the amount. humble pie" again, as he did in 1866, finally compelled to fall back to the shel- French Republic, and the advance of the would have been a very dangerous experi- ter of the guns of Metz. On the 15th Gen. Prussian army upon Paris. ment for him. The whole nation was Steinmetz crossed the Muselle at Arey and aroused and eager to avenge the wrongs Borney, while the army of the Crown and insults which on more than one occa- Prince was advancing by forced marches sion they had been compelled to bear towards Metz along the Verdun road. All address is 204, Broadway, New York, has from Prussia. It will be remembered that communication between Marshal Bazaine at lately addressed a letter to persons residas soon as war was declared, the greatest. Metz and warshal McMahon at Nancy was ing in this vicinity, in which he is good enthusiasm prevailed throughout France, cut off, and the latter finding that he was enough to assure them that from what he that when a peace demonstration was in danger of being surrounded, that his attempted in Paris it was put down by the troops had not fully recovered from their to act as his agents, and that if they will people themselves, and a war fever like late defeat, and that the organization of only send him the moderate sum of $10, by States of the American Union after the ments was exceedingly defective, fell he will at once forward them a full assortcapture of Fort Sumter, raged with ir- back towards a point near Verdun where ment of such g ods as they may desire, resistible violence among all classes of he hoped to receive reinforcements from trusting that as, according to the old the French people. Then Napoleon borne Chalons and then be able to march in an adage, "there is honour among thieves," onward by the current of public feeling easterly direction towards Mets and so he will receive the balance in due course. declared war against Prussia on the 15th form a junction with Marshal Bazaine. [The "go.ds" which this worthy Mr. Stockof July. The long cherished aim for which This he attempted to do but failed. The Bismarck had been plotting was gained. Prussian armies concentrated on the east-France had been made for the moment to ern bank of the Moselle prevented the as fine quality as are in circulation," which retary. look like the aggressor. Prussia was pre- possibility of his doing so, and McMahon he promises to supply on easy terms. The pared for war, and there was a prospect of was compelled to retreat beyond Verdun the annexation of the Rhenish Provinces | into the wild rugged country which lies and, what was even more precious, the jat the base of the Ardennes mountains. thorough humiliation of the French na Here for a few days he was left to recu. For $200, Napoleon soon found that the organiza- strength fell upon Marshal Bazaine's army perate, while the Prussians in enormous For $400, all possible haste, troops were hurried to the of his army in the direction of Verdun to commence business upon. In order derson, Bu kingham; Wm. Johnston, Ot distance in a straight line of about seventy the salvation of the Empire. Whille doing to say that every one bill in three niles. Meanwhile the Prussians had so he was suddenly attacked on the right that comes into your possession is countermassed a force all along the frontier, which by General Steinmets with a force feit, and you have passed it off again as was merely intended to mask the move- variously estimated at from 60,- good money;" therefore, argues this asments of troops which were going on in the 000 to 80,000 men while at almost tute thief, you may as well pass my rubbish interior of Buden, and in the valley of the the same moment the Crown Prince fell as the genuine article. Mr. Stockton is North Rhine. On the 30th of July, only a upon his left, with his entire army, especially anxious that all c.minunications

College: | Octowa, August 1874

the Emperor, the French troops marched dead. A council of war was held at gentleman," which does not say much for during the summer months, but was reto the attack. After an obstinate struggle, the Prosing benchmarked by the prosing by the prosin to the attack. After an obstinate struggle the Prussian headquarters on the nght Mr. Stockton's knowledge of what constitute again. They had orthe Prussians were compelled to give way, of the 18th, at which the King of Prustutes one We do not suppose that any of gan zel a boy's ragged school, and a and the French remained masters of the sia, Von Moltke, Bismarck and other our readers are likely to be led astray by seperate school in another part of the position. The victory was made the most leaders were present. After a long disof, it was announced with much jubilation cussion it was decided that Bazaine the doings of such men as Stockton can amount of good resulted from it. throughout France, and the people shout should be allowed to retreat upon Metz not be made too public. We therefore also hid cottage prayer meetings. The Ased more vociferously than ever Vive I Em- unmolested, while the Crown Prince give him this gratuitous advertisement, soc ation a so visited the outlying porpercur and A bas la Prusse! But a deci- with his immense army should follow trusting that his fame will soon become so live to be soon become so liv the position aft-r McM thon and destroy him; the notorious, that free board and lodging will together. A number of young ladies also with army of the Prince Royal being des- be provided for him at the public expense formed an association for the same purin the next few days. Marshal Mc- tined to move upon Parts by way of in the pretty little village of Sing Sing, n pose, and had weekly meetings. A num-Mahon having perfected the organization Chalons. In the meantime Marshal the Hudson River, where he will no doubt ber of boys, the oldest being 18 years of of his corps which formed the right wing McMahon, with whom were the Em-

Sir Francis Hincks, Hon. Mr. Campbell. under General Douay, had arrived as far as Hon. Mr. Campbell. Under General Douay, had arrived as far as Hon. Mr. Dunkin Weissenburg, when it was suddenly attacked by an overwhold many controller. The dynasty is the dynasty. The dynasty is the dynasty is the port, and hid prayer meetings on the port, and the prayer meetings on the port, and attacked by an overwh lming force of until Wednesday of last week that grievous as they are, and hard to be old people attended, and a school had face this responsibility before the world way, with 13 trains of artillery, 11 of cavillery, 12 of inferior the world way, with 13 trains of artillery, 11 of cavillery, 12 of inferior the world way, with 13 trains of artillery, 11 of cavillery, 12 of inferior the world way, with 13 trains of artillery, 11 of cavillery, 12 of inferior the world way, with 13 trains of artillery, 12 of inferior the world way, with 13 trains of artillery, 11 of cavillery, 12 of inferior the world way, with 13 trains of artillery, 12 of inferior the world way, with 13 trains of artillery, 12 of inferior the world way, with 13 trains of artillery, 12 of inferior the world way, with 13 trains of artillery, 12 of inferior the world way, with 13 trains of artillery, 12 of inferior the world way, with 13 trains of artillery, 12 of inferior the world way, with 13 trains of artillery, 12 of inferior the world way, with 13 trains of artillery, 12 of inferior the world way, with 13 trains of artillery, 12 of inferior the world way, with 13 trains of artillery, 12 of inferior the world way, with 13 trains of artillery, 13 of inferior the world way, with 13 trains of artillery, 13 of inferior the world way, with 13 trains of artillery, 13 of inferior the world way, with 13 trains of artillery, 13 of inferior the world way, with 13 trains of artillery, 13 of inferior the world way, with 13 trains of artillery, 14 of inferior the world way, with 13 trains of artillery, 14 of inferior the world way, with 13 trains of artillery, 14 of inferior the world way, with 13 trains of artillery, 15 of inferior the world way, with 15 of in Prussians and routed. This unexpected the Crown Prince came up borne, are not, by any means, irretriev- been got up which now numbered sixty been got up which now numbered sixty and before history. France yields not one alry and 14 of infantry. he was received advance of the army of the Crown Prince with McMahon's army at Douzy, at le. The man of energy, who has his in the town and was at one and was at one are not, by any means, are not, b which had been gradually massing among and attacked it immediately. The land left to him, although all else may be missionary Sabbath school. Some of their and that of Europe. We are unlismayed, the wooded hills round Carlsrhue, com- French made such a determined fight that swept away-house, barns, crops, cattle, members vis ted the hospital every Sat and the army is resolute and provided. pletely upset the Emperor's plan of the they managed to cross the river Meuse and implements - may soon renew all these urdsy and Sunday morning, and prayed 300,000 com tants can hold Paris to the compaign. Instead of sweeping through reached Sedan. On the 1st and 2nd instant by borrowing at a fair and reasonable rate with the patients; also with the presents and these with the patients; also with the presents and these with the patients; also with the presents and these with the patients. They can hold the city for three by borrowing at a fair and reasonable rate with the patients. compaign. Instead of sweeping through the Palatinate and threatening Mayence the battle was renewed in the neighbor of interest, on the security merely of his work and helped them along. They had will arise and avenge it. Let Europe know work and helped them along. as he had hoped to do, he suddenly found | hood of that town, the French being mass- bare acres, from the Trust and Loan Com- a large library, and they organized a com- that the Ministry has no other aim or amhimself obliged to act on the defensive ed in woods and orchards along the side of pany of Upper Canada, whatever sum he mittee for visiting the poor, and got sevand try to provide for the safety of his the hills to the north and west, and the may need. There is no ne essity for thing worthy of them. On Sunday after. right wing. General Frossard was ordered Prussians occupying the whole of the vale either the man of business or the farmer to fall back from Saarbrucken and occupy ley through which the River Meuse flows who is possessed of land to either beg of netted $175, after paying expenses. Forbach; a division was ordered up from sluggishly along among green fields and borrow at a ruinous rate. The Trust and J. G. Wilkie, of Toronto, said their support of the United States as their old tures and statuary into the Seine. Then Metz to his support, but through a mistake little shadowy copses. Here it was on Loan Company of Upper Curada, for which numbers were about 400. They had estally. tures and statuary into the Seine. Then we are told that they shouted Vire la Res in the telegram was sent in an entirely in the fate of the second in the second in the fate of the second in the s we are told that they should red and wept with joy and different direction. What was left of Empire was decided. Along the spurs of Ottawa, are prepared to give during the year, the average number of The Journal du Soir this evening gives embraced one another." These are not Douay's division fell back upon the main low hills on the right of the French posi- loans to any amount on the selection and account of an interview between King body of Marshal McMahon's corps, which tion the Prussians in largely outnumbering curity of real estate at 8 per cent. They also had a public meeting in some William and the Emperor Napoleon. The We have already made reference to the Haugenau. On the 6th of August there was prodigous, whole regiments were swept loans being for five years, and renewable ty one Bethel services. His friend, Rev. | Some of the members. They had twen the crown Prince and Biston of the Crown P the Agricultural Mutual Assurance Com

the Agricultural Mutual Assurance Com

ty-one Bethel services. His iriend, nev. where the interest is regularly paid and the security has not become depreciated, the hard of the kind in Toronto. They pany of Ontario in settling the claims of army attacked Frossard at Forbach and took their place, and by degrees the French for any reasonable period of time. those who have suffered by the late fires. drove him back on Metz with a loss of were forced back upon the centre and then this is not the only advantage to the bor-Mr. Nil-s, of London, together with Corn- 3,000 prisoners, some guns, and all his it became evident that the end was near. rower from the Trust and Loan Company. urday nights, and tried to induce young wall Wilson, Esq., M. P. are now in the heavy baggage. On the same day McMa- The Prussians were in their front and were It has this very important feature that it city as the representatives of the Company. hon was attacked at Haugenau by the Crown gradually making their way round their never dies, as an individual lender will do, stance of an executor, desirous of realizing nmandant of the capital. Marshal Ba was a lack of generalship and of organ. Eu ope the trumph of Russia and the Stephenson, after which the revel gentle-to be insulted or even treated with any fied city of Metz formed its centre, and its think it will be found that Napoleon The County Council after a long slum- ing after which the Revd. Mr. Ebbs was degree of alight. The French people con- right was at Nancy. It had, in fact, pivot took the field with less than ber, have at last met, and after due de. called upon (Mr. Johnson being unavoidsidered that two affronts had been offered ted on its left and fallen back upon 400,000 troops, and that the reserves liberation have voted the liberal sum of the course of his remarks to the other last in the attempt to to them by Prussia, first in the attempt to the line of the Moselle, and it failed him utterly. Thus outnumbered $5,000, hardly one cent per head in the the ladies had not got up a similar associawas believed that the Prussian advance and outgeneralled the French soldiers | County, and ignoring the action of the del-Spain without consulting France, and sec would meet with a sudden and decisive struggled gallantly on, until on the field of egates sent by the Central Committee. He then tendered a most hearty and cor-Sedan, near by the place where the great- In addition, they decline the loan offered We now come to the second act in this est soldier of old France was born, the by the Premier of Ontario showing pl inly season of pleasure and happiness. great tragedy of war. On the 14th of second Empire perished amid blood and that f they can get others to foot their Rev. Mr. Johnson being called upon was zealously striving to prevent a resort August the first Prussian army moved on carnage, and Bismarck's deep laid schemes bills, they will only be too happy to do so. said it was often that men allow their was zealously striving to prevent a resort August the first Prussian army moved on carnage, and Bismarck's deep laid schemes Out upon such parsimony; the richest youth and vigorous manhood to pass away to arms. Thus the pride and passions of Metz by way of Etangs and St. Avold. were consummated. Now commences a County in Ontario offering a paltry $5,000, without paying any attention to religion, the French people were thoroughly awa- Some serious fighting occurred which new phase in this terrible but deeply in while the city of Ottawa, with her heavy until they have drained the cup of earthly

France and Britain.

> ONE WHO HAS LOST THOUSANDS. September 7th, 1870.

A BRAZEN-FACED SCOUNDREL

A fellow named Rufus Stockton, whose has heard of them they are the right men ton offers for sale are "a quantity of ficfollowing, we are told, is the lowest net

TIGHT BINDING

Young Men's Christian Association

FIRST DAT'S PROCEEDINGS.

There were elected the following offi

Wm. Johnston, Belleville. VICE-PRESIDENTS. Professor Duff, M. A., Sherbrooke G. A. Young, Hamilton.

W. A. Lamb, Ottawa. W. J. McCalla, St. Catharines. H. C. Bothwell, Toronto.

A. J. Northrup, Belleville. J. S. Roper, Cobourg, Sec'y. Erskine Beaman, Ottawa, Assistant Sec

Rev. Wm. Hall, M. A., Prescott; Rev. R. W. Parson, Montreal; R. Barns, Hamilton ; George A. Young, do. ; David Sinclair, do. : Adam Turnbull, do. ; John Brown, do. ; Thomas Campbell, do. ; Rev. bourg ; W. D. Bilfom, St. Cathurines ; A. G. Northrup, Belleville; R. C. Bothwell,

> After the morning routine bu iness had been completed the convention adjourned till two o'clock when the delegates from the various towns gave a history of their success during the past year. first speaker and said they had called a red uniforms. meeting, organized an association, took a smill room, and the Sheriff went to work at once in aiding them in their laudable

The Rev. Mr. James, missionary of Ham-

MONEY TO LEND ON REAL ESTATE. | ilton, then detailed his work, which had resulted most favorably. Great have been the ravages of these W. B. Balfour, of St. Catharines, said fort. They had a concert by which they The new Republican Government seem being young men, had a special advantage approached so near.

provement for young men to state the Baltic fleet, and 4,000 million francs. the talents of young men, keeping con their master. He believed that young to the knowledge of their Saviour. One sp rit. The Prussians are appreaching. m in could speak well, another act well. Troops are murching into Paris. Many bear let them help each other and God would the ppearance of having gone through a help them. He said their should be a Y. hard campaige, and most of them ave M. C. A. in all congregations, and it would seen buttle. They lock dejected, but men for work of that kind. There was General Trochu was attacked to-day by put an end to such lawless taken prisoners; 4,000 wounded were character? Now that he is down, now The Dominion Press must be a poor of work into their hearts. There should on the fortifications. in our midst. If they do not, taken to Strasbourg, and thousands more that he no longer possesses the glorious affair if it c. it see that the triumph of be a cultivation of personal religion in One of to day's papers says that the be a danger of the inhab.tants were scattered about in the surrounding attribute of success, which many people Prussia over such a power as France, their hearts. They should therefore de- King of Prussia has already announced together, and your General dement the I do not say that France is England's vate m ditation. They should get the to guarant e a sum of three thousand mil | ble.

natural ally—far from it; but I do say that health of to iliness in their hearts, and go lion frances. she is the ally that the force of modern to their work with prayer. He hoped he The plan of the Republican Government polit c I circumstances has assigned to her. had opened the way to those who had is to leave departments free to organize The United States sympathize with Prussia more experience, and to those who were their own defence, which plan is univer-The Chairm in then spoke at some length, and said they would consider the is said to be the following: An for the population. I was therefore re climite: who will stand by her when both & Several members then addressed the advancing from Laon pushes on to St. Rus is and Prussia find it convenient to meeting. Rev. Mr. Hansfield, of Barrie ! Denis, This latter force will make an atterrible defeat created a profound impres service which N poleon desired to main- moving North? Probably a few years will Catharine's; Mr. Sinclair, Hamilton; Mr. will be on the other side, the enemy or the enemy. This morning, however, men-Campbell, do; Mr. J. B. Smith, Montreal; cupying Versailles and advancing by the aced by his bombardment, to which he Canadian press sing a different tune. Eng. Mr. Alfred Sandam, Secretary of Montreal wood to Mendon, and thence by Park Association; and Mr. Burn II, of Illinois. d'Issay to the heights of Chaumont, will a fresh attempt to get honorable terms. I The latter spoke at considerable length.

and asking them to read Phillipians 4th chapter 21st and 23rd verses.

wa Association then addressed the meet-enjoyment. He then reviewed the solemn changes which are taking place in the world, and urged upon his hearers, but particularly the young men, to take part and follow the example of those whom they were there to do honor to. He sat down amidst great applause.

The Rev. R. W. Ranson then addresses the audience in his usual happy and earnest manner : also Rev. K. A. Burnell, of Illinois, and J. G. Sellen, representing the Executive Committee of the United States. A collection was then taken up, after which there was a benediction, and the meeting adjourned till to-day. We regret want of space prevents our giving the various addresses in full.

MONTREAL.

MONTRBAL, Sept. 7. Colonel Gibbons and the headquarters of the 24th inst.

A quarter-mile foot race took place on throughout the country. the lower Luchine road, between John Kin dade and H. Brackin, representatives of Untario and Quebec. The race was won tunnels on the railroad running east by Kindade in 1 min. and 10 sec The Prussian advance is said to be near The Bank of Montreal received $100,000 in new fifty cent pieces, and by yesterday $91,000 worth were sent throughout the for a day or two. Market very dull ; very few sales

Arrive I from sea- Marita, Freden, New frontier, and a line of operations chosen desirous of effecting a junction with Mar. to quiet the consciences of those tawa; E. Bronson, do.; Rev. Wm. McLur. for Montreal, went ashore at Green Island, Belge says the Empress Eugene is the stretching from Thionville to Strasbourg, a shall McMahon which might have proved whom he addresses, he "makes bold en, do.; A. Burnell, brocking a hole in her bottom. She must guest of the Hoogven family, at the characteristics and the stretching from Thionville to Strasbourg, a shall McMahon which might have proved whom he addresses, he "makes bold en, do.; A. Burnell, brocking a hole in her bottom. She must guest of the Hoogven family, at the characteristics and the stretching from Thionville to Strasbourg, a shall McMahon which might have proved whom he addresses, he "makes bold en, do.; A. Burnell, brocking a hole in her bottom. She must guest of the Hoogven family, at the characteristics and the stretching from Thionville to Strasbourg, a shall McMahon which might have proved whom he addresses, he makes bold en, do.; A. Burnell, brocking a hole in her bottom. lightened to get off. Admiral Wellesley, in the flag-ship Royal Alfred, is expected here in a few days,

Rifles have joined the 69th Regiment, but | event, have now become innumerable Mr. G. A. Young, of Hamilton, was the as yet they have not been supplied with free ou epille-tion, and all hardress transactif on 18171314 . . the shortest notice ... Control of the state of the shortest and the state of the s

OFFICE:-G. P. Drummond's Exchange Office 19 Sparks Street.

Latest from the Seat of Soissons is confirmed.

CABLE NEWS.

This Morning's Despatches.

Paris, Sept. 7 .-- A circular has just been issued by Jules Favre, which contain the The policy of France is peace, leaving

Germany the master of her own destinies. the 3rd of August his advanced division, appears, of moving towards Thionville fires, which lately, in this vicinity, have under General Dousy, had arrived as far as and opening a communication with Metz swept over villages and farms, the losses of the port and had prayer meetings on the prayer meetings of the prayer meetings o

to count much on the moral and material

As the enemy draws near the city the people evince quietness, but with a determination to tight. The bombardment of Montmedy ceases

The journals call for the dismissal of all Lest night was calm; to-day there

ing as seeing others at work; it was a good | There is a rumor that there are no balls throw up earthworks and plant batteries have obtained conditions by which we are are yet unadvised of any efforts for mediation, n twithstanding the report that England had made entre it es.

man States, at the demand of Prussia undertake to provide for 80,000 French

The cities of the South German States. including Carlsruhe, Mayence, Stuttgard and Munich have petitioned for annextu n to England as Ambassador of France.

The Manchester Examine learns that 287,000 men are available for the defence The rioters of the Boulevard Vilette, and apathy of the Queen and Princess who sentenced to death and imprisoned, have are deer stalking while Europe is shaken Sole Wholesale Agent for the Domisius The correspondent of the Guardian at! The Ministry, with their herculean efforts Luxemourg writes that the garrison of Metz | have succeeded in restraining Greece from Berlin, 7th .- A Paris correspondent says | at the supreme crisis of Europe. great events may be expected, whose con- Paris, Sept. 6th,-The Republic was prosequences will be of the highest moment. | claimed on the bank of the Bidasson The revolution renders mediation nuga- before sunset yesterday.

The President of the Federal Chancery has offered no terms of settlement but

YESTERDAY'S DESPATCHES.

Appeal from France to the United States - Interview between Jules Favre and Lord Lyons-

France-Excitement in Rome nistry, &c., &c.

response to his telegram recently sent to the Royal artillery will move to Quebec on the United States Government. It is thought the reply will have great effect Every French town yet heard from epts the republic joyfully. French engineers are destroying > Soissons, marching rapidly on Paris. Nothing has been heard from Strasbourg General Trochu reiterates his statement that Paris is safe.

The adjoining departments are organiz No Prussians have reached Laon, as was Trains are arriving hourly with artillery, cavalry, and infantry from the froni. The rolling stock of the eastern road are now mostly concentrated here, or sent west to Havre and elsewhere. BRUSSELS, Sept. 7 .- The Independence teau of Meyesse, near Brussels. Rome, Sept 7.—The proclamation of the French republic causes the most profound sensation here. Arrests made by the au-A great many men of the Royal Canadian thorities, which were numerous before this Hundreds have been imprisoned or charge of conspiracy. Paris, Sept. 7 .- Immense defensive ex-Bethel services are held every day on ertions are still being made. The army board vessels by the city and port mis- continues to retire before the Prussian

OTT TIMESON AWARD

There seems to be repudiated by sentiment among the people—the defence nation, that it had been repudiated by that dishoner full Organization is quetly proceeding. There is no dissent from the nec ssity of ever, is to find a state-man who will inco

Everywhere there is great rejoicing at

The arrival of the Prussian advance at London, Sept. 7 .- It is denied that the Mulhouse National Guard has actively re-Mulhouse National who were seeking to Tuilleries, he says, with an absolute w pass the Rhine at that point. Nearly all the wounded who, were col- Wimpfen to surrender, and lected at Sedan have been sent under capitulation to the neighboring towns and avenging their disasters on him

Special to the New York Ecening Telegram :- Paris, Sept. 7.—General Vinoy, in same correspondent telegraphs, the Prench proposes a patient and the Prench forces in the field, whose retreat before signed to an important command in de explains why the Emperor rushed into a pans, when fully discussed. Assurances and also the secret money which was were given of England's sympathy with France in her present distress, and encouragement given of an early recognition might endanger their safety, the valuable cealed by stores figuring on account crown and regulia of the Empire have had never been bought, and appe been deposited in the Bank of France for the money which was paid into the safe keeping. The enemy continue their onward ms ch towards this city, accompanied with trains buy substitutes. Regiments nomed of heavy artillery and ammunition for a two thousand strong only had an interest

Reports confirm the statements that stitutes and supposed yearly confirm the Orleans Princes are on their way to tutes, were appropriated to the ord his Paris, and it is rumored that the Republi when the Emperor was order a few can Ministry are determined to arrest months ago to yield to the cy for Pari assigned, on the wounding of McMahon :-

Dated Sept. 3rd.—Soldiers,—On Thurs-

t mpt to regain Marshal Bazaine by the

Your General found with deep regret, when the army was recruited within the neither leave the place nor defend it-The P ussian plan of attack on Paris means of existence being alike wanting least the consolation of knowing a horrible It is "small profits and quiet round"

London, Sept. 7 .- The Times of to-day is starving, and beef there two dollars a hurling her vast energies into the contest. This summarizes the conduct of England

LONDON 17th .- The English Governme has summoned the King of Prussia to Ber- through Lord Lyons and Lord Loftus; it has An Official document to from German authorities at Sedan state, that the Emperor was under the fire of the Prussian

The seige at Metz goes on without visible effect upon Beseigers. New York, Sept. 7 .- Dr. Russell writes

England sympathises with from Sedan of the 3rd instant as follows: At 11:30 the art.cles of capitulation were signed as agreed upon by General Wim--Surrender of Genl. Wimp- plen and General Von Mol.ke, and I believe Bismarck took part in the declara fen-His Proclamation-Dis- tions. The terms are that the garrison agreement in the French Mi- and army of Sedan are to surrender as pri-Officers to be liberated on parole, and not to serve again during the war. All horses, Paris, Sept. 7.—Jules Favre is awaiting a The Emperor's detention in Germany is understood to be part of the stipulation. About two o'clock the King, with his body guard and escort of Curassiers, attended by the Crown Prince and staff of general officers, proceeded to the chateau outside S dan, and received the Emperor, who came with his personal followers and 6 p. m. train from Montreal. The Ques staff in charge of an escort, which was giving at Ottawa at 6 a. m., on Friday metal facing the Curassiers. The King and his captive retired into the glass house of one of the saloons, and they could be seen by the staff outside engaged in earnest dia-After interview with the King the Emperor had a few moments conversing with the Crown Prince, during which ne was much agitated when alluding to the manner of the King. His great anxiety seem-His Majesty, wishing to avoid one mischlef the great "pectacular and Romand was exposed to another humiliation, for his taken from Lord Byron's originals per course had to be altered to avoid Sedan, samename, entitled, and thus he had to pass through lines of The Tribune's correspondent writes follows of the bloodless revolution in Paris. With will be produced with sven From the aspect of things in Paris, one searry Costumes. An actual me season would suppose that news of a great victory had been received, such perfect uncestrated conic crist Mr. W Costumes and Manager and Costumes of Man animity I never w.tnessed. As on Sunday men are walking about with their wives and children in holiday dress. The national Guards are marching home this morning by a gentleman stlecked alive. That as far as is yet known at he of dignity, that herecomme among his adherents. About two r tary Treasury by those who were drawn by mentary Government, be there that

James Balliff.

UPPER CANADA

Tream Office One

wat hmaker or jeweller in the Dominion;

Toronto-48 and 50 Youge Sind Montreal-445 St. Paul Street 1397 $ sod

GRAND EXCURSO TO MONTREAL AND RETU

FARE $4 00.

Bahibition and Lachine Regatta-NIGHT TRIP. THE GREAT BOAT BACK

Luchice on Thursday ereging, on arrive

Ottawa, September 8, 1874

hitherto bestowed upon him by his friends Produce, after several weeks of a tive prep

The Wild Horse of Tarte Miss Nellie Nelson as Mazepps along the Boulevards as though coming Private Boxes, $1.00 and from a review. The windows and sidewalks are lined with people cheering them. It is felt by all that the surrender of the