FALL IMPORTATIONS .- Now must we prepare our poor bodies against the penetrating blasts of the Canadian winter, and in doing this people invariably wish to procure the material good and cheap, and we are now able to inform our readers where their tastes can be fully gratified in this respect. By reference to an advertisement in another column it will be seen that Messrs. T. Hunton, Shootbred & Co., hove received their fell importations. This is, the oldest dry goods firm established in Ottawa, and have long had the confidence and patronage of the public, which fact is owing simply to their straightforward dealing and the first qualtity of goods with which they supply their customers, and which they always sell at the lowest figure. Their establishment is the most extensive of the kind in Ottawa ; it is their unvarying practice to be obliging to their customers, and by their direct importations from Europe they can offer peculiar induce.
