himself has gone to Sedan.

ing from Paris.

AMERICAN NEWS.

render, &c., &c.

Resolutely Refuses to Sur-

the injuries described. The murderer was too drunk at the time for the construction of the line in order to of the commission of the deed to know the adequate development of the North what he was about. 'The sight of blood and of a dying man seemed to bring him to his senses. As soon as he realized the may be regarded, humanly speakextent of his crime he turned and fled, and ing. as a certainty of the future. at the time he managed to escape.

or his capture.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

of his very eloquent speech on Thursday told us that the people of the United

UNCALLED FOR ATTACK.

indulging in strictures upon some remarks on Republicanism which appeared in the Times a few days since. The Citizen quotes bloodthirsty and brutal."

and badly disposed.

the two following separate paragraphs from

"Only bloodthirsty and brutal ; that's Surely, however, it is quite possible for a man to "prefer a Republic" without

Whereupon the Citizen remarks

"It is highly probable that a mixed-u pends solely upon t e amount of money which

This it will be seen makes an entirely or it on the supposition that large journal

Our contemporary the Citizen has been ouse Wanted-Address J. M. Times office.

The Ottawa Times. Office 1 38, Sparks Street.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1870

Hon. Mr. Dunkin will leave Montreal on Monday morning for Ottawa.

The contract for the Grenville Canal re-tral, and that he expresses a most favourwith which we are regarded by our fellow subjects in Britain. We would that

The Wellington, Grey & Bruce Railway those words of his could be heard or read was opened to Fergus on Tuesday last. A in every Canadian home, so that the peolarge number of persons from Hamilton ple of this country from Halifax to the and elsewhere participated in the proceed- Pacific, might know, that in spite of the ings. Mr. Adam Brown, the President of teachings of doctrinnaires, the hearts of the line, was presented with three very Englishmen still beat in unison with ours, is William Stephenson of Almonte-the handsome bronze statuettes, valued at and that they are yet animated by feelings $200. So the good work of developing of pride and affect on for their kinsmen our Canadian railway system goes on. across the sea.

An official despatch has been received by the government from Mr. Dawson at Fort Garry, in which particulars are given of the progress of the expedition from Fort composing the expeditionary force worked together admirably, the boats answered the purpose for which they were intended and are still serviceable, while the conduct of the royageurs was beyond all praise. That a force of this kind should have been taken through a comparatively unknown country | monarchy must of necessity be dishonest eredit upon the officers and men who composed it, but also on Mr. Dawson whose route has been followed throughout the thinking that the two opinions here ex-

THE INTEROCEANIC RAILWAY AND BRITISH CONNECTION.

believe that John Bright does so, but we There were two very important and pierre, who was a "Republican revoluopening of the Canada Central Railway to | tionist." As to the truth of our assertion which we desire to draw attention; one that "Republican revolutionists are al- couple were Som Hing and Gul Quill. was the unanimous conviction that seemed ways bloodthirsty and brutal," we would to be impressed upon the minds of every simply refer our contemporary to the in New York during the past summer is rushing to doors and windows, and flying one present that an Interoceanic Railway teachings of history. Two other parawas an absolute necessity of our imme- graphs from our columns the Citizen is letters were received at the dead letter diate future, the second was the desire ex- kind enough to quote, the following being office in Washington. pressed with equal unanimity for a main- the first th- Mother Country. The annexationists to congregate at any point in London, &c., izing among the young ladies of Rondout, in disguise who talk independence, would &c., it is highly probable that a mixed-up N. Y. been present at Sand Point on Thursday, &c. &c. It seems that on Sunday last in day, and within a few hours the whole for they would have found that the people | London a few persons of this class met to | crop had withered and died. gether, and indulged, &c., &c. of the Ottawa valley appreciate and unestand how much grander and more ticelly-" Very complimentary to the brilliant a future lies before us, if we suctradesmen!" We did not believe that our contemporary would have been guilty tion of the British Empire, than could pos. of publishing a garbled extract of this kind What we really said was :-" independent," but in reality dependent crew of Fenians, pickpockets, and West en for our national existence upon the gen tradesm n whose affection for the Queen de erosity and forbearance of the American have met together and disgraced themsel The two questions, British connection ves by hissing our beloved Queen. Railway, are very intimately connected :we believe that to a greater or less extenreference to those individual West-end they are dependent one upon the tradesmen who have on several occasions indulged in disloyal manifestations on them to furnish the necessary funds count of the Queen's frequent absence from London. Finally the Citizen quotes rom the Times as follows : to make upon her (the Queen) may have furnished arguments for social misrule and political dis order, the very things which the members of that plutocracy which the Times dickens, then, did the Times (i. e. the Lonwww of Alexandria, migh don Times) do it?". We can only account as well as small ones are liable to make mistakes, as we cannot help thinking our the capitalists of England when they are city contemporary did when he gave place asked to furnish means for the construction to such an aimless attack upon us as that of this road, are offered something more to which we have just referre !. We notice than a mere ordinary investment with that it is published as a communication fair prospect of direct pecuniary return they are at the same time afforded an oppor tunity of conferring a substantial commer of an uncalled for attack of this nature. cial and political benefit upon the Mother which vulgarity and stupility are so equally blended; but "why the dickens," our We are convinced that if this matte could be placed before the people of England in its proper light; if they could b made to understand the fact that we own the shortest route from the Atlantic to Canada to its own resources, and would re- disappointment in Canada, because a maclearly as we do, the importance | jority of the native born Canadians, while of preserving the colonial connection. regarding the Tynedale men with naught Canada must either remain British, or she but the most kindly feelings, could not ington society, died a few days ago in New must become American. At present, at help wishing that in this friendly contest Hampshire. She had been on a visit to the all events, there is no intermediate course with the Mother Land, Young Canada pendent career, and for a year or by if only by half a boat's length. There at Vienna on the 25th ult. He was accoming, has a special telegram from Berlin, two might pursue it, but eventually is no reason for any one to feel sore, how- panied to his last home by thousands, in- the following summary as presenting the we should become Americanized, and our ever; the race was manfully contested cluding all his relations and friends, the latest intelligence on the subject of media independent nationality would cease to throughout, and the St. John's men rowed only one among the former who was not tion; Mr. Bancroft denies having invoked lenge the Tyne crew to row exist. Supposing that our independence with a pluck and a determination which present being his brother, Johann Strass, American intervention. were guaranteed by Great Britain and the would have certainly given them the vic- The violin of the deceased was laid, with titued of England, as defeating the French United States, what would our position be | tory over any other crew save the one broken strings, in the coffin with him.

the meeting. In one instance they had other, and it is a mistake to suppose that been beaten, but not by a foreign crew; meeting while she lingered upon the skirt | because Canada no longer formed a portion | she only yields the palm of supremacy to that people whose

" March is on the mountain wave,

Whose path is on the deep. We hope that this will not be the last these "squatic tournaments," and that and cherry coloured favours fluttering upon the banks of the St. Lawrence, and the representatives of British pluck in the Old and New Worlds again contending for the

Post Office Reforms.

To the Fditor of THE TIMES. Sir,-I think it high time, in these days of reform, that a very important alteration a very great annoyance and less of time to fore whether they or the Americans shall while the mail is being assorted; those At 1 st accounts he had not been arrest obtain the control of the Asiatic trade by letters which are ready should be delivered secure him, and large rewards are offered means of this road. It is for them to say during the time. I was formerly the case whether "this Canada of ours" the future in Toronto, but the citizens became indig home of many millions of the English nant and an alteration was the result. The speaking race, shall become, as far as they same ought to be done in the capital. are concerned, a foreign country, or remain After many years satisfactory working in > er land herself. Mr. Graves in the course will have the desired effect. STRANGER.

Kingdom appreciate the connection with To the Eitto of the IIMES: Canada, and so far as the great majority are DEAR SIR, -Among the names of those concerned we believe that his opinion is mentioned yesterday at the dejeuner at correct. But let him and those English- Sand Point, as having been instrumental men who like him have had an opportuni in the timely and satisfactory completion ty of seeing what this country is, and what of the first link in the Canada Central are the feelings which animate its people, Railway, there was one omitted which, had tell the people of England what they have an opportunity afforded me, should cerheard and seen, and then they will learn to tainly not have been so, that of one who believe, as we do, that the future glory and has done practically as much, if not more, welfare of England depends as much upon than any other individual to bring the after suffering some loss. the retention of Canada as an integral por- work in so short a period into the state of tion of the Empire, as it does upon the de forwardness which has to day enabled us to fence of Cornwall or of Kent. We cannot open the line for traffic. conclude this brief notice of this important | Whether laboring among the snows of question without thanking Mr. Graves for winter, or toiling through the burning his cordial expressions of sympathy and swamps of hat summer he was ever at his good will, and for the assurances which he post, and held every gang in hand from gave us of the kindly and fraternal feelings one end of the line to the other, giving them instructions and supplying their needs, and to he firm and at the same time prudent sway, I attribute the happy ab-

Contractor's chief foreman. I am, dear Sir, Yours truly, Chief Engineer, C. C. R.

SPECIAL NOTES

They had frost in Kentucky. It is said that the Penobscot River ower than at any period for forty years. It is said the author of the words of Shoo Fly" has gone mad. We thought | ister of the Interior.

Buffaloes are unusually abundant on the New Zealand has 150,000 inhabitants and a public debt of $150,000. A lock of Schiller's hair is to be raffle An old citizen of Hartford remember seeing men whipped and nailed in the

A man at Hagerstown, Md., had starved himself to death, under a religious delusion. Bouchas on Rhine and Garde the volun-

The first Christian marriage between Chinese persons has recently been celebrat- was raised here last night, which put the ed in California, by Rev. S. C. Dwinell, of city into great excitement. The Mobiles the Congregational Church. The happy were out by thousands, in the quarters estin ated at 100,000 gallons daily. During the month of August, 312,071

A "Society for the Encouragement "It a dozen or two of blackguards were Young Men Desiring to Marry" is organcrew of Fenians, pickpockets, West end A current of wind or heated air passed have been considerably disgusted had they tradesmen, &c., &c., may have met together, over a South Carolina cotton field the other troleum was thrown in.

The French Yacht Club has given half

Every attention and every courtesy are shown to the Emperor, who is at Wilhelmshohe, near Cassel The Australian Government is expedit ing the land telegrapic system, to connect with the India Cable It is believed that Strasbourg Cathedra took five hundred years in building, and was built by Germans. The bombarders will endeavor not to destroy it.

The iron bridge across the Rhine at nencement of the war, cost $1,000,000. PERSONAL.

of losing her voice has lately startled the Alexander H. Stephens is slowly recovering his health, and is busily engaged in a chassepot, and is daily doing dury on the It is quite possible that the attacks writing a school history of the United

The news that M'lle Nilsson is in danger

which the London Times has lately chosen | States make a tour of the United States. his physician to be out of danger.

It is mentioned as a curious fact that On this the Cifizen remarks "Why, the Baron Von Moltke, in his long life of war, has never commanded a regiment in the ordshire, England, has been awarded by the judges to Mrs. Mary E. Millington. On August 19, in London, the Earl of orkney was adjudicated a bankrupt. Commodore Vanderbilt has fifteen

For the credit of the Canadian press we are Sir Edward Landseer is lying seriously ill at Stoke Park, England, the residence of King William of Prussia was born 1797. He was at the battle of Waterloo. Madam Lopez has received letters of adthe estate of the President of Paraguay. The Marquis of Westminster will receive the Order of Knight of the Garter, made vacant by the death of the Earl of Claren Mrs. John Adams, of Washington.

Herr Joseph Strass, composer, was buried

Germany demands the cession of Alsace Paris, Sept, 16 .- The city is declared be expelled It is reported that American ships have BY PEOPLE'S LINE. THE RESERVE THE PERSON AS A SECOND SE OFFICE:-G. P. Drummond's Exchange Office arrived at Toulon with 5 000 American volunteers and 7,000 rifles.

19 Sparks Street. The forests around the city are now

This Morning's Despatches.

War.

BERLIN, Sept. 16th.-Duke William Mecklenburg's official report says: The capitulation of Leon took place on the basis of that of Sedan, arms to be laid down, Guards Mobile to be discharged on parole, and the line infantry to guard essequence, enforce a treaty. cort to the city. Many officers, including should take place at the Post Office. It is the French commander, remaned in the citadel. When the last man had passed owing to the excitement which prevailed It is for the British people to decide there the merchants and others to have to wait the gate, two powerful detonations were zine, shells, cartridges, and mine exploded and all in the yard were buried under the ruins. There was fearful destruction, but the losses cannot be ascertained.

The Crown Prince has issued an eloquent proclamation to the German people to create national funds for the invalids. DRESDEN, Sept. 16 .- The following is the text of a despatch of the Czar to the King as now, as thoroughly British as the Moth the former place, I trust these few lines of Saxony conferring decorations on the Crown Prince:-

brave sold ers, I venture to confer on your son, the Prince Royal of Saxony, the Cross of the military order of St. George, of the second class, which he has nobly merited. He will receive it. I hope, as a new proof of my respect and triendship. FLORENCE, Sept. 15 .- It is reported that the Pope has left Rome. The Italian he:dayarters are ten mil on the railway to Troyes. A skirmish took place, four miles from Rome, between national troops and Papal Zouaves. The latter were forced to retire tions for the time. The Italian forces are expected to enter Rome to morrow. Laon, and the Prussian flanks ity of Civita. National demonstrations are made on the approach of troops. After the occupation of Papil States, Italy will instantly summon a new Parlia- Paris. mont, to be chosen by universal suffrage.

PARIS - Sept. - 16 .- Advices received perm tted to leave Paris. the Minister of War, show that sha pshootin Paris houses that this makes much less ers and free corps are capturing many Megy who was condemned by the high court to a long term of imprisonment The Minister of War is in receipt of late ant at Strasburg. He reports that bombardment is constant and precise. The that the English mission was offered a city has been badly damaged. He adds week ago to a prominent western politician, This morning, the corps of army of occu- the hands of the President. It is generpation left the city for the purpose of at- ally believed that Judge Orthe, of Indiana, tacking the advanced guard of the Prussian is the gentleman selected. He is a leading army, positive information having been member of the Foreign Affairs Committee, obtained by Gen. Trochu, by means of sub- and one of the strongest men in Congress. of Paris, that the outhouses of the Prussian rear were burnt on the north east and south east of the capital. Several Uhlans were arrested this morning in Paris, disguised as citizens, and were immediately taken to the office of the Min-The Prussians, to-day, took possession of ferers by the Ottawa fires. the railroad station at Chantily, capturing a train, delaying the passengers, and confiscating their bagger another train which was in at the time when the Prussians entered the station was fired on by the Mr. Burnett, of Chicago, and Rev. Messrs. known as the army of the Loire. It is to stocks in State House yard, sixty years | be formed of contingents from the Western Departments and those bordering on the Pyrennees. In the Departments of being a "Republican revolutionist." We He fasted 960 hours, shown a most remark- | teer enrolments exceed 50,000; in all France over 1,000,000 have been enrolled. Paris, Sept 16-11 a.m.-A false slarm where they lodged. Cries of "To Arms,"

The average consumption of soda water was heard in every street, and women were (Gardes we: e dispersing themselves every It is reported that the Prussians are at tacking Joiness and Clarendon.

In the Rue Viennese at 11 o'clock, ac- the exhibition carried each through the cess to the Place de la Bourse was stopped by the Garde Mobile The sewers are being inspected in con sequence of a report that a quantity of pe-

An attempt was made on the part of the suppose every car belonging to the Com- dangerous classes recently expelled, to re- pany must have drawn from $40 to $50 in has recently come down from Red River, they found them. enter Paris by force, but they found themselves wedged between the forts and the each of these days. Prussian advance.

vesterday by some 600 Prussians, who appeared at Clamont, within gunshot of the Fort of Vavusan. They had crept in under over, were left to find their way home as cover of the woods on the heights. These best they could. woods join those of Versailles by those of Meadon, Sevres, and Verronplay. They were too green to more than burn imperfectly. The advance guard of Germany has also been signalled at Creteil, within shot of Thousands returned by the road, walking | acle had, intervened to save their dollars. the fart of Charounna, and within four the whole way into the city. The steamkilometres of Charendau. Barricades are ers also carried many thousand spectators being erected here by the Garde Mobile. Ten prisoners were brought to the tained in the canal locks and did not ar-

Champs Elysees last evening, among whom | rive in Montreal until after midnight, and were some spies taken in the neighborhood of Creteil by Coionel Lafour, of the 1st Corps of Scouts. hild, the youngest member of the eminent banking firm, has shouldered ramparts of the city, alongside of labor-

The Garde Mobile are constantly riving in great numbers to swell the army All the newspapers printed in the city

Emile Girardin, to day, announces through his journal that he desires no cle vation to any office under a Republic. 25,000 chassepots were delivered to the troops in the city yesterday. The Paris journals to-day persist in str-ting that defence is possible The Prussians are massing their troop Measures of defence at Paris are now so act strongly in favour of peace.

A Paris correspondent writes Times:-- "There are those who think it possible that the French would give up portion of her fleet pay the cost present war, raze the walls of Strasburg Gosford railroad. The buildings were and Metz, abolish conscription, and accept a limitation of the army, as the price of much damaged, and three men, named beace; but nobody believes they will cede Francisco Davids, Jacob Picard, and foot of territory.

YESTERDAY'S DESPATCHES."

LONDON, Sept. 16 .- From despatches, re ceived from Florence, it would seem the Italians have surrounded Rome by this has been faithfully followed. PARIS, Sept. 16.—The Prussians having captured a railroad train at Seules, travel in that direction stops immediately.

Fifteen thousand Prussians are at Join London, Sept. 16 .- The Times this morn-

Prussia is satisfied with the reserved athore for armed intervention.

The Great Race.

We are mainly indebted to the Montreal a state of siege. All non combatants will Gazet's of yesterday for the following:-

remarks I am about to write, I told you of Presently a gentleman whose badge proclaimed him a member of the committee came forward with the announcement :-Race takes place at half-past five. if the Boullion, September 16.—Canrobert's Tyne men will row; St. John's umpire is forces, which lately cut through the Prus- ready." That settled the question in the sians at wetz, and are now marching to- minds of every one; for that the Tyne wards Paris, were 6,000 strong. Bazane crew would be "ready" no one doubted. The confidence was not misplaced. In a with wounded; hospital gangrene, that The Prussian headquarters on Friday few minutes the crew were seen carrying dreadful addition to the torture of the their boat to the water, and in a few min- wounded, has m de its appearance, and Sr. Petersburg, September 16.—The utes more they were opposite the buoys, typhus rages in the camps. The bitterest Journal, of this city, the official organ, re- their appearance, white shirted and red enemy must pity the condition of brave grets the refusal of the Prussians to confer and blue capped, eliciting tremendous men in such a state. To complete the only with the French Emperor for peace. applause. A few minutes after came the misery of the invested army there is a The Journa' says as Napoleon cannot St. John's crew, recognizable only by their scarcity of good, food. Fresh mest must again reign in France, he cannot, as a con- boat, and they had on coarse blouse shirts. be impossible. This is what I hear of the They pulled up amid great cheering from one hundred thousand men, and of the London, September 16-3 p. m.—The the thousands of enthusiastic throats on twelve thousand or fift en thousand advance of the Prussians is at Bretteul the banks, steamers and barges; and leav. wounded, shut up in the great French Neuilly Sur Marse, and their scouting ing their boat embarked on that of their stronghold. The imagination cannot deal parties have occupied Curbul and Cla- ump re, there pulling off their blouses and with the details of such wretchedness, and monte, and throngs of people are escap- disclosing themselves in their pretty scar I almost hope the picture is overcharged. let and pink; the transformation being The france-liveurs have made their debut. greeted with hearty loyal cheering. awake to the work before them, and as if determined by all fair No Great Force of Prussians Di- means to win, stripped off as well; stripped however, completely, as to shirt and cap, rectly before Paris-Soissons exhibiting a muscular development which made the backers of St. John feel that insisting on the legitimate character their friends had a tough road before them. of france tireurs when a levy en masse has Some minutes before the time annonced been ordered, and thus we may drift into a they were at the starting point, and on the | war of reprisals, which, again, may become New York, Sept. 16.—The World's cor-respondent telegraphs it does not appear start. The St. John's crew first took the the Prussians are in any great force direct- water, and shot ahead, giving the r backers | leaders of civilization in Europe will surely ly before Paris. Their main body seems to a momentary feeling of confi ience. It was stay their hands. The shooting of a few be stretched in a kind of semi c.rcle from but momentary. The Tyne men with dragoons cannot decide the war. It may about Villiers Cotteret, on the northeast their splendid to g stroke, soon overtook do much to render it ferocious. These to Melun, and Fontaine Bleau, on the south- their rivals, and passed them, so that be france-tircurs have a uniform; a blue kepi, east of the capital, and from Chateau fore they were out of sight of the steamer a blouse of any colour, with a red worsted Thierry in the rear of Mieux, to Provins, they had not simply made up the lost dis. sash; trowsers with a stripe of any colour, tance. Looking at the two boats from the and white gaiters; and they are armed The resolute refusal of Soissons to sur- steamer, the Tyne boat seemed almost to with a rifle a la tabatiere, something of the render certainly embarrasses their opera- foul its opponent, apparently crossing its Remington pattern, I think. There is a rumor of the escape of Can- the wind, which had almost given place to torical interest, for Diebitsch occupied the robert from Metz, and of his advance upon a dead calm, sprang up again from the room in which I live, and the venerable Sedan an i Mezieres, menacing Rheims and west, blowing for the moment a stiffied Father Larcher, cure en retracte, whose breeze, and raising a higher wave than had maison paternelle it is, well remembers the It is not expected that the Prussians been seen during the day. Speculations, will attempt for some days to begin the on the flag boat, were various as to the efserious bombardment of the works of fect of this, but the general verdict was and tells us hew he saw the allied sover-Numbers of women and children are still | St.

trouble than was expected. Many of the Paris journals are moving was trained to perfection it was so trained their offices to Tours, but the chief papers in the four men who swept up under our NEW YORK, Sept. 16 .- The Times' Washington correspondent telegraphs that there is excellent authority for the statement

TORONTO.

TORONTO, Sept. 16. A public meeting will be held to morrow to inaugurate the relief fund for the suf-

The members of the Laymens' Institute met yesterday afternoon. The theme what was christian work was discussed. Punchon and Stewart delivered addresses. Mr. Wilkie, Secretary of the Y. M. C. Association, uged upon the ladies to form a Christian Association for young ladies. At the evening session the subject of religion in the family was discussed.

The closing meeting of the session will be held this evening.

MONTREAL

MONTERAL, Sept. 16. who contrasted both styles could doubt of I have already in the letter of yesterday Hamilton of the Lachine Boating Club, the issue. And then they had slipped said a few words about these troops. The Captain Morgan of Oswego, and Mr. were the official time-keepers in the great race at Lachine on Thursday.

The City Passenger Cars did a great view. Off Bushy Island the St. John men against them in '66, that a Roman Catholic business yesterday. Those that went to taking advantage of some unknown eddies. course of the day from 800 to 1,000 pas- lengths more by the blunder. They were potent of which is, perhaps, that they are sengers. The loads for a considerable time going right for the east end of Isle Dorval in France, and that Prussia was their were 50 to 75 on board a street car at once. while the Tyne men were well out neighbor. Bavarian officers are not quite The day previous was equally good, and we and laying their course straight for the satisfied with the condition of their own

Many were the narrow escapes and inci-The National Guard defeated an attempt | dents which fell to the lot of the thousands of spectators who, after the regatta was wept profusely,

report as of guns, and we said, " Now.

they're rounding the buoys; now, they're fired from a revolver, that was all.) But.

it took quite a considerable stretch coming home.' The shots coming close together, and an absurd impression gaining ground that they marked the turn of The night was pitch dark, and the rain the two boats respectively, the hopes of poured down in torrents, rendering the St. John backers began to rise, and it homeward journey one of great hardship, (The shots followed speedily, we knew afterwards for a simple reason. They were back with them, but they were all de-

The visitors to the Exhibition to-day have been but few, and at noon contributors began to remove their goods. horses and cattle, and nearly all the live stock were taken away by 3 p. m. Flour market very firm, holders asking higher figures, but business mostly of a re- faultless as ever. As they passed our Choice baker's flour growing more Gold, 114; Exchange, 91.

QUEBEC.

The Mayor has called a public meeting for Monday evening next, for the purpose of discussing the North Shore Railroad Arrived-Nordhaav-t, Lake Constance and steamship St. Andrew

A boiler explosion in a saw mill curred last night, at St. Catherines, 20 | very small miles from Quebec, on the line of the Etienne Rheaume were killed. Two others. Magloire Boivin and Alphonse Boivin were seriously injured. One Thomas Rheau e was badly scalded, and F. Falardeau got his 1 mbs dislocated, and burnt slightly. Doctors Moffatt and Stanes time, if the programme of the government | field were in immediate attendance. The

ST. JOHN.

St. John, N. B., September 16.

United States, or New Brunswick, for four the office of President. The vast the Bavarian columns outside Ligny, and these countries cannot the Bavarian columns outside Ligny, and the citizens who were so objects the Bavarian columns outside Ligny, and the citizens who were so objects the Greek Savreous bis countries cannot the Bavarian columns outside Ligny, and the citizens who were so objects.

In my last letter some of the

which will be probably anticipated by the

the great impression produced by the news of the evacuation of Chalons, and of head quarters, en roule to Bar-le-Duc. The account of the state of things inside the works at Metzis pitiable. The town is filled They have shot four men belonging to the 4th Cavalry Division near Chalons, Instructions have been sent to the Corps severely-in other words, they will be shot if taken with arms in their hands. No doubt the French will retaliste, bows. Just at the moment of the start | I write in a house which is of some his-

that it was against the short stroke of the eigns-the Emperor of Austria in the midhad the King of Prussia on his left, riding into the Market place, long in advance of a a whole squadron of Princes, Marshals, Generals, in order, who halted and regu-If ever human flesh and blood and sinew their masters. In those days france tireurs eyes champions of the fame of England. with arms and torsos more like marble invasion. In most of the towns I have passed through, numbers of fine young no hyperbole whatever in the statement hat their figures brought irresistable relounging about in the streets and eveing minder of the grace and power and symthe foreigners inho pit bly-the very stuff netry embodied in the eirly Greek contiono f Lacoon or the Discobolus, of for Garde Mobile and france tireurs Antener or even of Apollo. Nor was there and levee en mass. While they were the slightest evidence of hurry or extra- deliberating in Paris and framing rules ordinary exertion to spoil the force of the and regulations there came on the comparison. Each long measured stroke Prefet, Sous Prefet, and Maire a strong fell naturally and easily, and the boat and a stern hand, and a voice, which was moved through the water, now still once more potent than any Senatus Consultum more, very much as a swan glides. Its or Imperial decree, said, " If any one of propulsion was by the most exquisite of | you attempt to enforce a conscription or to mechanism, as incapable (as it seemed) of enlist men for any military service you What shricking, what misery! fatigue as a steam engine. They were pull- shall be at once deprived of your functions ing but some 36 or 37 strokes a minute (de titue) and sent off to Germany." The here, but they were strokes, and each one authorities have generally behaved with of them fell twenty-two feet ahead of the dignity, remaining at their posts and act roar of the guns, which, incessed proceding. There never was seen on this ing as mediators between the military aucontinent before such magnificent form, and thorities and the people. The Maire of it may be that none of those looking on Vaucouleurs "bouded" a little, and he was yesterday will live to see it excelled. The at once reminded that he was only a Maire roung gentleman pulling our bow oar (he is and that for him the Empire Francis exintensely English) greeted them in passing isted no longer. Last n ght there was an with an enthusiastic "Oh, well rowed, well indescribable calm in Ligny; after nine rowed, Englisamen!" And it was pleasant o'clock a silence as of the grave fell on the to see the gratified smile with which they town-not a light twinkled in the winsular inflection. From the island behind bright spots visible were the spikes of the us there rang out a hearty cheer, prolong. sentinel's helmets as they paced up and down before the Crown Prince's quarters, ed until its echoes had caught and complimented, and let us hope consoled, the and caught the one ray of a candle which men in scarlet rowing behind. These, the glimmered in a military lantern above the St. John crew, here, as we have already courtyard. What a contrast to the tumult said, four lengths astern, pulled shorter. only came with a vast string of waggons at sharper, as it were incisive strokes; and pulled them evenly and well, but no man away, neither making great apparent French are very angry with them. They speed, so long, that is, as amateurs re- say it was "unnatural for the Bavarians steered wildly to port, and, unless thereby | people should aid a Protestant King in an must have lost three, if not four, good have cogent arguments in reply, the most buoys. It was all up then, if never before, army and its appearance, and certainly Phalsbourg-the walls and guns and garri- says, in brief, " I don't know at the worse of it. The latter place interabout 14,000 men, have, I think arrived when the boats came fairly in view once more, that hope died. A great spurt has before Strasbourg already. twelve lengths, and pulled easily, laughchanged but little. The old castle of the dates, must be able to Montmorencys, where Luxemburg was born straight, and be ready for in a stone cashot during a siege by the cross them. Taylor turning his head back, holloed, "Clear the way!" and it was where the allied Sovereigns lodged,-what And then down the swift flood reflections must have passed through his result at worked the splendid human machinery of so many years, again France-a Soverboat profusely decorated with St. John eign alone—the head of the German peo. and 245,800 colours, Renforth found time to chaff the le, warring against another Napolean? Luxembourg, 72 comi press on board, and asked jauntily, His Majesty looked in very good spirits, although he feels, and repeatedly laments, the dreadful losses which have occurred before Metz. As to Count Bismarck, a few feat is taken from the Paris There was nothing worth looking at. For weeks-nay, days I should write-of cam- the army of the Crown Pr cheer to the beaten crew, we paddled gentiers-great jackboots, dark frock with long as they could hold a loose shingle opposite Hanna's Hotel, while cheers were echoing in the air, and the weak ones were busy changing their blue and white where they had budded in pink and scarlet. That was small circle of officers before the Crown Prince's count strode about amongst his friends, Waterloo, The enemy Ladies and Children's Fancy Woolen chatting and laughing cheerily, receiving with admiration, which Goods in endless Variety. Clouds from 37 4c. their congratulations, shaking hands with worthily expressed the principal officers, and altogether giving with the present aspect of affairs about Offenbach, the composer, denies the him. The Duke of Coburg and the various charge advanced by the German papers Princes, Mecklenburg-Strelitz, Wurtenberg, that he has composed anti-German war songs, but says that he is a French citizen. Crown Prince's suite, were all recognized The Marquis of Hertford, whose death and spoken to by the King, who had se have already chronicled, was the fourth brought with him a small Staff, among Belgians, 10.087 herited an immense fortune, which he they were present. The cortege, which was sians, largely devoted to the maintenance of a not gorgeous or imposing, was preceded Wallachians, magnificent establishment in Paris, and by an infantry escort, consisting of a pick and 3,766 foreigners de Grey Seymour, his cousin's grandson. | not come in till two o'clock. The King was the French.

norses. He was attended by dou. He was followed by riages with Staff officers, the from all the regiments of Majesty started for Bark

A Night Before Strash Auerbach, the celebrated north BEEAK DOWN .-- A a broke down y

Per. S. W. La Du ines a duel and yet a ference, of the shoot down his adversary I preach in the 1 must be done. But wards, and incessantly more Bombs soared aloft and described the city was on fee north from the cathe atte Cornwall Me paint the scene? Hereard the intime up. We saw four, fre cont gration y tongues of fire. A speciator conmain unbarmed," was the cry that me i transported among those now water the streets the fires must be kitting 40 inch Grey Cotton 16c. heavy.

the purchase of costly works of art. At ed man from every regiment in the Prusthis census, it will the famous sale of the gallery of King Willsian army, and a very splendid body it was 34,273 as the number liam L of Holland, he purchased one picabout 250 strong, I should think—every and hence the recent report ture, the Assumption by Murillo for the recent report. ture, the Assumption, by Murillo, for the enormous sum of $120,000. The Married William Straight, and six feet high.

piscopal Church; at Il a.m. and 6] P en took a ti serives and data TENLESALE. - Ga.

chalenormous sum of $120,000. The Marquis mile was an early and constant friend of Napoleon III., and encouraged him in his candidate delayed on the road from Commercy by dature for the office of President. The man young, straight, and six feet high.
These passed through the town an hour believe the Belgians and Hollanders, the same of the Belgians and Hollanders, the delayed on the road from Commercy by it is true, is raised to the same of the Belgians and that city were one. dature for the office of President. The vast the Bavarian columns outside Ligny, and these countries cannot be ranked title, to his young kinsman. Cant. Here the Bavarian columns outside Ligny, and these countries cannot be ranked to be really to the Bavarian columns outside Ligny, and these countries cannot be really to the Bavarian columns outside Ligny.