"If you have any mind for it," said he to me, "you can sleep." He blew out the candle, and seated hi self with his two acolytes in the back part of the room against the wall. I threw my self on the ter, murmuring a prayer that Heaven would send the assassin.

The hours rolled by. Midnight came. The sil ner was profound I could scarcely believe the three men sat there with eyo and ear strained to catch the least move ment-the slightest sound. Minute after minute passed slowly---slowly. I could not speak. A thousand terrible images chased each other through my brain. One o'clock struck-two-yet nothing-no one

At three o'clock one of the policemen moved. I thought the man was comingbut all was stlent again as before. I began to think that Madoc would take me for an mposter, to imagine how he would abuse me in the morning. And then my comrades, instead of aiding, I had only riveted their chains,

The time seemed now to pass on too rapicly. I wished the night might list forever, so as to preserve at least a ray of was going over the same torturing fan-without my having heard the least sound -the window opened-two eyes gleamed taken place. in the aperture-nothing moved in the

"We have him !" Then the whole house was shaken from of feet-hourse shouts. I was petrified by terror. The man bellowed-the others drew their breaths in quick gasps-then came a heavy fall which made the floor crack-end I heard only the gnashing of teeth and clink of chains. Light !" cried the terrible Madoc.

By the flame of the burning coals, which | Blackse od's Magazine.

at each other with pale faces. The blood shot eye of the assassin turnad toward Madoc, his lips moved, but only would be benefitted in consequence. after several seconds I could hear him mur of his ruin. Madoc, who had recovered and tore asunder the posom of his shirt;

lows. He knew where to strike, and he has not missed his mark Do you stay few enjoyed, who could believe that he had

A hundred different explanations were governed by his animal instincts alone, be cratic rule fill us with misgivings as to they pacific or sanguinary, and in Master flat head swollen behind t e cars—the green as we do in the superiority of eyes—the long bristling mustache, all prov. own institutions we cannot help ed that he unhappily belonged to the ing that the mission which feline family terrible race, which kills for the pleasure of killing.

A Great Convenience.

To the Editor of THE 112 ES. Str.-The Canada Central Railway is great convenience to all those who reside in the vicinity of Brockville, Merrickville, Smith's Falls, Perth, Carleton Place, Almonte, Amprior, Sand Point, and the country around those places, who require 9 o'clock in the morning can be at Perth, Canada and the mother country demand e, ther of those places by the morning train saction of business and can then return by called upon to deal. the evening train, which leaves at 5.35, and be back to their homes before

None but those w o have travelled over the Canada Central can form a correct idea of how great a convenience this road is, ties have spread a network of complete organization over England. They possess tures. They have female propagandists, who are, in some respects, more effective than male speakers,

" . mmense Stock of Ribbons, just mark d or Nove ties in Laces, Millinery and Gmerul Fancy Goods. T. HUNTON SHOOLBRED & CO.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

Notice-A. Rowe. A Rifle Sweepstake. Customs Department-R. S. M. Bourchette

Mest 38. Sparks Stree

MONDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1870.

Sir Francis Hincks returned home of the Russell House. hold a meeting on Thursday next for the improved, so long as the present Govern-

"They have gone to sleep!" thought I, most respectable Aldermen in the city repugnance, while the "Reds," on The head remained there—motionless— that the brother in law of "Shoo Fly," the other hand, have raised watchful. The villain must suspect some who now holds a high civic position, stated their blood-stained flag in many thing! Oh! how my heart thumped—the in public Council that if he (" Shoo Fly") places, and threaten to involve the country blood coursed through my veins! And had "his deserts, it is in the P-y he in anarchy so soon as the war with Prussia cast a bluish light through the room, I "Old Maga" any reference to the colonies could deemly see the ponce ome. Is of the Empire is certain to be accompaned he was true to France, and that while plo shirt sleeves; one held him by the throat, by some friendly and encouraging remarks, the knees of the other rested on his chest; and both as British subjects and Canadians, ment of his own dynasty upon the throne, Madoc was roughly clasping the handcufts we cannot avoid feeling grateful to that he ever sought also with steady persistence staunch Conservative periodical, for the the aggrandizement and permanent pros great legs, naked from knee to ankle, was loyal and determined fight which it always perity of the nation over which he ruled. raised and struck the floor with a convul- makes against the anti-colonial theories of sive movement. His eyes were starting certain political doctrinnaires of the day. The paper to which we refer, however, Hardly had I lighted the candle when contains one passage to which we feel the officer started back with an exclama- bound to take exception, and that

Canadian fishermen.

ANNEXATION.

We feel sure that we are only expressing that when Mr. Howe and his party were the views of a very large majority of the not believe this, that we have no faith lieve the future welfare and progress of the the road to Heidelberg, and advised us to country are far more safely assured under turn back. Perhaps even then he had a existing circumstances, then they would be ment that we would be the cause if we formed a portion of the American surprise, seeing that he did not Republic. We are aware of all that can move, and that a thread of blood was ooz- be said in favor of annex tion; of the large ing along the dusty floor, bent over him amount of American capital which might "Monsieur the de n has cheated the gal- out alluding to the increased burden of tax real sympathy which exists between the people of Canada and the citizens of Van der Berg, dean of the wootlen-drapers, is of itself sufficient to deter any nation with theirs. The utter disregard which is season when not in any way become dentified the courage and discipline of the courage and the courage and device and the courage and device and cossessed of wealth and position such as from desiring to unite its future destinies a somnambulist, and therefore not respon- millions of Southerners are kept in the sible for his actions—thers, that he had Union by the force of military power, the coulde have no other motive for such a alarming prevalence of lawlessness and crime. Ferhaps both theories were true mob rule, all these things, which are the accomplish upon this continent in the fu one which is not only fraught with important results to ourselves but to the entire

The people of Canada seek for no more than they have at present. They desire their friendship and wish them prosperity, but, as we said before, they have no faith do they believe that their prosperity would convenience to the Ottawa people who re- be permanently increased by annexation, quire to visit any of the places above but the contrary. The interests both of Brockville or Sand Point about 12.30, and I that the colonist tie should be maintained, can spend about four hours either in plea- that if p ssible it should be made yet sure or bus ness, and return to Ottawa by suronger than it is at present, and that 8:30 in the evening or persons leaving colonial affairs should be recognized by will arrive in Ottawa at 12, noon, where Imperial statesmen as among the most im they will have over five hours for the tran portant questions with which they are

would appear that the secularist authori armistice is arranged within a few days we chief mission of our Montreal evening conmay soon expect to hear that the combardment of Paris has commenced an effective system of tract distribution, oombardment of Paris has commenced and command eloquent and persuasive lec | The destruction of that beautiful city with and by the rules of war, such an event could be a disgrace to the beasted c.vilization of the age. We cannot of course enter which the scenes and learn what diplo command of the troops, and of His Royal Highness Printer Arthur, who had become our comrade in arms, were more than the scenes and learn what diplo command of the troops, and of His Royal Highness Printer Arthur, who had become our comrade in arms, were more than the scenes and learn what diplo command of the troops, and of His Royal Highness Printer art 75ct, per pair.

T. HUNTON, SHOOLBREAD & Co.

All the New Materials in Dress Goods, the scenes and learn what diplo command of the troops, and of His Royal Highness Printer art 75ct, per pair.

T. HUNTON, SHOOLBREAD & Co.

All the New Materials in Dress Goods, the scenes and learn what diplo command of the troops, and of His Royal Highness Printer art 75ct, per pair.

T. HUNTON, SHOOLBREAD & Co.

All the New Materials in Dress Goods, the special with a Mr. George William and the city. I hope, in common with many others, that those who have charge of this public work will make an attempt on account of a large quantity of silver plate the sum of the special printers and the city. I hope, in common with many others, that those who have charge of this public work will make an attempt on account of a large quantity of silver the sum of the common with many others, that those who have charge of this public work will make an attempt on account of a large quantity of silver the sum of the city. I hope, in common with and the city. I hope, in the city of the common of the city of the common of the special plant and the city. I hope, in common with and the city. I hope, in c matic action has been taken by the great neutral powers to avert such a cata-trophe but it seems only reasonable to imagine that the united efforts of Great Britain, Russia and Austria should be sufficient to stances, the French might with propriety rests upon their shoulders.

For the sake of France it is most earn estly to be hope I that the men who now rule in Paris will be indiced peaceably more stable form of Government. Sup-Honourable John Hamilton is staying at posing peace proclaimed, and the invading armies with frawn from French soil, it is very much to be feared that the We hear that the School Trustees will condit on of affairs would not be much purpose of reviewing the man gement of ment attempted to exercise authority over affairs in the past, and preventing a recur- the whole country. It is not recognized rence of those impositions which have by other powers, nor is it sustained by the will of the people; large districts in France still firmly athere to Imperialism, We have been informed by some of the and regard Republicanism with > that he was betrayed by those in whom had trusted is more generally recognized We have always held the belief that Napoing," and we think that when the true ing and intriguing for the secure establish on Monday evening last, Mr. Mackenzie sulting the loyal settlers of the province seen approaching Winnipeg, the worthy doctor, animated by a laudable desire to do honour to one of Her Majesty's Ministers, hoisted a small pocket-handkerchief flig, about a yard square, from one of the Provincial Secreta y arrived opposite Dr. exclaimed, "take down that rag," alluding to the pocket handkerchief called by whole of this story is utterly unfounded in | conduct and that of your brother officers, wincial Secretary very soon after meeting Her Majesty has, in consequence, with Dr. Schultz' became impressed with pleased to confer upon you, a special i be, he was utterly lacking in prudence, hour of danger, Canada may and accompanied by the following Ministers of the Crown: Sir G. E. Cartier, Bart; obliged to their self-constituted with perfect confience rely upon would not in any way become identified the courage and discipline of C.B.; Hon. Pe er Mitchell, Hon. Alexander champion. But be that as it may let us

A SILLY STORY.

WILD STATEMENTS.

Among Opposition papers just now there seems to exist an irrepressible desire to vie with each other in announcing a variety of utterly unlikely and in many cases im possible changes in departmental and official circles. A day or two since the Ottawa correspondent of the Toronto Globe telegraphed to his paper, that Dr. Tache was to be removed from his position as announced a number of changes and ap ous appreciation of my services, nor your announced a number of changes and ap ous appreciation of my services, nor your announced a number of changes and ap ous appreciation of my services, nor your announced a number of changes and ap ous appreciation of my services, nor your announced a number of changes and ap ous appreciation of my services, nor your announced a number of changes and ap ous appreciation of my services, nor your announced a number of changes and appreciation of my services, nor your announced a number of changes and appreciation of my services, nor your announced a number of changes and appreciation of my services, nor your announced a number of changes and appreciation of my services, nor your announced a number of changes and appreciation of my services, nor your announced a number of changes and appreciation of my services, nor your announced a number of changes and appreciation of my services, nor your announced a number of changes and appreciation of my services, nor your announced a number of changes and appreciation of my services, nor your announced a number of changes and appreciation of my services, nor your announced a number of changes and appreciation of my services, nor your announced a number of changes and appreciation of my services, nor your announced a number of changes and appreciation of my services, nor your announced announ pointments which would follow in consequence. The Montreal Witness, not to be outdone by its Western friend and fellow- tempt me to deprecate your praise, or disown the merit which you attribute to worker, tried its hand at the same game, apparent to almost any one, the "only of thousands of Canadians would have After the teast of the "Queen" had been far west. The corporation of Ottawa by the officials at Brest, but most enthuportant questions with which they are called upon to deal.

THE POSITION IN FRANCE.

The surrender of Metz marks another important epoch in the great European strug-like. The interest is now all centred in the conditions are the conditionally absurd. The interest is now all centred in the conditions are the condition of our the conditionally absurd. The interest is now all centred in the conditions are the condition of the cond or now great a control with the gle. The interest is now all centred in the Hon. Mr. Morris is made to vacate his whom I was so fortunate as to command, to ing the "Heroes of the War of 1812," and legends of the shadowy past. I do not restable to the first above the Prussian position at Montreu lies at the Prussian position at Montr running as it does in connection with the round is smooth, the cars are comfortable, and the employees are civil and obliging, and at the same time very careful in the discharge of their duties.

Identifications are conformable, and the same time very careful in the discharge of their duties.

Identifications are conformable, the round is smooth, the cars are comfortable, and the same time very careful in the discharge of the same time very careful in the discharge of the same time very careful in the discharge of the same time very careful in the discharge of the same time very careful in the discharge of the state of the Aylmer bridge, which is just now undergoing reposition and make room for the Hon. J.

Identifications are comfortable, and the farmers of the county which is just now undergoing reposition and make room for the Hon. J.

If the interest is now all centred in the farmers of the county which is just now undergoing reposition and make room for the Hon. J.

If the interest is now all centred in the farmers of the county which is just now undergoing reposition and make room for the Hon. J.

If the interest is now all centred in the farmers of the county which is just now undergoing reposition and make room for the Hon. J.

If the interest is now all centred in the farmers of the county which is just now undergoing reposition and make room for the Hon. J.

If the interest is now all centred in the farmers of the county which is just now undergoing reposition and make room for the Hon. J.

If the interest is now all centred in the farmers of the county which is just now undergoing reposition and make room for the Hon. J.

If the interest is now all centred in the farmers of the Aylmer just now undergoing reposition and make room for the Hon. J.

If the interest is now all centred in the farmers of the Aylmer just now undergoing reposition and make room for the Hon. J.

If the interest is now all centred in the farmers of the county with the farmers of the Aylmer just now undergoing reposition and mak must have terminated, and the Prussian for Court, are promoted to all kinds of im.

Bouchette made a very renctions speech in not an incorporated town, we cannot exhaut the war of hurt that he soon after died; together with Yours truly,

"AN Occasional Traveller."

Lord Shaftsbury said some time ago that not more than two per cent of the working men of London attended any place working men of London attended any place of working. The statement occasioned to working men of beardment and a siege is perhaps question. The statement occasioned to the fact that after the war of must have dictated terms from the Tuil possible positions. The mind of a man possible positions and set of number, their burthplaces, their families, and the Prussian possible positions. The mind of a man possible positions of the interest improvements, and the provements, and the possible positions. The interest improvements, and men possible positions. The interest improvements and mind possible positions. The interest improvements and pre inquiry and observation. The last toast proposed was "Colonel a little pains could make it passable. The last toast proposed was "Colonel a little pains could make it passable. The before Paris is assuming a malignant and little pains could make it passable. The last toast proposed was "Colonel a little pains could make it passable. The before Paris is assuming a malignant and little pains could make it passable. The last toast proposed was "Colonel a little pains could make it passable. The last toast proposed was "Colonel a little pains could make it passable. The last toast proposed was "Colonel a little pains could make it passable. The last toast proposed was "Colonel a little pains could make it passable. The last toast proposed was "Colonel a little pains could make it passable. The last toast proposed was "Colonel a little pains could make it passable. The last toast proposed was "Colonel a little pains could make it passable. The last toast proposed was "Colonel a little pains could make it passable. The last toast proposed was "Colonel a little pains could make it passable. The last toast proposed was "Colonel a little pains could make it passable. The last toast proposed was "Colonel a little pains could make it passable. The last toast proposed was "Colonel a little pains could make it passable. The last toast proposed was "Colonel a little pains could make it passable. The last toast proposed was "Colonel a little pains could make it passable. The last toast proposed was "Colonel a little pains could make it passable. The last toast proposed was "Colonel a little pains could make it passable. The last toast proposed was "Colonel a little pains could make it passable. The last toast proposed was "Colonel a little pains could make it passable. The last toast proposed was "Colonel a little pains could make it passable." He urges the Church of Eng oly will even yet be productive of favorable sectional and sectarian differences, and to meet them next time at the very boundary Chamberlin-long life to him." results to France, and enable her to ob- publish statements in reference to the line. Success their secured immunity for beyond spething I have seen being seen as a seen beginning to the seen beyond spething I have seen being seen as a seen being seen as a seen sthods of operation. He wants working en to preach, and desires to see Bishops tain more advantageous terms than she Government which are devoid alike of our own homes. Providence youchsafed the engagement at Eccles' Hill, which he our own homes. Providence youchsafed the engagement at Eccles' Hill, which he our own homes.

We understand that Mr. George Honey have deigned to confer it; that preston, alias "Shoo Fly," has written an whom I am glad to recken all free managers. official letter to the City Chamberlain, re- should so mark their good will and that questing him to "whitewash" him; to Her Majesty's representative should deign which he has received an Theial reply. such terms of peace as, under the circumstances, the French might, with propriets. Now let us have these letters, so that the Now let us have these letters, so that the public may have an opportunity of judg-ling how far he has been able to prove his innocence. We understand from good autimocence. We understand from good autimocence. We understand from good autimocence. The law is a local provided the spirit which has prompted the Imperial spirit which has prompted the Imperial choose they can appoint their own Collections of the law, the School Trustees have the remedy in their own choose they can appoint their own Collections of the law, the School Trustees have the remedy in their own choose they can appoint their own choose the choose they can appoint their own ch to make way for the establishment of a the Sher.ff. All these things are now coming to light, and we hope soon to be able to lay them before the public in extenso. Mr. Preston then traded off his position as City Counsellor for that of Tax Collector, lant Colonel, spoke as follows : and the result of his doing so may be seen to-day in Daly street and other streets of

PRESENTATION OF THE CHAMBER. LIN TESTIMONIAL.

As announced the ceremony of pre- had pleasure ten days ago, at Montreal, in three c'clock on Saturday afternoon in the Senate Chamber. Honor to Colonel Chamberlin in token of Honor to Colonel Chamberlin in token of sons and it seems to be about time. in anarchy so soon as the war with Prussia has terminated. The Legitimists would has terminated. The Legitimists would income and notwithstanding the unplease ties he displayed, and the good fortune ties he displayed, and the good fortune ties he displayed, and the good fortune ties he displayed. ing one, and notwithstanding the unpleas- which attended him, on a day which would to correlate and increase how we would be entrance, where they deposited their utes after 3 o'clock people ceased to arrive, ded persons were ready to take part puriod the amount regulation that at some indefinate future and soon after the O. B. Gamison Art.llery band struck up the National Anthem, the signal of His Excellency's arrival. He to easy victory. Any success, however, had it in his power to injure him, and posentered the Senate Chamber followed by small or transient, their establishing themhis staff, and was received by the Usher of his seat, His Worship the Mayor address- these prospects of evil were dissipat-May it please Your Excellency,-

The citizens of Ottawa, of whom I have presentative, having desired to testify their appreciation of the services rendered by Colonel Chamberlin at Eccles' Hill, in May last, are prepared to do so in the presentation to him of a Sword of Honor Your Excellency has been pleased kindly to accede to the request of the doners of I have the honor, therefore, to lay sword before you, and to request your Excellency to permit me to express to Colonel The address, which was beautifully grossed by Mr. David Scott, was as follows manding 63th Battation (Mississquoi) Volunteers; Companion of the Most Distinguished

Order of Saint Michael and St. George, &c., &c. Sig.-A large number of my fellow-citi zens of Ottawa, deeply impressed with ad-Militia, the invasion of lawless marauders been supposed to have assumed when he Hill, during the month of May last, have ordered the removal of the mace, to have desired to mark their appreciation of your courtesey a flag, as before mentioned. We throughout the Dominion of Canada the on that memorable occasion, has met with Her Majesty has in consequence, been this sword, and on behalf of the subscribers, to express the hope that you may long spared to wear in honour that which in honour has been won. JOHN ROCHESTER, jr,

HENRY J. MORGAN,

Ottawa, 29th October, 1870.

citizens of Ottawa, on whose behalf you Misses Irvine, and others. h we addressed me, for their most gener- MEMBERS OF COMMITTEE.-His Worshi you have spoken of them. However much Francis Clemow, Mr. Alderman Mosgrove, a just knowledge of my own merits might and Mr. M. J. May. hundreds of others did theirs, as hundreds | champagne lunch at the Rideau Club.

methods of operation. He wants working men to preach, and desires to see Bishops in lawn holding forth in the open air. It leads to be carefully masked.

Government which are devoid alike of our own homes. Providence vouchsafed the chargement at Eccles' Hill, which he our own homes. Providence vouchsafed the chargement at Eccles' Hill, which he our own homes. Providence vouchsafed the chargement at Eccles' Hill, which he our own homes. Providence vouchsafed the chargement at Eccles' Hill, which he our own homes. Providence vouchsafed the chargement at Eccles' Hill, which he our own homes. Providence vouchsafed the chargement at Eccles' Hill, which he our own homes. Providence vouchsafed the chargement at Eccles' Hill, which he our own homes. Providence vouchsafed the chargement at Eccles' Hill, which he our own homes. Providence vouchsafed the chargement at Eccles' Hill, which he our own homes. Providence vouchsafed the chargement at Eccles' Hill, which he our own homes. Providence vouchsafed the chargement at Eccles' Hill, which he our own homes. Providence vouchsafed the chargement at Eccles' Hill, which he our own homes. Providence vouchsafed the chargement at Eccles' Hill, which he our own homes. Providence vouchsafed the chargement at Eccles' Hill, which he our own homes. Providence vouchsafed the chargement at Eccles' Hill, which he our own homes. Providence vouchsafed the chargement at Eccles' Hill, which he our own homes. Providence vouchsafed the chargement at Eccles' Hill, which he our own homes. Providence vouchsafed the chargement at Eccles' Hill, which he our own homes. Providence vouchsafed the chargement at Eccles' Hill, which he our own homes. Providence vouchsafed the chargement at Eccles' Hill, which he us victory.

For myself, I feel that no feat of arms du nee of the brave fellows whom he had was ever more generously appreciated, or the high honor to command on that occaburch unless they are willing to appear more amply rewarded. The safety of my home, the approval of my own immediate chief, (Col. Smith, to whose wise plans and should have recommended me cellency, who, in presenting it to the gal-His Excellency stated that he took part in the proceedings of the day at the instance and request of the subscribers to the testimonial, who might with all propriety be considered as representing the general feeling of the country. He had pleasure in being the medium of conveying their gift to its meritorious recipient, as he uniforms, as well as cannon, and over not feel that he had been swindled? large stores of ammunition, provisions and selves on Canadan soil for any short time, would have brought multitudes to their spirit shown by our Militiz Volunteers, produced a general feeling and assurance of security, which finds its natural expression in such a testimonial as that now offered to Col. Chamberlin. to the gallant Colonel with these words:— question to intrude another with which it has no manner of connection upon of the subscribers, much pleasure in pre- their attention. If "Shoo Fly" can give live many years to look upon it with re taxes have not been collected, or, if coljoicing, and eventually hand it down as an health and comfort. We all breathe the wish very earnestly as the best possible for you and the country—may you never have occasion to draw it in civil strife or against foreign enemies."

His Excellency then shook hands with the Colonel and retired.

Him, and under which, for want of a frank now suffering in the explanation, he is now suffering in the explanation, he is now suffering in the explanation, he is now suffering in the Tours, to day, that the enemy, pursued by French cavalry, he hastily retreated upon Beauvois and Longeon.

Regues Oct. 28.—The Prefect of this department telegraphed to the Ministry at Tours, to day, that the enemy, pursued by French cavalry, he hastily retreated upon Beauvois and Longeon.

Regues Oct. 28.—The Prefect of this department telegraphed to the Ministry at Tours, to day, that the enemy, pursued by French cavalry, he hastily retreated upon Beauvois and Longeon.

Regues Oct. 28.—The Prefect of this department telegraphed to the Ministry at Tours, to day, that the enemy, pursued by French cavalry, he hastily retreated upon Beauvois and Longeon.

Regues Oct. 28.—The Prefect of this department telegraphed to the Ministry at Tours, to day, that the enemy, pursued by French cavalry, he hastily retreated upon Beauvois and Longeon. the Colonel and retired.

Mich sel and St. George. He was attended by his suite : Lt.-Col. McNeill, V. C., Mili-La Col. Bernard, A.D.C.; and Col. Wily, Commandant; Col. W. Powell, D.A.G.M.; Colonel Aumond, Major Ross, Capt. Forsyth, Capt. White, Surgeon VanCortlandt, &c., and accompanied by the following Minis and one fer which, and Miss Ross, Capt. Worsley, 60th Rifles, Mr. H. Abbott, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen of Montreal, Mrs. Robertson-Ross, Mrs. Capt. Payley, the Misses Reynolds, Mr. Walsh, M.P., Mr. Currier, M P., and Mrs. Currier, Mr. D. S. Eastwood, Mr. Remon, the Rev. | Concerning Mud in General, and the Father Dawson, Mr. E. J. Langevin, Mr. and Mrs. Griffin, Mr. Daniel Fraser, Metapedia; Mr. John Lowe, of Montreal; To the Editor of THE TIMES. Rev. Dr. Bedford-Jones, Rev. C. P. Blise and Mrs. Bliss, Mr. Gilbert McMicken, Mr. Colonel Chamberlin in replying said:

and Mrs. Whitcher, Mr. and Mrs. Dorion, Sis,—I cannot sufficiently thank the Dr. and Mrs. Wilson, Mr. Adamson, the

LUNCH AT THE RIDHAU CLUB. After the ceremony was over Colonel my conduct, I cannot fail to be profoundly | Champerlin entertained the Chairman and gratified at the kindness which has prompt. | members of the Presentation Committee ed this presentation. I only did my duty, as and a few other friends to an impromise

The City Collector. To the Editor of THE TIMES. Siz, -Without entering into the contro: versy regarding the non-payment of the versy regarding the non-payment of the trees.

OFFICE:- G. P. Drummond's Exchange Office during the week. Beet and Port abundance, the former. lain by the officer charged with the duty, and that it is the French Republican Government urged on by men like Victor Hugo and Garibaldi who have refused to accept and Government in its kindness towards myself tor, and, as the education tax is comparation, and my brother officers. The loyalty of and my brother officers. The loyalty of and my brother officers. The loyalty of the city small, and, of all imposts, is that the same of the moved a lower of the public man of the Mother of the city council. This is most cheerfully assented to by the which is most cheerfully assented to by the lower of the public man of the Mother of the city council. and Garibaldi who have refused to accept of the City Council, he moved a recisonable terms, a terrible responsibility by law relating to the city taxes, the pastonable terms, a terrible responsibility by law relating to the city taxes, the pastonable terms, a terrible responsibility by law relating to the city taxes, the pastonable terms, a terrible responsibility by law relating to the city taxes, the pastonable terms, a terrible responsibility by law relating to the city taxes, the pastonable terms are the community, the realization of it, immediately community, imm sige of which so embarrassed the city that and relieve some anxieties. I accept the beautiful sword you offer me, as a gift paratively easy task. If this were done Amiens and Rouen railroad at Fornier, beautiful sword you offer me, as a gift paratively easy task. If this were done were repulsed after a severe fight with the money could be deposited at interest the Mobiles. The National Guards reteated and a special Act of Parliament had to be if ever it is used in battle, it shall be for obtained, the result of which was a levy by the defence of the British Crown and the the defence of the British Empire, for which would be sure to receive their stipends as The Prussians retreating fired the village soon as they were earned. With whom- with torches and petroleum, Mayor handed the sword to His Ex. a very discreditable thing, that leaders: M. Thiers, Grevy, Guizot, Montthe educators of our youth should Payroux and Lefevre. Pontatis is to be be exposed to the inconvenience and loss named the constituent. . consequent upon the system at present in operation. There is something very loose and unbusiness-like, not to call it by worse names, in the practice of giving cheques upon an empty treasury, and so compelling the holders to resort to the alternative of having them discounted, if under the necessity, as I believe the teachers generally are, of converting them into cash. The subject is one which-leaving out all considerations of malfeasance on the .part the testimonial sword took place at whom Colonel Chamberlin was one. His thing and assert nothing obtains the to ourselves and inquire how we would was produced here by the news of Bazaine's head of sweat gathered on my yet cold beads of sweat gathered on my forehead. I ceased to breaths.

Several minutes passed thus—then, suddenly, the man seemed to have decided—the gliked down into the garret, with the same instead secution as on the previous night.

But at the same instant a cry—a terrible, short, thrilling cry—vibrated through the same possed through the promote the property of the promote the prosperity of the promote the promote the prosperity of the promote the prosperity of the promote the promote the promote the promote the great numbers came on foot. At a few minwith them, aid on the move, in consequence of the reports circulated as to their But if in addition his complaints were strength, and the certainty of their march treated with resentment by the maker of sibly the disposition to do so; would you not conclude that his was a very hard case aid, and probably caused much bloodshed indeed? And yet such seems to be about Ceremonies. His Excellency having taken and led to s rious complications. All the position of the school teachers of Ottaed by the promptitude with which the hands. 1 am loath to accept as militia and volunteers flew to arms, the true the charges made against skill with which they were handled, and the City Collector, but at the same time conce ve that the public have a right played under fire. They showed to expect from him or from the proper nselves equal to the occasion, and explanation of the causes which have have had a lesson as to the stout resistance that awaits them. They have found taxes, or if collected, their transfer into a Lion in their ill-chosen path, and have probably prudently relinquished their vain imaginations as to the conquest of Canada.
The repulse of the piratical bands, and the I really cannot discover any relevancy at att and their proved ability to defend the in his persistent reproduction of the ascountry against any similar attempts, have sumed slight put upon the delegates to the by this time formed their opinion of the merits of that matter, and it looks very much like a crafty attempt to throw dust in people's eyes, when a really important I am sure the community will be glad to

> His Excellency wore the ribbon of a gates let him do it to his heart's content, Knight Grand Cross of the Order of St. but let me entreat him not to mix up the suppose that "Shoo Fly" is himself one of the delegates, or that he is writing at their instance, as otherwise the fact of his so desirable aspect before the public would be a very peculiar proceeding indeed, Suspension Bridge in Particular.

jacent villages are ways of pleasantness. couched in diplematic but decided lan-While enjoying the pleasant sunshine of guage of the Governments of Great Britain this fine October, we are wading through from Tours, through German lines into self for the too flattering manner in which gan, Secret ry; Mr. Alexander Gibb, Mr. by our energetic Corporation, has succeed. between M. Thiers and General Trochu ed in providing acres of muck which would will decide the fate of the negotiations for gladden the heart of many a farmer, and an armistice. the County of Carleton. As respects Hull, rived at Brest, enlisted in the 94th regithe like of it was never seen anywhere except in some distant prairie town of the jority joined Franc-Fireurs, and were at done it, if the happy chance which fell to duly honoured, Colonel Chamberlin pro- might do something certainly to improve siastically along the road, and at Tours. a decent sidewalk and save a good deal of annoyance to the numerous people who walk or go by the horse core between the core

Latest by Telegraph

The Orleanist peace party counts as its Balloon voyages has ceased for more than

The Italian press advocate the placing of outrage and treason to the Pope on the same footing as treason to the King. In consequence of the calamity which in port the new turret ships 'Gerberus' and 'Magdala,' The channel squadron is expected home before Christmas. The States of Germany, northern and southern, are said to have agreed to name King William as Emperor. conduct to Paris because it requires hun to Hanna Per 100 lbs No. 1 Insp.

pointments in our family history.

Kreutz Keitung says the last summons BERNAPD & PERKINS. General Trochu has written to King William on behalf of General Duerat. The spoils captured at Metz include funds, and twenty milions of French Civil

BRUSSELS, Oct 29 - The Indep Belge denies the Prussian report that there was fighting in Paris on the 25th. It has

SATURDAY'S DESPATCHES

AMIENS, Oct. 28.—The Prussians were defeated at Fortmiers this morning by the force of artillery. The village of Bouvesse was burned by the enemy's petroleum standing the reported attempts of the

A despatch says the Prussians have French men-of-war had just left Dunkirk, going north. The river entrances and coasts on the North and Baltic seas will immediately be placed in a state of dethe Constituent Assembly.

It is now reported that Austria has re newed her activity in support of the English negotiations, and that she is warmly backed by the Italian Government. Intelligence has been received at the Foreign Office here, that the German au-Str.-No one can say just now that the thorities at Versailles have consented, ways of the people of Ottawa and the ad- upon a formal demand to that effect, A special at Bologne sends word that a enrich the soil of all the worn out farms of few of the American volunteers, who ar-

Goods in endless Variety. Clouds from 37 4c

OTTAWA MARKETS There was about as large an attend rapidly at $00 to 21 per tin.

FLOUR-Extra.

Strong Bakers. Bags-Fall per 100 lbs. Oatmeal-per 200 lbs. Indian meal * Lye-per bushel 56 lb Buck wheat flour 100 lbs. WHEAT-Fall-per bushel, 60 lbs -per bushel 56 lbs Beans " 6) lbs. Prime Mess per do Pork (fresh) -Beef per 100 lbs intton per lb. Calves, -each icese-each. Turkeys each. Poultry, per pair Ducks. CTTER-Choice Table No. 1 Firkin Turnips per bushel

VEGREABLES, &c.-Potatoes No. 8, do. Green Raw Hides. Green Calf Skins, per lb 87 Lamb Skins-cach.

is betw

URDAY .-

Positively for Two Nights Only!

NOVEMBER 1st. THE GREATEST SUCCESS EVEN AN AN IN MINSTRELST !!

MONDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 3 of and

HOUSES CROWDED EVERYWREE

BERNARD & PERKINS FEMALE MINSTREIS Will give a series of their popular and narivalid me. This is the greatest Original and only forless FEMALE MINSTELL TROUPE in the Admission IScls. ; Reserved Seats, Sie s.

Be sure and get a Mammoth Progray me. Ottawa, 3et 25, 1870

TUSTOMS DEPARTMENT. OTTAWA, 28 October, Init.

STOVE, second hand, in good order, st

2 CASES OF MILLIANEL

Containing the VEST LAYEST Styles in Bonnets, Hats, and some very Choice L Flowers, Feathers and

Per S. S. " MORAVIAK! Case Extra Cicthe, in the new

Satin Cloths, Dress Goods. -AL80-

Mantle Cloths. The "OLIVE GREEN" appears are in receipt of ten pieces. "New Seal and plucked Otter Sain

Fancy Wove Goods still arriving. Clouds, Breakfast Shawls, Ties

in endless Variety. T. HUNTON, SHOOLBEED & CO

47 and 49 Sparks Street. Otlawa, Oct 11 1874.

WANTED IMMEDIATELY. SIX JOURNEYEEN TAILORS First-place and Steady Mon only, need apply.

Foreman Tailoring Detartment EVALES IN Ottawa, Oct 29, 1670