MONDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1870.

Mr. Speaker Coci burn has arrived

Wednesday last was "Lord Mayor's Day" in London, and will long be remem bered as one of the most gloomy days ever known in the great metropolis. London fog is proverbial, but on Wednesday the darkness was such as might be almost "felt. The gas lamps were kept burning all day and boys bearing links or torches flitted about the streets to gu de pedestrians on their uncertain path.

As the public may desire to know the Governor-General's titles we give them in

His Excellency the R ght Honorable John Baron Lisgar, of Lisgar, and Baillieborough Privy Council, Knight Grand Cross of the George, Governor-General of Canada, and Island of Prince Edward.
