POLITICAL WARFARE.

Mr. Mackensle's missionary tour being for the time completed, the Opposition members are about to dine together is high state, for the purpose of celebrating the inauguration of that line of policy, the lofty, hightoned watchword of which as the Globe informs us, is "Down with Sandfield and the Patent Combination," What rallying cry is this for the common sense electors of Ontario! No special measure of Reform asked for, no Ministerial policy condemned, but simply "down with everything and everybody that keeps us, the pure, immaculate leaders of faction out of place and power!" This is really all that this cry means. What an enthusiastic response it is likely to awaken!

The fact is, that never before, either the history of Canada or there such an utterly bare-faced, uncalled for attempt to organize an Opposition party without having anything to opposeas that which is now being made by Mr. Mackenzie and his brother factionists They have not substantiated or even at tempted to make a single direct charge against the Government so far as their political acts are concerned, neither have they declared in what manner their own policy would differ from that of the present administration upon those great subjects with which the statesmen of this country now have to deal. No; they have simply called the Ministry collectively a set of " corruptionists;" Mr. Mackenzie, the model statesman of the Opposition, has called the Premier "a grinning Grimalkin." another minister, the Globe has compared to "a resuscitated mummy," and two utterly baseless stories injurious to the reputation of the First Minister, Mr. Brown and Mr. Mackenzie apparently rather pluming themselves upon what they have done, are going to dine toge ther in company with the rest of the
