Enthusiastic juvenile skaters should take warning. On Saturday afternoon as the ice formed on the Canal Basin, was crowded by boys enjoying their favorite amusement of skiting one of the youngsters broke through, but was rescued before he went to the bottom. The ice not yet strong anywhere owing to the slight frost we have had so far, and it would be well for youngsters or parents who value their lives to remember this.

The markets on Saturday were general ly well supplied. The hay market in particu lar wasthe largest we have seen this fall. Hay sold at from $15 to $18 per ton; $20 was asked for superior quality of pressed Accipant.-The foreman in Mr. Stock- which have proved their efficacy by test of many dale's carriage factory met with a very years. Among testimonials attesting their serious accident on Friday evening. It appears that while reaching over a circular saw his shirt sleeve got caught in the teeth and his arm was drawn down. fore he could extricate it the arm was badly cut, and indeed it is a wonder it was not completely sawed off.

A friend of ours vouches for the truth boxes with a fac-simile of the proprieters, of the following :- About a week ago a country man came to a certain popular railway station with a cow, which he wished to have transported to some other part of the country. He enquired of a by-stander wh re should he put the cow, and was told in answer to tie her to the last car. Implicitly believing this information to be right he fastened horns, to the car and then got on board himself. The train started, and as its speed increased the country man became alarmed as to the ability of the cow to keep pace therewith. He cried to the conductor to slacken the rate of speed, and at the same time going out on the platform of the car, all he could see of his liquors, all of superior quality. Mr. Patterson is one of the oldest and most successful grocers in Ottawa, and so widespread has the reputation of his establishment become that it is almost superfluous for us to say anything respecting it to the public. Those who have patronized Mr. Patterson have found it to their advantage to do keeps nothing but the best quality of groceries, which he sells at moderate prices. We would particularly recommend to the public a trial of his wines and liquors. Mr. Patterson imports all his wines directly from the wine producing districts of France and Spain, and are entirely free of adulteration.

HAIR DYE AND ITS EFFECT .- A few days ago a gentleman came from Montreal to Ottawa for the purpose of seeing his sweet, heart, of whose soothing presence he had been deprived for some time. He is a comparatively young man but, his hair has become prematurely grey. He came, of course, well prepared to make a good appearance, and among other articles which he brought with him from Montreal was a bottle of what was recommended to him as first quality hair dye. On arriving he put up in a boarding house, and almost immediately proceeded to apply the dye to his hair. This done, he went to the stove to dry his hair after which he called A sidewalk has been laid on the north in a friend of his and asked him how the side of Queen street between Metcalf and dye operated; but what must have been Elgin streets. Sidewalks are certainly his astonishment on being told that his more needed in other parts of the town hair was quite green. The dye will not wash off, and now the poor fellow is unable to leave his room in consequence.
