

House to Let—Thos. McKay. Ottawa Scientific and Literary Society—G. Kennedy.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1870.

For every liberty heretofore enjoyed or claimed by the inhabitants thereof...

The Globe correspondent telegraphed on Monday last that the interference of Sir George Cartier, and Messrs. Dunkin, Langverin and Chapais in Quebec affairs...

The accuracy of the correspondent may be judged by the fact, that at that date Sir G. Cartier, and Messrs. Dunkin and Chapais were all in Ottawa, and Mr. Dunkin had not been absent from Ottawa for weeks.

To show how unfounded is the charge contained in the President's Message, of illiberality on the part of Canada with regard to the navigation of the St. Lawrence and the Canadian system of canals...

What renders President Grant's remarks about the free navigation of the St. Lawrence canals more reprehensibly cool is the recollection of the treatment we received from the Americans last summer...

PRESIDENT GRANT'S MESSAGE.

The well known fable of the wolf and lamb is never better illustrated with more truth than by General Grant in his recent message to Congress.

There is fortunately no difference of opinion in Canada on the subject of President Grant's Message.

It is alleged by the President that his Government cannot acquiesce in the construction which has always been placed on the words to which we have especially directed attention.

It is practicable or advisable to enlarge the St. Lawrence Canal, and deepen the Upper St. Lawrence River to the extent necessary to enable ocean vessels, drawing 16 feet or more, to navigate the same.

It is equally incorrect and utterly unfounded was the story promulgated by the same correspondent to the effect that the Commissioners had some idea of closing the Rideau canal.

DEATH OF COLONEL PRINCE.

It was with much regret that we announced a day or two since, the death of a well known and much respected fellow subject, Colonel the Honourable John Prince, who died at St. John's, Nfld., on the 20th inst., aged 74 years.

THE CANAL COMMISSION. We do not suppose that any one reads the Globe's Ottawa correspondence with any other object than in the hope of deriving some amusement therefrom.

General Mantouff made a brilliant forced march, and after encountering a French force in the neighborhood of the city has entered Rouen, and now holds that city.

The third corps took nine cannon and one hundred and thirty men, on the 4th inst., beat the French in several conflicts northeast of Rouen.

AMERICAN NEWS.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—The Tribune's Washington correspondent telegraphs that the belief that Gen. Schenck has been offered the English mission was quite unfounded.

The Eastern Question.

It has been often said that France is the only country on the Continent from which we have anything to fear.

Sons of Temperance.

At nine o'clock the Grand Division met. All Officers and representatives were present. Routine business being finished the Grand Scribe presented his report, which was adopted without any discussion worth mentioning.

Latest by Telegraph.

THE WAR. LONDON, Dec. 8.—The battle fought in front of Orleans was a very bloody one. The French fought bravely, and at length only gave way before overpowering numbers.

When Russia and her Eastern designs are in question, attention is above all directed towards London. Constantinople is like Antwerp, one of those points which is generally thought to be of European affairs.

The Late Accident.

From the Montreal Herald. Sir,—My attention has been called to the report in the evening editions of the Montreal papers of an accident which occurred on the Grand Trunk Railway, near Brighton Station, late on Friday.

THE FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE OF THE GREAT WAR. The following is an extract from a letter written by the Rev. C. Z. Weiser, to the "German Reformed Messenger, at Chambersburg, Penn.:

Just open the door for her, and Mrs. Winklow will prove the American Florence Nightingale of the North. Of this we are sure, that we will reach our "Savior" to say, "A Blessing on Mrs. Winklow, for helping her to survive and prosper."
