CHURCH OF ENGLAND READINGS.

The Church of England Readings came off last evening in Gowan's Hall, and as was anticipated, were a success in every way. The hall was filled to its utmost capacity with ladies and gentlemen.

Mr. Wicksteed performed the duties of chairman in his usual pleasing manner.

The entertainment was commenced by Miss Weber, who sang very sweetly. We heard Miss Weber sing on this occasion for the first time, and her sweet, clear and mellow voice afforded us great pleasure. Rev. Mr. Pollard read in his usually interesting style.

Leaf" very well, and in response to a loud encore sang a very humorous song, which encored, and give another comic song, retiring amid applause.

Master Lauder sang "I will stand by my friend," and considering youth he acquit-Mr. Neil McLean, sang "I stood on the bridge at midnight," and responded to an ercore. Mr. McLean is too well known and his vocal talent too generally recognized to require any praise.

Mr. Adams afforded the audience much amusement by reading Josh Billings' in structions " how to buy a good family Miss Weber, aguin delighted the audience by singing " My heart is over the

The audience then joined in singing the national anthum and the entertainment terminated.
