Term versus Farnes Danos, - We have received a co y of a little pumphlet bear Caristianity from the days of Christ up to t e present time, and contains some strong guments. He exposes the col ussal structure of rituil and ceremony that was raised on the simple ministry of Christ, and believes that Prot stanism even yet savours too much of the Church of Rome. He goes in for another reformation, which should bring religion entirely within human reason.

CANADIAN PORTRAIT GALLERY .- We have ceived a copy of a well executed steal agraving of Sir John A. Macdonald, K. U. B., from the Canadian Printing and ublishing Company, Sparks street, Otta Wi. The engraving is from a portrait by Notman, and though we do not consider the picture itself as sufficiently faithful to the illustrious original, yet the engraving BAGS! BAGS!! and printing are admirably executed. his company is printing a Portrait Gallery of celebrated Canadians, and judging from the specimen before us we conclude the work will be well done.

We believe the members of the Council have already realized the fact that this the corner of Little Sussex and Rideau forced alliance will not work and that it is peratively necessary to restore to the Board of Works its proper independence. Both committees are by right on an equal footing, and certainly one will not calmly suffer itself to be di t ted to by the other, We are willing to give every scheme a trial before condemning it, for very often a simple improvement or innovation produces good and important results; out the sliance in question is of such nature that were the committees compo e i of the a lest men in the world, we could scarcely express a hope for its hare monious working.
