ALLAN, M'KINNONS & M'MORRAN,

By WARD .- Mr. George Mortimer takes the field as Candidate for the Water Works Commissionership of By Ward. In Caribian Isstitute.-The soiree at the C nadian Institute last night was very entertaining. Mr. Genand, formerly editor of L' Ordre, read a highly interesting paper on his trecollections of a voyage to the Gulf and Maritime Provinces," which was The musical portion of the programme was list of prices :-ably executed.

BARR STREET CH. RCH ANNUAL SOIRER, -We would remind our raders of this annual social gathering which tak s place this evening. As the proceeds are to be applied to the reduction of the church lebt about to be increased by the erection of galleries we wish our friends their winted success. The chair will to taken by the Hon. Joseph Howe at eight o'clock.

COUNTY OF OTTAWA .- Mr. Bourgeau was vasterday elected Warden of the County of Ottawa. The Council of Mayors met at Avimer the choice of the majority falling upon Mr. Bourgeau. After the election some members of the Council rendered the proceedings very boisterous, and the Ward -n being unable to restore order adjourned the council to meet this morning at Hull. "It is an evil wind that does not blow somebody good," and in this case Hull has profitted by the disorderly conduct of some of the Mayors,

CHRIST CHURCH LAZAAR. -This B zair was continued yesterday, and we are happy to know very successfully. A large number of gentlemen purchased tickets for lunch, ail of whom highly praised the magnificant dishes which were put before em, and which they appreciated with epicurean judgment. The ladies, as usual were kind and attentive, and manifested a friendly affection for young gentlemen disposed to invest liberally in the purchase of tickets. Many articles were pur chased, and in the evening several thingwere raffled. Gowan's splendid band played d ring the evening, under the direction of the talented musician, Mr. Marley. The Bazur will be open again to-day, and we hope to see a larger attendance than hitherto.
