It is not necessury dideau river being also directly in that we should enter into a lengthy at count of the evening's performance. I will be sufficient to say that Mrs. Wes ton's singing was admirable, and that the instrumental music was worthy of the Mendelsshon Quintette Club. Higher praise than this we can scarcely give.

OTTAWA TURF CLUB RA : E3. SATURDAY.

Saturday morning broke very inauspiciously. The sky was canopied over with heavy clouds, and though the rais fell hesitatingly for a time, it poured down in drowning showers about noon The prospects for the races were indeevery bad. "Are the races going to comoff?" was a question Mr. Barber had t snawer at every moment-always in the affirmative. Some were pleased to learn that they were not to be postponed, while others again were anxious to have them put off till to-day. The Club at one time seriously contemplated a postponement but about two o'clock the clouds appear in ; to clear off, it was definitely announce d that the races would take place, Every vehicle in the neighborhood of the Russel House was immediately in requisition.
