meeting. For many years the idea of organizing a Canadian Society was entertained. The object of the Society was to encourage Canadian Act, manufactures and literature. He thought it was a very good move; it would tend to blend all the different nationalities and bring them together under one banner, breathing the same patriotic views. He hoped it would meet with the success it deserved.

In answer to Mr. Brock the Secretary gave some additional explanations. The election of officers then took place. It was moved by Mr. Ryan, seconded by Capt.
