

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

State that R. H. Atkin's... North-West Territories... Government House - W. H. Lee.

The Ottawa Times.

MONDAY, JUNE 1, 1912.

LATEST NEWS ITEMS.

The Geneva Arbitration is to be proceeded with. The International Boat race between the Atlantic and London crew takes place this afternoon.

Mrs. F. H. Macdonald has been nominated for the representation of Ottawa. His election is certain.

Friends, the Historian is about to pay a visit to America.

The switchmen on nearly all the railroads connected with Chicago, having been denied an advance of $60 and $65 per month to $55 and $70, have struck work.

A Bostonian student, named Wise, advertises that he will undertake a balloon expedition from the Common to Great Britain on the Fourth of July.

The International Typographical Union, now in session at Richmond, Va., have elected Montreal as the place of holding the next meeting.

The Queen has been pleased to create Mr. J. Pope Hennessy, acting Governor-in-Chief of the West African settlement, a Companion of the Order of St. Michael and St. George.

Spain is in an unsteady condition. Sebrano and his friends are conspiring to restore the oldest son of the ex-Queen Isabella to the throne.

Castelar (Madrid correspondent of the New Tribune) is reported at the head of a plot to seize all the coin in the National Bank - has usually good morals being corrupted by "evil communications."

And the poor boy King Amadeus is consulting his father, Victor Emmanuel, as to the expediency of summoning Protestant Prussia to his aid.

Who would be king at such a cost of care?

MR. MACKENZIE AND THE INTER-COLONIAL RAILWAY ROUTE.

Last Saturday week at the meeting held near Almonte, Mr. Mackenzie having commenced the route selected for the Inter-colonial Railway, Mr. Mackenzie said that the honorable gentleman had formerly expressed himself in favour of it.

As regards the Intercolonial Railway, I have taken some interest in that, and I know I would be compelled to discuss it on approaching this subject, and in examining the maps and reports of Major Johnston, I find that there is a slight variation in the route as compared with the one proposed.

THE CANADIAN FOOT GUARDS.

Some talk of Alexander, as a name of honor, of the Order of the British Empire, and such great names as these. But of all the world's great heroes, there is none that is more worthy of a title, with a low row row row. To the British Grenadier's.

SECRETARIAN STRIFE.

The fact that number of extracts from old copies of the Globe have lately been re-published, in which the Roman Catholics of Ontario are shamefully maligned by that organ of the Opposition, excited the ire of the Grits to a frightful extent.

WHAT WE FIGHT FOR.

In the course of a recent debate in the Imperial House of Commons, an honorable member in the course of his remarks alluded to what he thought may fairly be regarded as a great political truth.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

SENATE. Saturday 31st June, 1912. The Speaker took the chair at 10 o'clock.

BILLS OF EXCHANGE, &c.

Hon. Mr. DICKSON moved the second reading of the Act to amend the law relating to Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes.

PRIVATE BILLS.

Hon. Mr. DICKSON reported favorably for the Committee on Standing Orders and Private Bills, on the incorporating Act of the Ontario Shipbuilding and Docking Company.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Saturday, June 1, 1912. The Speaker took the chair at 1.30 p.m.

CULLING.

Hon. Mr. MORRIS presented a return of the tariff of fees charged for culling of sheep.

doing their best to arouse. We are quite sure that he is firmly convinced as ever of the necessity of doing so. But we certainly cannot see why letting the Roman Catholic of Ontario know what a hypocrite Mr. George Brown is, and what a hypocrite Mr. McKenney is, can be called 'invoking the demon of religious discord.'

There is not a Protestant in Ontario who would pretend to justify the course just and abusive language which Mr. Brown applied to the Roman Catholics of this Province. This fact the latter understand, and however much their indignation may be aroused against Mr. Brown personally, they know that he does not represent any religious sect, so the Times need not be alarmed about the 'renewal of sectarian strife.'

There is no ground for believing that there is no foundation for the above mentioned rumour. The services of Mr. Currier will again be available for his fellow-Catholics. -Ed.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

SENATE. Saturday 31st June, 1912. The Speaker took the chair at 10 o'clock.

BILLS OF EXCHANGE, &c.

Hon. Mr. DICKSON moved the second reading of the Act to amend the law relating to Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes.

PRIVATE BILLS.

Hon. Mr. DICKSON reported favorably for the Committee on Standing Orders and Private Bills, on the incorporating Act of the Ontario Shipbuilding and Docking Company.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Saturday, June 1, 1912. The Speaker took the chair at 1.30 p.m.

CULLING.

Hon. Mr. MORRIS presented a return of the tariff of fees charged for culling of sheep.

parts of Ontario entitled to it on account of increased population. Mr. CAMERON (Huron) complained of the change in the number of representatives. This change did not rectify the discrepancy in the population of the two counties affected, Huron and Monck, as the former still had 1,900 more than the latter. A larger township than that of Dunn should have been transferred.

Other discrepancies existed, but were not to be discussed. The Bill was passed and the Government will be pleased to see the adjustment of the representation of the Province. He held that greater regularity in the representation of the Province had been secured by the Bill.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

SENATE. Saturday 31st June, 1912. The Speaker took the chair at 10 o'clock.

BILLS OF EXCHANGE, &c.

Hon. Mr. DICKSON moved the second reading of the Act to amend the law relating to Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes.

PRIVATE BILLS.

Hon. Mr. DICKSON reported favorably for the Committee on Standing Orders and Private Bills, on the incorporating Act of the Ontario Shipbuilding and Docking Company.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Saturday, June 1, 1912. The Speaker took the chair at 1.30 p.m.

CULLING.

Hon. Mr. MORRIS presented a return of the tariff of fees charged for culling of sheep.

Hon. Mr. CHAUVEAU upon motion, on the ground that he himself did not desire it. Hon. Mr. MACKENZIE moved that the Bill be referred back with instructions to divide each of the cities of Hamilton and Toronto into two districts, each to return one member. Declared lost on the same division.

CANADA AND THE TREATY OF WASHINGTON.

From the London Times, May 23rd. The account we yesterday printed from our Correspondent at Ottawa, of the acceptance of the Treaty of Washington in the Dominion of Canada, has been widely discussed.

THE TRIUMPH OF PEACE.

War's storm clouds lowers o'er the calm of the world. Two hemispheres flash back its grim lurid light.

THE PREMIER.

From the Montreal Daily News. A truthful and masterly sketch of Sir J. A. Macdonald, the Premier of the Dominion, appeared in the Toronto Mail of the 23rd inst., to which we invite attention.

LOCAL NEWS.

The Great Dry Goods Clearing Sale of C. King & Co., Wellington Street, continues all this week.

Costumes and Dresses made to order, in the latest styles, under the supervision of a first class dress maker of fifteen years' experience.

Money to Lend - Apply to R. A. Bradley, Solicitor, corner of Sparks and Elgin Streets, Ottawa.

Washing Japanese Suits at 40c per yard. ALLAN, MCKINNON'S & McMOHRAN, 20 Sparks Street.

The principal Hotels and Saloons in the City, now notified with the Great Dry Goods Clearing Sale of C. King & Co.

Persons afflicted with Rheumatism, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Disease of the Skin, Kidneys or Bladder, should send for a copy of the Calceola Water.

Corner Sparks and Elgin.

There is no better Spring and Summer wear than the Calceola Water. It is liberally used, no Doctor need apply.

The Queen's Plate at the Montreal races was won by "Rainbow."

City Council - A special meeting of the City Council will be held to-night. Matters of importance will be before the Board.

Police Court - Saturday. - An old man named Cleary was sentenced to two weeks imprisonment for vagrancy.

ARRIVALS AT THE OTTAWA HOTEL. - Mr. Macdonald, Three Rivers; D. A. Macdonald, Cornwall; Mr. Macdonald, Toronto; Alex. Somerville, Montreal; F. McCormack, M. D. Essex, Ont.; D. Bowen, Montreal; A. Ritchie, do; A. Bowler, do; C. Hooper, do; J. Johnson, Mississauga; N. B. C. Daly, Oshington; the Bremner, Toronto; F. Buzer, Montreal; J. F. Kinler, do.

THE S. S. "SCOTLAND." (From the Montreal Herald.) This steamer, one of the latest additions to the London Steamship Line, is now on her first trip in the Canadian trade.

MOSE LABORATORY FOR FARMERS. - Some experimental genius gives the following recipe to cure a kitchen cod: Fasten a cord to the end of his tail, pass it between his legs and fasten to the lower part of the collar, draw tight, and your cod will not lift a foot to kick. But where's the man with the moral courage to fasten a cord to a kicking cod's tail? Here the cure is worse than the disease.

FOOTBALL EXTRAORDINARY. - After the battle of Waterloo almost every school in the United Kingdom had "Wellington" painted on its signboard. The hero's popularity, however, was nothing compared with that of Miss Dolly Varden of today.

NEW PALACE CAR - ST. L. & O. R. I. On Saturday we had the pleasure of examining a new Palace Car at the Lower Ottawa Falls. It is a masterpiece of engineering, approaching it the entire apparatus of the car impresses the observer with an idea of splendour, but on entering one is struck by the simplicity of the interior presents a spectacle of luxurious extravagance. It is simply another illustration of the indomitable enterprise of the Company, of the seal of the managing Director, Mr. Reynolds, and his constant regard for the comfort and accommodation of the travelling public.

THE TRIUMPH OF PEACE. War's storm clouds lowers o'er the calm of the world. Two hemispheres flash back its grim lurid light. What woe will befall its rage, if with banners unfurled. The heroes of Christendom press to the fight? What then? but a might higher, far than that granted. To kings, or the haughtiest powers of the earth. Can illumine the gloom of world nations now haunted. By shapes of their slaughtered in fratricide strife.

TOO LATE TO LAMENT WITH ANGUISH DEPARTING. Too late to lament the fruits of rebellion and pride. 'Tis now that true wisdom, with labour unspending. Must avert the dread billows of war's bloody tide.

INSPIRED BY THE CREED FOR LONG CENTURIES. The creed that has made her the great and the free; The creed save for which many long since have departed. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed sung by Angels in Heavenly story. Of peace brought on earth and of good will to man. 'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

He asked the people of Canada to support the Treaty with all its imperfections for the sake of peace and of the Empire which Canada forms a part of. He said that the Treaty was a masterpiece of diplomacy and that it was the only way to secure peace and stability in the world.

He said that the Treaty was a masterpiece of diplomacy and that it was the only way to secure peace and stability in the world. He said that the Treaty was a masterpiece of diplomacy and that it was the only way to secure peace and stability in the world.

THE TRIUMPH OF PEACE.

War's storm clouds lowers o'er the calm of the world. Two hemispheres flash back its grim lurid light.

THE PREMIER.

From the Montreal Daily News. A truthful and masterly sketch of Sir J. A. Macdonald, the Premier of the Dominion, appeared in the Toronto Mail of the 23rd inst., to which we invite attention.

LOCAL NEWS.

The Great Dry Goods Clearing Sale of C. King & Co., Wellington Street, continues all this week.

Costumes and Dresses made to order, in the latest styles, under the supervision of a first class dress maker of fifteen years' experience.

Money to Lend - Apply to R. A. Bradley, Solicitor, corner of Sparks and Elgin Streets, Ottawa.

Washing Japanese Suits at 40c per yard. ALLAN, MCKINNON'S & McMOHRAN, 20 Sparks Street.

The principal Hotels and Saloons in the City, now notified with the Great Dry Goods Clearing Sale of C. King & Co.

Persons afflicted with Rheumatism, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Disease of the Skin, Kidneys or Bladder, should send for a copy of the Calceola Water.

Corner Sparks and Elgin.

There is no better Spring and Summer wear than the Calceola Water. It is liberally used, no Doctor need apply.

The Queen's Plate at the Montreal races was won by "Rainbow."

City Council - A special meeting of the City Council will be held to-night. Matters of importance will be before the Board.

Police Court - Saturday. - An old man named Cleary was sentenced to two weeks imprisonment for vagrancy.

ARRIVALS AT THE OTTAWA HOTEL. - Mr. Macdonald, Three Rivers; D. A. Macdonald, Cornwall; Mr. Macdonald, Toronto; Alex. Somerville, Montreal; F. McCormack, M. D. Essex, Ont.; D. Bowen, Montreal; A. Ritchie, do; A. Bowler, do; C. Hooper, do; J. Johnson, Mississauga; N. B. C. Daly, Oshington; the Bremner, Toronto; F. Buzer, Montreal; J. F. Kinler, do.

THE S. S. "SCOTLAND." (From the Montreal Herald.) This steamer, one of the latest additions to the London Steamship Line, is now on her first trip in the Canadian trade.

MOSE LABORATORY FOR FARMERS. - Some experimental genius gives the following recipe to cure a kitchen cod: Fasten a cord to the end of his tail, pass it between his legs and fasten to the lower part of the collar, draw tight, and your cod will not lift a foot to kick. But where's the man with the moral courage to fasten a cord to a kicking cod's tail? Here the cure is worse than the disease.

FOOTBALL EXTRAORDINARY. - After the battle of Waterloo almost every school in the United Kingdom had "Wellington" painted on its signboard. The hero's popularity, however, was nothing compared with that of Miss Dolly Varden of today.

NEW PALACE CAR - ST. L. & O. R. I. On Saturday we had the pleasure of examining a new Palace Car at the Lower Ottawa Falls. It is a masterpiece of engineering, approaching it the entire apparatus of the car impresses the observer with an idea of splendour, but on entering one is struck by the simplicity of the interior presents a spectacle of luxurious extravagance. It is simply another illustration of the indomitable enterprise of the Company, of the seal of the managing Director, Mr. Reynolds, and his constant regard for the comfort and accommodation of the travelling public.

THE TRIUMPH OF PEACE. War's storm clouds lowers o'er the calm of the world. Two hemispheres flash back its grim lurid light. What woe will befall its rage, if with banners unfurled. The heroes of Christendom press to the fight? What then? but a might higher, far than that granted. To kings, or the haughtiest powers of the earth. Can illumine the gloom of world nations now haunted. By shapes of their slaughtered in fratricide strife.

TOO LATE TO LAMENT WITH ANGUISH DEPARTING. Too late to lament the fruits of rebellion and pride. 'Tis now that true wisdom, with labour unspending. Must avert the dread billows of war's bloody tide.

INSPIRED BY THE CREED FOR LONG CENTURIES. The creed that has made her the great and the free; The creed save for which many long since have departed. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed sung by Angels in Heavenly story. Of peace brought on earth and of good will to man. 'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

He said that the Treaty was a masterpiece of diplomacy and that it was the only way to secure peace and stability in the world. He said that the Treaty was a masterpiece of diplomacy and that it was the only way to secure peace and stability in the world.

He said that the Treaty was a masterpiece of diplomacy and that it was the only way to secure peace and stability in the world. He said that the Treaty was a masterpiece of diplomacy and that it was the only way to secure peace and stability in the world.

THE TRIUMPH OF PEACE.

War's storm clouds lowers o'er the calm of the world. Two hemispheres flash back its grim lurid light.

THE PREMIER.

From the Montreal Daily News. A truthful and masterly sketch of Sir J. A. Macdonald, the Premier of the Dominion, appeared in the Toronto Mail of the 23rd inst., to which we invite attention.

LOCAL NEWS.

The Great Dry Goods Clearing Sale of C. King & Co., Wellington Street, continues all this week.

Costumes and Dresses made to order, in the latest styles, under the supervision of a first class dress maker of fifteen years' experience.

Money to Lend - Apply to R. A. Bradley, Solicitor, corner of Sparks and Elgin Streets, Ottawa.

Washing Japanese Suits at 40c per yard. ALLAN, MCKINNON'S & McMOHRAN, 20 Sparks Street.

The principal Hotels and Saloons in the City, now notified with the Great Dry Goods Clearing Sale of C. King & Co.

Persons afflicted with Rheumatism, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Disease of the Skin, Kidneys or Bladder, should send for a copy of the Calceola Water.

Corner Sparks and Elgin.

There is no better Spring and Summer wear than the Calceola Water. It is liberally used, no Doctor need apply.

The Queen's Plate at the Montreal races was won by "Rainbow."

City Council - A special meeting of the City Council will be held to-night. Matters of importance will be before the Board.

Police Court - Saturday. - An old man named Cleary was sentenced to two weeks imprisonment for vagrancy.

ARRIVALS AT THE OTTAWA HOTEL. - Mr. Macdonald, Three Rivers; D. A. Macdonald, Cornwall; Mr. Macdonald, Toronto; Alex. Somerville, Montreal; F. McCormack, M. D. Essex, Ont.; D. Bowen, Montreal; A. Ritchie, do; A. Bowler, do; C. Hooper, do; J. Johnson, Mississauga; N. B. C. Daly, Oshington; the Bremner, Toronto; F. Buzer, Montreal; J. F. Kinler, do.

THE S. S. "SCOTLAND." (From the Montreal Herald.) This steamer, one of the latest additions to the London Steamship Line, is now on her first trip in the Canadian trade.

MOSE LABORATORY FOR FARMERS. - Some experimental genius gives the following recipe to cure a kitchen cod: Fasten a cord to the end of his tail, pass it between his legs and fasten to the lower part of the collar, draw tight, and your cod will not lift a foot to kick. But where's the man with the moral courage to fasten a cord to a kicking cod's tail? Here the cure is worse than the disease.

FOOTBALL EXTRAORDINARY. - After the battle of Waterloo almost every school in the United Kingdom had "Wellington" painted on its signboard. The hero's popularity, however, was nothing compared with that of Miss Dolly Varden of today.

NEW PALACE CAR - ST. L. & O. R. I. On Saturday we had the pleasure of examining a new Palace Car at the Lower Ottawa Falls. It is a masterpiece of engineering, approaching it the entire apparatus of the car impresses the observer with an idea of splendour, but on entering one is struck by the simplicity of the interior presents a spectacle of luxurious extravagance. It is simply another illustration of the indomitable enterprise of the Company, of the seal of the managing Director, Mr. Reynolds, and his constant regard for the comfort and accommodation of the travelling public.

THE TRIUMPH OF PEACE. War's storm clouds lowers o'er the calm of the world. Two hemispheres flash back its grim lurid light. What woe will befall its rage, if with banners unfurled. The heroes of Christendom press to the fight? What then? but a might higher, far than that granted. To kings, or the haughtiest powers of the earth. Can illumine the gloom of world nations now haunted. By shapes of their slaughtered in fratricide strife.

TOO LATE TO LAMENT WITH ANGUISH DEPARTING. Too late to lament the fruits of rebellion and pride. 'Tis now that true wisdom, with labour unspending. Must avert the dread billows of war's bloody tide.

INSPIRED BY THE CREED FOR LONG CENTURIES. The creed that has made her the great and the free; The creed save for which many long since have departed. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed sung by Angels in Heavenly story. Of peace brought on earth and of good will to man. 'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

'Tis the creed which has made her the great and the free. Old England her nobles send forth o'er the sea.

He said that the Treaty was a masterpiece of diplomacy and that it was the only way to secure peace and stability in the world. He said that the Treaty was a masterpiece of diplomacy and that it was the only way to secure peace and stability in the world.

He said that the Treaty was a masterpiece of diplomacy and that it was the only way to secure peace and stability in the world. He said that the Treaty was a masterpiece of diplomacy and that it was the only way to secure peace and stability