The principal Hotels and Saloons in the city, are now supplied with California Spring Water. J. G. Goss & Co., Sole Agents for Ottawa.

There is no better Spring and Summer medicine than the California Water. No family should be without it, for where it is liberally used, no Doctor need apply.

We are requested to state that the members of the late Civil Service Rifle Corps will fire the Annual Match for the River Cup at 9 a.m., on Monday 1st July, on the Rideau Hill Range.

TEMPERATURE.—The heat yesterday was oppressive. The perspiration flowed freely, and the dust powdered one's face. The thermometer rose to 93° in the shade.

His Excellency and party narrowly escaped, to say the least, from a sore right yesterday; the Elgin street arch having been hurled to the ground by the hurricane about a minute after they had passed under it on the way to the Parliament Buildings.

UNITED PROTESTANT BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.—The members of the above Society will have in mind, that Monday next being Dominion Day, the general meeting will not be held until the following Monday, July 23rd, when it is hoped there will be a full attendance.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—We regret very much to learn that a little boy the son of Mr. Burdon, lumber merchant, was run over by the Aylmer road and killed, by a heavily laden wagon belonging to the Union Forwarding Company. The unfortunate accident happened on Thursday morning.

RAIN.—About four o'clock yesterday afternoon heavy clouds rolled up from the Eastern horizon accompanied by lightning flashes and loud peal of thunder. For a time it seemed as if the clouds would blow over the city, and leave us to weary, but we were treated, however, to a heavy and refreshing shower.

Cox crew.—In our report of the polo meeting held in the Institute on Wednesday night, we were in error in stating that Dr. Beaubien had assured Mr. Carleton that he would not come out to play. Dr. Beaubien, when questioned by Mr. Martineau did not say whether he would or would not, a pose him.

FESTIVAL.—We have much pleasure in holding among the arrivals at the Russell House, the Rev. John Wood, a lady, of Ripley, Derbyshire, England, formerly as assistant minister of Christ Church here. His money from it will be pleased to know that he is again in Ottawa, although but for a short time.

ST. MARY'S ACADEMY.—The closing exercises took place last evening at the above institution before a numerous attendance of the parents and friends of the pupils. The programme of the evening comprised instrumental and vocal music, which was very satisfactory indeed, and very creditable to the pupils who were in good teachers. An address was delivered at the conclusion by Mr. Simpson.

AN ALDERMAN AT WORK.—Every person passing that way yesterday would have noticed the unsightly scaffolding which marked the appearance of the arch on Elgin Street. Of course it should not have been left up, but it seemed to be about one o'clock in the afternoon, however, a gentleman with an eye in hand was seen vigorously at work demolishing it. Our worthy Alderman, Mr. Bings, did the work with his own hands.

OTTAWA HIGH SCHOOL.

The examination of the pupils of the Ottawa High School took place yesterday, affording the parents of the pupils and others who take an interest in educational matters an opportunity of testing the proficiency of the boys in the various departments of study. The examination was not a superficial one but dipped deep into the more difficult and puzzling passages of the various branches, so that the memory and practical understanding of the pupils were tested without leniency.

They were however equal to almost any question, displaying in many instances a quickness and readiness of reply that would demonstrate their intelligence and acquirement in the subjects tested. The examination was not a superficial one but dipped deep into the more difficult and puzzling passages of the various branches, so that the memory and practical understanding of the pupils were tested without leniency.

In the evening the distribution of prizes to the pupils took place in the Music Hall. We were glad to see a numerous audience of ladies and gentlemen present who evinced a lively and laudable interest in the proceedings. On the platform were ex-Alderman Featherston, who occupied the chair, Rev. Messrs. McKinnon, Woodhouse, Ebb, Phillips, Landon, and others.

The following is the PRIZE LIST FOR THE OTTAWA HIGH SCHOOL FOR YEAR ENDING JUNE 22nd, 1872.
