POLITICAL MEETING.

A [illegible] and influential [illegible] will be held last night at O'Meara's Restaurant, for the purpose of exchanging views as to the prospects of the coming election, and for the purpose of taking more energetic action towards securing Mr. O'Connor's return.

Ald. Heney occupied the chair, and Mr. O'Rielly requested to act as Secretary.

Mr. O'Connor being called upon explained that he had not pushed himself forward; that he was the Government candidate, and that if the meeting thought proper to nominate a more popular candidate he would not only retire but give all the assistance he could.

Several gentlemen followed expressing themselves decidedly in favor of Mr. O'Connor and encouragingly of his prospect of election.

It was finally moved by Mr. R. Nagle, seconded by Mr. Duff, in effect, that the meeting having full confidence in Mr. O'Connor, consider him a fit and proper person to represent the city in the House of Commons.

The motion met with unanimous approval.

A requisition was then started and signed by all present, after which it was agreed to call a public meeting for Tuesday evening. The place of meeting will be duly announced.

DOMINION NOTES.

Mr. O'Connor's appointment is most favourably received.

Hon Hamnanus Smith, of Ancaster (Ont.) is dead. Aged 82 years.

Burglars operating in and around Wood stock.

Gananoque has some burglariously inclined inhabitants.

The English cricketers sail from Liverpool on Thurday, 8th August, and will play at Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto, London and Hamilton in the order named.

The London Free Press says:—Van Amburgh & Co.'s Great Golden Menagerie, since its entrance into the Dominion, has been more like the pageant of some returning conqueror than the progress of a private enterprise.

The Emperor of Germany is the most abstemious of European monarchs. He takes every day but two small meals. After rising he takes a cup of coffee; at noon some roast beef and potatoes, with a glass of Bordeaux wine; and at seven in the evening a supper, consisting of bread, sausage, and a cup of tea. Persons invited to the Imperial table express their surprise at its extreme simplicity.
