THE MAJORITARS.

Below we give a list of eighty-six members elected in Untario, the amount of whose majorities is already made known. From it we find that thirty nine may with safety be counted as Ministerialists, one at least as an Independent with Min- (affairs of so much more broad and compreisterial sympathies, while forty-six may be given to the Opposition, although many of these will be little inclined, when the time of trial arrives, to join in a blind factious opposition, to the present governmedt.
