DROWNED.—Mr. Wilfred Carreau, captain of the barge Star, was drowned near L'Original on Tuesday.

WEATHER.—The season of changeable weather is now at hand. The heat yesterday was uncomfortable. The thermometer registered 78 in the shade at noon.

THE MARKETS.—The attendance on the market yesterday was large. There was no, however, a great variety of produce, vegetables being the principal articles on sale. Price list on first page.

FOR THE SHANTIES.—Gangs of men are being sent off morning after morning for the woods up the Ottawa. It is, however, a difficult matter to engage men at present, the demand for labor being so great that they can exact exorbitant wages.

THE fine collection of oil paintings that has been on exhibition at Mr. Bowes will be sold to-day at 11 o'clock. We would recommend all lovers of the fine arts to attend the sale as they are positively to be sold without reserve.

WATER WORKS.—At a meeting of the Water Works Commissioners, held on Tuesday afternoon, arrangements were made for the purchase of several lots on the Gully route. The value of lots belonging to Mr. L. Perkins will have to be decided by arbitration, as the Commissioners consider the sum asked by the latter exorbitant.

TEMPERANCE NEWS.—The temperance rooms of this city have secured the large and commodious room over Bourget's wine as a temperance hall. It is being furnished and decorated in a tasteful and costly style, and will, we have no doubt, be one of the best lecture halls in the city. We are glad that the temperance societies in Ottawa are prosperous.

A match game of Base Ball was played yesterday between the Mutual Base Ball Club and the T. W. Currier Club, both of this city, on the Parliament Square. A great number of people witnessed the game. The score at the close of the game stood as follows:—Mutual, 44; Currier, 32, majority for the Mutual 12 runs. Mr. Lowine acted as umpire to the satisfaction of all parties. Mr. Palmer scored for the Carriers.

BOB AND THE BRENNANS.—Again the Music Hall was crowded last night with a very respectable audience to enjoy the entertainment of the Brennans. Dublin Jim was just as funny as on the previous night, and Mr. and Mrs. Brennan and Miss Riley as interesting. Both entertainments will show a handsome financial result. The contribution of the Brennans to the building fund of the Orphan's Asylum will be a large one and in future years, when the Institution is completed and tenanted with the many little ones whose home it will become, Mr. and Mrs. Brennan may have the pleasure of visiting it and enjoying the great satisfaction of knowing that they contributed towards its erection.

POLICE COURT.—Wednesday.—Daniel McIntyre, charged with being drunk was discharged as it was his first offence.

John Wyatt, charged with being drunk and disorderly on the public streets, was fined $2 and costs.

Michael Hennessy was fined $5 and costs for being drunk and disorderly on the public streets.

Michael Paradie indulged a little too much with the bottle but was let go on promise of amendment.

Wm. Maloney, charged with being getting drunk and abusing his wife was remanded until to-morrow on promise of signing the pledge.

John Slade, charged with desertion, was again remanded.

Robert Searson for assaulting the police Constable Hamilton was fined $20 and costs.

RELIGIOUS CEREMONY.

The benediction of the Church of Notre Dame de Lourdes, about three miles from the city, in the Township of Gloucester, will take place next Sunday. His Lordship the Bishop of Ottawa will perform the ceremony, which will be very interesting. His Lordship followed by deputations from the various French-Canadian Societies, the Queen and Rideau Fire Companies and attendance of the general public will leave the Canadian Institute at half past eight on Sunday morning and proceed to the church. Two bands and a choir will assist on the occasion and a sermon will be delivered. Partaking of luncheon at about 1 o'clock p.m. the whole party will leave for Ottawa at 4 o'clock.

PROTESTANT HOSPITAL.

At a meeting of the Medical Staff and Directors of the Protestant Hospital held in the Mechanics' Institute on Tuesday afternoon Mr. Surtees plan for the new Hospital was unanimously adopted. The gentlemen present were the President, Judge Armstrong; Drs. Grant, Sweetland, VanCortlandt, McGillivray, Messrs. Hay Durie, Mann, Mills, Pennock, May, Patterson, Featherston and Graham.

Several alterations and improvements to the plan were suggested and agreed to.

Dr. VanCortlandt considered it a good useful building, but hoped the external appearance would be altered; it looked too much like a prison. The Doctor also hoped that a library and museum would be introduced into the plan. He intended to will all his medical books and also his museum to the hospital, and was therefore anxious to have a suitable room provided for them.

Mr. Featherston, in making some remarks, referred to the probable cost, and said it would not exceed $24,000.

Mr. May stated that the required funds could be raised in a short time, and spoke in strong terms of the generosity of the Chaudiere mill owners and others connected with the great trade of the Ottawa, who had almost to a man subscribed $500, and promised to give liberally to maintain the much needed institution.

A motion was passed, requesting the Medical Staff to act in concert and advise the Building Committee.

A Paris shopkeeper has hit upon a novel plan to attract customers. He added to his establishment a refreshment room, billiard tables and the daily journals. If a lady is fatigued with shopping, and the labor of turning over fifty packages to gain some knowledge of the fashions, quieting her conscience at last by the purchase of two yards of ribbon? There is the buffet free, with cake, wine, ices, and the most substantial sandwich. Are the fair shoppers accompanied by their lovers, their husbands, or their brothers? There are the daily papers, and, in cases of protracted agony, the billiard tables, to amuse them, and the shop boy calls them when their escort is again needed.

Four cases Cornices, Poles, Cornice Ends and Stair Rods. Just opened at

THE PUBLIC LIBRARY OF KENTUCKY.

Second Grand Gift Concert.

DAY OF THE DRAWING FIXED.

No Postponement from September 28.

TO THE PUBLIC:

The Trustees of the Public Library of Kentucky being satisfied from the large sale of tickets already made, and the daily increasing demand for them, that there will be no occasion for postponing the second drawing in the Gift Concert in aid of the Public Library of Kentucky, have instructed me, as their agent and manager of the Gift Concert, to say to the public and ticket holders that the drawing will positively take place on September 28th prox., and will not be postponed. An active demand for tickets comes from every State and Territory of the United States, and from the Canadas, giving assurance to the Trustees that no circumstances can prevent a drawing at the appointed time.

A sufficient clerical force is engaged to keep up with the orders for tickets, and in order that this office may be relieved of the immense pressure incident to the business for the week or two immediately preceeding the drawing, agents especially, and those desirous of procuring tickets, are requested to send in their orders immediately, as sales will have to be closed in time to make the necessary preparations for the drawing. It is the wish of the management to fill every order for a ticket, as well as to sell all the tickets, but those who apply first must be first supplied; and, if those who put off buying until sales are closed, have their money returned, instead of the tickets ordered, as in the first Gift Concert in December last when thousands of dollars that came too late were sent back they will have none to blame but themselves.
