Sale by auction of Timber Limits, &c-A

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1872.

LATEST TELEGRAPHIC ITEMS.

The opinion of Sir Alexander Cockburn, British Arbitrator, did enting from the decision of the other members of the Tribunal, at Geneva, has not yet been published; Count Sciopis, Jacob Stampfli, and Charles Francis Adams, were the three arbitrators who voted to allow damages in the case of the Shenandoah. Sir Alex ander Cockburn and Mr. Evarta left Geneva on Saturday. Sir Roundell Palmer is looking greatly fatigued.

London journals this morning rejoice over will demand an abrogation of the Treaty Board. None of the other promises and and rendered necessary an extensive sort of Paris, for the purpose of co-operating pledges which were more or less directly knowledge of geology, mechanics, politi-with Austria and Prussia.

Dupeyre upon the work done by the vari- in a very questionable manner. Under to find some means of checking the great Communists have been condemned by the faith in the Grit leaders? present Courts, of whom 72 were sentenced to death, 192 to penal servitude, and 952 shades of politics are already debating as

SIR GEORGE CARTIER ELECTED FO PROVENCHER.

A telegram received yesterday afternoon elected for Provence er County (Manitoba) nominated.

The London Advertiser is so thoroughly Grittish that it cannot refrain from hav ing a fling at the Roman Catholics of Province, now the elections are over. says the " sole ground for suspecting Mi O'Donohoe of Fenianism was his religion We never before knew that a man's reli O'Donohoe's co-religionists will apprecia this insult from the Grit organ. pretty well known why Mr. O'Donoh was suspected, and why in 1866 the det tives watched him very closely.

A Grit contemporary says: "Riel has been largely supplied feating Astorney General Clark, He spending money lavishly, most of it being

If for "Ottawa" we read " Toronto Canadian Bank bills' come from.

RECEPTION OF SIR GEORGE CARTIER.

Sir George Cartier arrived here last evening by the 6:20 train. He was accompanied by Colonel Osborne smith. convres have proceeded most satisfactorily. cious arguments they had succeeded in His welcome at the station must have There have been fewer blunders than there gaining power, and at the same time in his uncle's house, if you recollect. I saw cription of his person, there was no diffibeen highly gratifying to the honourable were last year, and the strategy displayed arising public expectation to such a pitch there was something wrong between you culty in determining his identity. Pinard ernor General's Foot Guards was in atten- and impossible character. In two ways meet tae demands which their louddance, accompanied by the band. Most of this annual bringing together of 30,000 or mouthed professions justify the public in the Militia staff officers were also present, 40,000 troops in various portions of Eng. making upon them, and they-acknowtogether with the Mayor, wearing his land must have a good effect. In the first alighted he was received with enthusiastic | towards recruiting the army. In many of the error which they have not the manliof Firemen bearing torches, and amid the mustered upon and near Salisbury Plain, blaze of fireworks and the loud cheering of and the wondering inhabitants were almost the people, the procession passed up Sus- struck dumb with astonishment as they well for some years past, and his wife had Harold! you were speaking passionate,

A meeting of the City Council was held | march along the dusty roads, and squadron at 6 o'clock, at which the following address after squadron of gay lancers and dashing ing, which so enraged him that he went "You both used high words, but he was was agreed upon and presented to Sir hussars galloping across the stubbles. after her, and as she went outside the the worst. He muttered something that George upon his arrival at the City Hall. Then, too, the British private soldier had house to see what he wanted he levelled I could not hear, and then you turned To the Honorable Fir George Etienne always been regarded as a very low type

tion at your return to the capital, and beg worthy rustics heard that about forty to express the hope that your health has | thousand of these unruly, dissolute cha- | "Kenilworth," has been levelled with the | been anywhere else in the universe than early and perfect re-establishment

On behalf of the ditizens we beg to express our full appreciation of the important services you have in the past ren lered for their lives. It is gratifying to find, to the country, and sincerely hop , you however, not only that these fears were | may long be spared to continue your valuable labours for its welfare

EUG. MARTINEAU City Hall, Ottawa, Sept., 16, 1871. Sir George Cartier replied thanking the good people of Ottawa for their enthusia stic welcome. It was not the first time res have taught the countrypeople a His name was Tersin, and he was supposed him to his former health, and if so, he and self restraint. One of the episodes of Col. Clive's Wife. would be found as of old in his place in the campaign which appears to have most Parliament battling in behalf of the inter- surprised the villagers has been the sight ests of the Dominion. (Cheers.) He al. of Prince Arthur, "the Queen's son," luded to his late defeat in Montreal, but g llopping about discharging the duties olicy had been approved of by the people, gradually forcing its victorious way towards said the result of the late elections showed London. However, before this, a change now, we went half-way lionble James Skead, Mr. Currier, M.P., yet be save l. and Mr. Alonze Wright, M. P., then made some appropriate remarks, after which three cheers were given for the Queen, Sir George Cartier, the Governor General, nd the Mayor.

The honourable Baronet was then consupply of Great Britain might become exfucted to his home, after which the crowd

Among those present were the Honble. perienced geologists gave their opinion as Mr. Skead, Mr. Currier, M. P., Mr. Alon- to the length of time which it would prob-30 Wright, M. P.- Mr. W. McKay Wright, ably last, one of them Professor Taylor M. P., Colonel McPherson, Colonel Wiley, Colonel Stuart, and other well known citi- last for 1,727 years, while another savan,

THE ONTARIO GOVERNMENT.

present Ontario Administration was form subject. The four principal questions ed. The Opposition which Messrs. Blake, which they were called upon to solve were the conclusion of the Alabama claims con Mackenzie, and their followers had offered as follows: 1st - liow much con local does the troversy, and express the hope that the to Sandfield Macdonald's Government was United Kingdom contain altogether, Laura Sartoris was like. Perhaps he may foundation has been laid for a permanent based upon certain professed principles and how much of it is available? 2nd. - | oe fancying her all this time to be a tall, and good understanding between the two which the Blake-Ecott coalition were ex- Does coal exist under any other strata beautiful girl, of stately height, and with nations now, that all necessary reparation pected to carry into effect as soon as they where we may reasonably expect to get nothing of the kind-not a girl at all, but has been made to America. The Standard succeeded to office. One of these princi- it? 3rd .- At what rate are we using our a woman of three-and-twenty years old at however, thinks that the Tribunal should ples, viz., that which declared all coal? 4th.-How can we improve our least; not beautiful, not even pretty: a have awarded damages only for depredations to be immoral, was violated at the mode of working, and thus economise it? very outset, when Mr. Scott, a Conserva-It is asserted that the Czar of Russia | tive, was offered a seat at the Councilgiven by Mr. Mackenrie and his Grit cal economy, and statistics. The mem The London Fines in its editorial on the colleagues have been carried into effect. bers of the Commission, however, work- were some men who maintained that result of the labors of the Geneva tribu- None of those great and stairtling reforms | ed industriously and well, and not long Laura Sartori's face was better worth look nal says: - "While England has been held which they were always calling for when since made their report. In answer to ing at than any other woman's in the responsible for the depredations of several in Opposition have been inaugurated. On the first question they say that Great for the depredations of several in Opposition have been inaugurated. On the first question they say that Great for the depredations of several in Opposition have been inaugurated. confederate cruisers, we yet retain the the contrary, after plunging the province Britain possesses about $146,480,000,000 sitting by her now was one of these. She conviction, that morally, she is not to in debt, after having been guilty of acts tons of coal, of which 90, 207,000,000 tons was not looking her best just then, for her blame. The United States Government of political dishonesty such as were never are immediately available. Even a great. only claim to beauty at any time lay in the claimed damages for losses caused by a heard of in Canada before, and, last though | er quantity than this could be obtained dozen vessels, but the Court of Arbitra- not least, after having made use of all the were it possible for human life to be sustion held England liable unanimously only influence which their position gave them tained at a sufficient distance beneath the her cheaks looked thin and worn; and the in the case of one vessel. This is plain during the recent Dominion elections, the earth's surface. It is believed that 4,000 dancing light in her eyes had been quenchevidence of the belief in the genuineness Grit leaders have basely deserted the ship. feet may be reached, though at present and noted all these changes with a heavy of our neutrality during the war in the A more inglorious record than theirs it there is no colliery in Britain deeper than heart, and yet he thought she had never United States; it disapproves of the flag- would be impossible to find. After having 2058 feet. At a depth of 3,000 feet the looked so nearly beautiful in all her life rantly unjust accusation to unfriendliness accomphished nothing, after having distemperature becomes 98 degrees or blood as she did that afternoon. in the American case presented at Geneva. graced the province by their unprincipled heat. The quantity of coal used annually ling fingers; that little hand of hers swarded as tending to obviate difficulties they are content to leave Ontario to its 35,000,000 of which is employed in the hold on by. "And poor Laura, I might An indignation meeting is to be held in to resign office, we have left Mr. Scott, a be no danger of the coal supply becoming Dublin on the 22nd inst., to protest Conservative, Mr. Crooks, a totally inex- exhausted for many centuries, but inass against the course of the British Govern- perienced man, and Mr. McKellar; who much as the quantity used every year bes to-day would be simply incredible to me From the recent report made by M. from Mr. Millar, a merchant of London, exercising a wise discretion in endeavoring

ous French Courtsmartial up to the 12th such circumstances as these can we won- waste which undoubtedly occurs, and pro-July, it appears that more than 9,000 der that the people of Ontario have lost viding some means of economizing fuel. We notice that several journals of all paid a high compliment to the Canadian to transportation and confinement in all to who is likely to be the leader of the new, Ontario Government that will have aries will copy. The Times alludes to the economy practised by the Canadian Imapprehensive that Mr. M. C. Cameron will migration offices as follows : be called upon to form a new administration, and it proceeds at great length to announces that Sir George Cartier was | 4ry and prove that no Cabinet could be formed with that gentleman as its leader contrast to our more cumberous and exby acciamation, no other candidates being | which would be acceptable to the people of Ontario or truly represent their senti-Globe's example and dictate to Governor state of public feeling will guide him a total expense of $3,384 52. The Toronaright. But we must say that the argu- to agency passed 26,591 emigrants and been so ever since I can recollect, My exceedingly unfair. It is indeed true the Hamilton agency $1,671 85 on 1,090. was alive or dead. Except for the accitrue member of the Roman Catholic that the Blake-Scott Administration had These economical expenditures may, per. dent of having inherited a large share of a large majority in the Assembly last ses. haps, be accounted for when we find one wordly wealth, no one can call me a fortusion, a fact which arose partly from Mr. Scott's presence in the Cabinet which disarmed the hostility of many members who would have been opposed to a thorough going Grit Administration, and partly because there was no organized opposition formed. But it is also well known that the Sandfield Macdonald administration was defeated by a "fluke." and that had all the members of the her in the hands of men, some of whom Legislature been present it would not have may be good enough in their own way, forty hours afterwards at Southampton on been overthrown by the narrow majority ing state ships to do so successfully. which their opponents were enabled to When Messrs. Blake and Mackenzie went have become throroughly disgusted with ed most vehemently while in opposition. Grit rule, and would have little confidence After they had been in power for some eadership of Mr. McKellar or any other Grit politician. Doubtless Governor How- to see some of those governmental re-

will act accordingly. THE AUTUMN MANŒUVRES

land is well acquainted with this fact and forms, to witness that political millenium,

So far as heard from, the autumn man- "Rome was not built in a day." By speprocession was formed, ing forces passed, such a sight as a body man as Blake and Mackensie to commit. of armed men had not been seen since the honour, with a number day when King James the Second's army saw regiment after regiment of infantry to be let loose among them, they trembled | ture. for the security of their property, if not It is rumored that the Isle of Man is to speak them, or have I only dreamed that altogether uncalled for, but that everyone | the convicts. bears testimony to the order, discipline, and civility displayed by the troops. Inand disorderly of mankind, the British soldiers engaged in the Autumn Manouv -

(Continued) said that he did not care much for a local of a staff officer with as much activity as I have been telling lies?" exclaimed defeat so long as the great Conservative any of his brother officers. His Royal Clive, throwing his head back proudly, party of Quebec triumphed as it had done | Highness is acting as Brigade Major of | while the hot blood mounted slowly to Cheere.) It was a gratification to him , Parke's Brigade, and the duties of the doubt, Laura. I spoke the truth, and and to those who had been associated office are neither few nor light. As far as nothing but the truth, that day before the with him in laying the foundations of heard from, the invading army appears to magistrates, when I told them that I knew

THE ENGLISH COAL SUPPLY.

It is now about eight years since the public mind of England was startled by hausted. Various learned men and ex computing that there was sufficient coal to the year 1975. In 1866 a Royal Commis-

DESERTED THE SHIP.

but have had too little experience in sail-that they would carry into practice certain principles for which they had clamor-time and no signs of carrying out these principles appearing, people began to complain. They were naturally anxious which were to be introduced by those clamations against corruption. And they time, quoth he of Isolated Risks fame;

were met with a plea for a time. Give us

Erin breakwater and the Ramsey and other harbor works will be completed by

The Birmingham Gazette says that the

The death of a celebrated converted cannibal is announced in New Zealand.

china and earthenware manufacturers in per cent. to their prices.

may have occurred and the capital may the pier at S- together, speaking pas sionate, revengeful words, I own, and parted at last with hot anger in both our hearts; but from that moment I never set eyes on him again. He went on to the end-to the unfinished part of the pier, as I believe-and I retraced my steps by the way that I had come; but whether he some one hinting that it was possible ere made a talse step in the twilight, or when ther the wind, which was blowing hard at many cycles had past away, that the coal the time, actually blow him over the parapet-whether he died by accident, or by his own act, or by the hand of another, God only knows. I never even heard of his death till two nights afterwards when just as I was stepping on board the Havre steamer at Southampton, I was arrested on the charge of having murdered him. By way of answer, Laura Sartoris laid her cold hand upon that of her compan-Mr. Jevons, declared that in his opinion

the coal supply would be exhausted about | 10 "Poor Harold," she said softly, "i must have been very hard for you to It is now nearly nine months since the sion was appointed to enquire into the bear He had placed her in the chair from which he had so lately risen, and they I have not yet told the reader what To answer these questions satisfactorily hair that looked simply brown in the involved a considerable amount of labor, shade, but in the sunshine warmed into a of beauty in that face. Women seldom looked at it a second time; but there fate. Messrs. Blake and Mackenzie having | iron trade alone. At this rate there would say," he resumed, answering her last stands charged with having obtained money comes larger, the Imperial authorities are | did I not know that you acquit me of hiving, by thought, word, or deed, wilfully injured the man who was to have been

"We will not speak of that now, Harold, if you please," Laura answered, blushing a little for the first time. "I did not come to talk about the past, but of the The New York Times a few days since me what you think yourself; how will it Immigration Department, which we will go with you at this dreadful trial?"

They had spoken in low tones from the feel much obliged if our Grit contempor. into a whisper, so that not one word could reach the ears of the man Keith, who kept his silent watch at the extreme end of the The report of the Canadian Minister of long room, pacing up and down like an Agriculture and Immigration, which gives automaton and apparently taking no nothe expenditure in detail of the Department | tice of what was passing before his eyes. "How can I tell?" Ha old snswered during the year 1871, exhibits a curious with a little bitter laugh, which grated pensive system of disposing of emigrants strangely on his companion's ear. "If it arriving at this port. Thus, we find that were any other man than myself who was the total expense of the Quebec agency | to be tried, I shouldn't hesitate to say he for the year was $36,263 70. For this sum | would be acquitted; but some men seem 37,020 emigrants were relieved and for to have the luck of it in this world, and warded to their destination, $20,343 91 some don't. I'm one of the last, At school being expended for transport alone. The it seemed with some of the fellows that Montreal agency assisted 2,719 persons, at to wish for a thing was to have it, but with me it was always the reverse. It s agency, $1,387 65 on 3,335 persons, and my father never seemed to care whether I penses during a tour of fourteen days, under an unlucky star indeed, if they can succeed in making me out guilty upon and another stating, in answer to an enquiry, that his office accommodation is in the scraps of circumstantial evidence that they have got against mess yet. That we were both seen walking down the pierquarrelling if you will,-that I was observed later to come back alone, looking worried and anxious; that poor Philip's hat and handkerchief, stained with a few bad way. Her master and one of his prindrops of blo.d, were found the next cipal officers have deserted her and left morning wedged among the piles at the end of the pier; and that I was overtaken > honest jurymen that I murdered a man in cold blood whom I had known ever since "There would be no fear at all of the result," said Laura, speaking in a low. hoarse voice; 'the lawyers all say so; ex-"You give evidence!" he exclaimed, looking strangely startled. "What do you mean, Laura? I don't understand." "Don't you know? Has no one told > my way to Havre, having taken my passage mearly a week before, are not quite proots enough, I should say, if I know any thing of Scotch law, to convince twelve you? Oh, this is the worst of all! "I have not seen Leslie for several ledge themselves at fault and call in wise men to assist them out of the difficulty; of the City Council. When Sir George more popular and will thus do something together to escape the consequences of while before you went down to the shore; determination of character. He served other demonstrations of wel- the little villages and hamlets of Wiltshire between a could welthe large crowd of citizens as. and Berkshire through which the contend- be committed; and it required such of arbor last year, before you and he went (H. Favor Providence, R. I., who was murout through the little wicket-gate by the dered September 5th, 1872. The facts are A man named Hughes, from Port Credit, was sitting there reading when you passed was missed and no clue to his whereabouts was committed to gaol on Tuesday last, out. You did not see me; but I saw you, was known until a week afterwards, for attempting to shoot his wife. The and heard you too. I could not help when his body was discovered in the prisoner and his wife have not agreed very hearing, for you were talking loudly. O > often left him and returned again. The angry words." "What was I saying?" he asked abrupt day he attempted to shoot her she nad gone to assist a neighbor to do some sew- ly a pistol at her head, which was fortunate- upon him and said he should suswer to knocked out of his hand by some one you for those words before you parted Cartier, Baronet, Minister of Militia of humanity. If a man was good for no- standing near them at the time, thus pre- from him that day. I would not let you thing else he was supposed to be "fit food | venting any serious harm being done. Pri- know I was there. I thought it would for gunpowder." When, therefore, the soner is an old pensioner, very much make things worse perhaps if I interfered, addicted to drinking .- Brampton Times. but I would give all I have in the world Cumnor Hall, famous by its relations to now if I had spoken to you, or to have racters, as they were supposed to be, were ground, and its site devoted to agricul- in that wretched boat-house when you spoke those dangerous words. You did

be a convict station, and that the Port you did?" she asked eagerly. "Hush; Inura, hush," he said, for she was growing the soil and excited. "I did trusted that the Almighty would restore effects which result from habits of order could remember the visit of Capt. Cook. is not known, as I much fear, already. I the day.

have been very ill, Harold," she added humbly, "and have been delirious at times. I may have told those words in my Ay lad it was here that we lingered dreams, for I dream of nothing else, and it is only natural that it should be so -by Philip's relatives. There have been spies | Was flushed with rosy light; about me who must have carried the tale head sank lower and lower till it was fairly hidden in her hands, and she broke ' to his mate and the wee brown birds that into a fit of passionate weeping. "recause they have summoned you as a In the nest on the bending stray. witness again-t me? Is that what you mean to say ?" Col. Clive asked gently. She only bowed her head in bitter grief That, Jenny and I had been, silence, but ties deer rewsader than And homeward we walked through the ever as he watched her tears. (i) Harout! it is so dreadful. an I do?" she sobbed at length. "You can speak the truth, and leave the rest in God's hands, Laura, my darl- Here, under the porch by the door. ing," he answered, laying his hand for a moment on her head. "And that is what There was never a soul astir in the house, you must do. I would not have those But all was as still as could be; pure lips sullied by a falsehood, though i And even although they had all been had to die twenty times over.' 'Yes, it is what I must do," she answered bitterly. "I know that well enough; For the ivy was thick, and we whispered shall have to speak the truth, as you say, whether I will or not. It will be by word, by those cruel men. Ah, Harold, they will never let me tell them the other things I know about you; how good and kind you are; that you would never wilful. O the passionate love of life's spring tide! ly hurt any living creature; that I have | Though now I am old and grey, known you to sit for hours and hours | Each low murmured word I remember as playing with a soldier's sick child; that you wam more than a mile once to save | As if it were yesterday; a dog's life. They will never let me tell How I thrilled at the touch of the soft them these things, but they will make me say those other dreadful words, which I That over her shoulders curled, know you never meant, over and over And trembled for joy when I dared to sgain, and they will be your ruin-I know they will-and then I shall always feel as The rosiest lips in the world. f your blood were on my head!" she exclaimed, once more bursting into tears. "Laura, Laura, you must not talk like That wreathes on the hawthorn tree, this," he answered, speaking as calmly as | And leave me here till I dream awhile he could; for his heart was beating violent. Of the life that was never to be. ly, and he was deadly pale "You are For the shadowy phantoms of long ago making yourself ill again, my poor little I see through a mist of tears; meant little or nothing; and, perhaps. after all, you are exaggerating the effect "No. no. I am not:" she answered to say will kill you, I know it will. I can examine. not, will not bear it," she added, lifting up her head, and choking back her sobs. It must not be. There is one way, and only one way in which I can save you, it selt, even to save my life. If you are called upon to bear witness against me, ou must just speak the truth, and tuen, moments, and then Laura spoke again. There is one way," she faltered, "by "The truth can be suppressed -not with consent," he interrupted, scornfully. Harold be patient, and hear me out. he pleaded. "There is one way by e a half trush after all, but my evidence ould be suppressed." She was speaking quite calmly, but her 'head was turned "Laura, what do you mean?"

She might have been in the witness-box ready for the close eager questioning of you guess what it is I mean?" He sat staring at her with a bewidered expression, and passed his hand wearily

"I was never a good hand at riddles my best days, as you know, and I should three weeks in this den have deadened all my senses, I think, and robbed me of the little wits I ever had. You had better such a wild hit as would frighten you away forever. Tell me plainly what it is you mean, Laura. Don't keep me in su-he was paler than before. She looked up at him then, with a face as white as his could not make me give evidence against feature in his face quivering, and took one

"What mad, wicked folly is this, that some one has been putting into your A CHEMICAL FOOD AND NUTRITIVE head?" he said in a hoarse whisper. Then he stopped beside ber, and once more

"No. 1 am not mad, as you think. pleaded. "It is the only way." "Despise you, my darling! If you only he was breaking away from again. "Once, years ago, you asked me (To be continued.)

F. DEIMBHEY, AT GRENVILLE,

Yesterday, about 12 50 a.m., Adolph

Pinard, of the Ottawa Police Force, sucdays, and this must be something new. at the Grenville Station, where he had Tell me, child, what can you have to do gone with a marriage party. Having the with it? We left you at the hall door of photograph of the prisoner and the desthat it would not be appeared by mere ap- and Anstruther, and I felt that when he touched the collar of Deimehey's cost and baronet. A guard of honour of the Gov. by the generals has been of a less eccentric pearances. Now they find they cannot seized your hand and kissed it in my presence, it was meant for a studied in-ult to which were given over without any resist. you as well as to me. But that was all; ance whatever. No firearms were found you never saw us again after that mo- on his person. His valise was examined "Unhappily I did," she answered, shak- blood stains. Dermehey is 24 years old was seen to remain almost constantly about the cellar for two days, when he suddenly disappeared. The safe was examined and the contents, only $110, found wanting. A reward of $1500 was offered, and immediate action taken by the detective force in the United States subsequently to Buckingham, after this to Grenville, where he was enugly secured to Ottawa last night by the Queen handouffed, and consessed he had taken the Timber Limits, Timber, &c., to His Excellency the Governor money, but had not committed

The Scotsman says that there have been already slight falls of snow on Ben Nevis. Our neighbours across the line 45 have spect the manifest it all now. He just set a good example. The Boston fancies that I had been telling you of Daily Advertiser says that the Mercantile something he had wished to keep from Library Association of the city of Boston stead of being found the most immoral the Staffordshire potteries have added ten Then he called me a liar and a coward, the exclusive use of ladies. The room is and I suswered him in the very words you brilliantly lighted, is hung with many fine say. My old, hot temper has been the portraits and pictures, and its broad librum of me, if, as you say, this should be- rary tables are bountifully supplied with the standard magazines, foreign and dohe had experienced their kindness. He lesson, and have shown the beneficial to be quite one hundred years old, as he "It will be known sooner or later, if it meetic, as well as all the fashion books of

I know that I have been watched-perhaps. Till the larks were up, and the cloudless

A trilling a low sweet lay

It was at your grandfather's wedding, lad And I was the bravest of all the lads, And she of the girls was Queen; What When the dancing and mirth were o'er; And I stood with her dear little hands in

They never could have seen her and me :

As she gave me a wild red rose from the She had worn in her beautiful hair Extensive stock of Wool Car. pets, in two and three ply; alsoex. Super, which we are offering despendently. "What they will drive me at last season's prices. Call and RUSSELL & WATSON'S

THE ADIRUNDACKS.

A correspondent speaking of the scene sternly, "if it is to be at the sacrifice of the ry of the Adirondacks says. "To have a I have told you before, Laura, and new and beautiful rerelation of the Sum-I tell you again, you shall not perjure your | mer's glory, on the eve of its departure, was something for which to be devoutly thankful. And this revelation was our first glimpse of the Adirondacks. Never was the blue sky brighter, and never looked the mountains grander or more inviting; those in the distance dimly and softly blue, those nearer by covered with luxuriant verdure. To describe all the choicest bits of beautiful scenery which presented themselves to our delighted and wondering eyes as we whirled rapidly tion. monulace words, the admiration and enthusiasm with which the glory the Adirondack region inspired us, would be like reducing one of Beethoven's grand symphonies to simple prose. And yet, we stood only at the gate, not in the heart of the mountains. On either side hose eyes which were fixed on her; she was an ever changing panorama of beautythe trees just tinted with the fresh red "Won't you help me. Harold? Can't glow of Autumn; the fields and waysides covered with wild flowers, a profusion of golden and red blossoms, flung with a lavish hand into Autumn's lap, the last gift of the ver his forehead once or twice before he departing summer; and little lakes without a ripple to disturb their woo tland dreams : and nerrow streams down which the water came tumbling over the rocks in angry rapids, like a human life fretting itself away in never ending turmoil and grief; and fairy-like bridges spanning the dark and | mers. troubled waters, like that sweet hope of peace and happiness he eafter which spans the heaven above a troubled soul. All this, and much more, we saw with wonder ing eyes, and grafted upon our hearts, to live there, a pleasant memory for ever.

> The middle class examination for woman at the Cambridge University, England, shows very gratifying results. The numincrease, the number this year being 154, as compared with 127 last year.

Yesterday morning, at his residence.

Victoria Island, Hugh Fitzpatrick. The funeral will take place on Wednes-

Without Phosphorus no thought, say the Germans body, being sound in every tissue, and their presence the conversion of albumen in the food into fibrine which is the vitalising agent of pure, healthy blood They are now coming into universal use in Europe and America in the treatment of Scrofulous, Con sumptive and Veneral diseases, which are caused by impoverished or poisoned blood; and in dis-eases of women suffering from irregularities, ob-structions and exhausting discharges, in pale puny structions and exhausting discharges, in pale puny children, and that condition of nervous and physical prostration resulting from bed habits, excessive use of stimulants and tobacco, and all that train of evils known as a fast life. The great reliability and promptness in its effects is immediately and promptness in its effects is immediately and permanently restoring the devitalised constitution has made DR. WHEELER'S COMPOUND ELIXIR OF PHOSPHATES AND CALISAVA a great favorite with the Physiciaus and public. Sold at $1.00.

Sold at $1.00.

Sold at $1.00.

CATINEAU.

SEALED TENDERS addressed to the undersigned and endorsed "Tenders for Improvements in Canal Basin Ottawa," will be received until THURSDAY, the 19th

The work will be clearing and excavating the Basin, and Cedar Pier work. Plans and specifications may be seen at the Rideau Canal Office, Wellington Street. . The lowest or any Tender not necessarily

F. BRAUN, Secretory. Department of Public Works. Ottawa, Sept 14, 1872.

(LATE ST. JAMES,)

Corner of Metcalfe and Queen Streets. CENTRE TOWN, OTTAWA. Good Sample Rooms and every accomnodation for travellers. Thoroughly refitted and refurnished throughout. S. DANIELS.

Ottawa, Sept 17, 1872.

close business of AUSTIN and GRAHAM.

Attention is invited to the above sale, the Minister of Customs and under the which will take place at the Union House, provisions of the 8th section of the Act 31 Ottawa, on WEDNESDAY, 18th Septem- Vic., cap. 6, intituled; "An Act respectber, instant, at 12 o'clock, noon. Specifications of Timber and particulars been pleased to order, and it is hereby you, and I indiguan by denied the charge. has re-ently opened a reading room for of supplies, &c. may be had on application ordered, that the Out-Port of Peterboro, of supplies, &c. may be had on application ordered, that the out-Port of Peterboro's AMOS ROWE, Auctioneer. JOHN FAIR, escuntant, Montreal.

Proprietor.

JUST OPENED!

DRESS GOODS

Twilled Poplins, Worsted Twills, Wool Repps, Empress Cloths, French Merinos, Fancy Dress Goods, Plaids, Lustres, &c, &c. A specially choice assortment.

FLANNELS AND TWEET A very large Stock laid In before the Lace Sets. Lace Collars. Linen and Muslin. Lace Lappets, Sets and Real Laces, in great variety.

FANCY WOOLLEN GOODS, all the latest Novelties. CARPETS AND HOUSEFURNISHINGS. See our new patterns in Carpets and Floor Oil Cloths.

Allan, McKinnons & McMet an,

Cash Pistributte a.

THE

SEPIEMBER 28 THE D

The vast sales of tickets already made

Saturday mo ning. > eptember 2x 1822.

until the one thousand gifts are all draw where arrangements have been made

Whole tickets, $10; halves, $6; qual whole tickets for $400; 28 for $300

All tickets to which gifts are aw.

paid without discount by the Farm pon the Fourth National Pank of

The drawing will be publish

SIMILIA SIMILIBUS

HOMEOPATHIC SPI

cines perfectly adapted to popular that mistakes can not be made in harmless as to be free from danger, est commendation from all, and si

Fevers, Concostion.

Dysentery, Gripin

Dyspepsia, 19

Rheumatism

General Debil

Cholera-Morbus,

Coughs, Colds, Broading, Neuralgia, Toofinds, Fa

Whites, too Profuse

Feverand Ague, Cal

Ophthalmy, and Sore

Catarris, acute de chronic

Whooping-Cough, vio

Ear Discharges, impai

Dropey and scapty Secre

Sen-Sickness, lickness Kidney-Discase, Ger

Nervous Debility,

Emissions, 1

Sore Month, Canker ...

Urinary Weskness, w

Painful Periods, with

Sufferings at danger if Sufferings at danger if Epilepay, Spania, S. Vita Diphtheria, ucerstei et inrge vials, dutaining

ect to, with book of directions.

Or 20 winds, with book, Meren

Veterinary Specifics (finis), diseases of all Domestic Auis

Complete Case, with large

Large Rosewood Case of

sa, Sore Thron's Enrache, Neuralyin,

Old Sores.

Quarts, $1.75.

Lumbaro, Piles, Roll

Price, 6 oz., 50 cts.;

are sent by the case or single bet

the country, free of charge, on rec

Office and Depot, No. 552 BROAD

Humphreys' Specific Homeopathic Medi

For Sale by all Dru

These Remedies.

TRACT, and single vials of)

Eyes, Bieeding of the Stomach, or of Piles; C.

FAMILY CASE

Five Boxes, seith one

Worms, Worm Fever, W. Crying-Colic or Toething

no to be always reliable. They have hall of the Public Livrary Building.

One Grand Gift, Cash

Four cases Cornices, Poles, Cor- $500 nice Ends and Stair Rods. Just opened at RUSSELL & WATSON'S.

The newest designs in (English) Oil Cloths, from 80c to $1 40 the square vard, at RUSSELL & WATSON'S

LIBRARY OF KENTUCKY, advertise TURDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1872, SHA TIVELY COME OFF ON THAT DAY NAVAL AND MILITARY notifies all who expect to participate in the that they should buy their tickets at on for a few days caused many who wanted closed, expecting, no doubt, a postgon dollars for tickets which the day before w ority in respect of both excellence and economy over any other Paste preparahad to be sent back. These disappoint not occur again if the warning now a The drawing will begin precisely a PRICE 10 CTS. PER 4 LB. TIN. It is par excellence the Best Paste Blacking in the World.

Wholesale of C. T. BATE & CO., Ottawa. Ottawa, Sept. 13, 1872. 2073d

Can be had of all Grocers.

INGING CLASSES. MR. H. G. TIEPKE begs to inform the Warerooms of Messrs. A. & S. Nordheiorganization of Ladies' Classes.

For terms apply at Messrs. Nordheimer's Ottawa, Sept. 12, 1872.

date all who may come. will be admitted to both the Concert lars $1.75. and none without such tickets will b Regatta Shirts, $1 50. Gents three Ply all Linen Collars, 20 cents. Youths Linen Collars, 10 cts.

for $1,000, 265 for $2,500; 575 for $5. unt on less than $100 worth of tick In accordance with numerous solicitat Shirts, Collars, Cuffs, Fronts, Dickeys, &c., made to order, at the OTTAWA SHIRT STORE. The only practical Shirt and Collar Cuff Lexington Railroad, the Louisville and Madison Hailroad, the Chic at ter and manufacturer in Ottawa. Railroad, the Louisville and Ciscia Merchants' Bank Block, Sparks Steettline, and the Louisville, Owenshore on Mail Boat Line Packets. orner Metcalf. " All agents are required to close sub beir returns in full time to reach t Ottawa, Sept 7, 1872. Thursday, September 26. To ido th those located at great distances ma

THE FOLLOWING TIMBER BERTHS

ented at this office. Room No. A splendid Timbered Limit-License Agent Public Library of Kermeky No. 445 of 1871-2, containing about fifty square miles. As extensive improvements whom tickets have been sent License No. 443 of 1871-2, containing 24 License No. 444 of 1871-2, containing 27 square miles. These Limits together would afford supply of Logs for years to any mills situated below the Chaudiere, and are easy of The above Limits will be sold together or separately, to suit purchasers. For terms and conditions apply to Manager Quebec Bank, Ottawa. Ottaws, Sept. 3, 1872

N. FAULENER'S, York Street, Ducks' Cotton Tents, Bags and Blankets.

Ottawa, Sept 7, 1872.

NSOLVENT ACT OF 1869. In the matter of JOHN ROLLS, of Sherbrooke, an Insolvent. I, the undersigned, J. A. ARCHAM BAULT, of the Town of Sherbrooke Official Assignee, have been appointed Assignee in this matter. Creditors are requested to file their claims before me within one month.

J. A. ARCHAMBAULT. Sherbrooke, 11th Sept , 1872. 2073tf COVERNMENT HOUSE, Ottaws, Tuesday, 10th day of Sep., 1872.

General in Council On the recommendation of the Hon.

ing the Customs," His Excellency has heretofore under the survey of the Port of Port Hope, be and the same is hereby constituted and erected into a Port of Entry for all the purposes of the said Act. W. A. HIMSWORTH, Clerk, Privy Council.

Departs, Leaves every

TRAVELLER'S

SE LAWRENCE & OTTA

s.m.

7.30

6.15

Arrives.... Steamer "Louise," dep Kingston on Mond Thursdays at Lesves Kingston on Tues UMON FORWARDING A Ottaws at 6 Stage leaves Ottawa at Stage arrive from Ayla Steamer "Jessie Aylmer daily at 8.30 a m N. B.—Tickets to all

West can be had from A. & A. H. Russell House and Ottawa, May 13, 1872. LUCAL family should be withou is liberally used, no Doc Persons afflicted the Skin, Kidneys or Bl. for a supply of the Cale

a Poes the razor go e bet of a victim who was slowsy instrument. you call the operation ning me, it goes tole, og re shaving me, it go For Cheap Cottons, ALLAN, MCKINNON

> SECURE Your Flannels A large stock laid in at ALLAN, McKINNO BRANDS Sale of Ligh ALLAN, McKinnon

The principal Hotels

city, are now suppl

Spring Water. Ask for Wm regret to learn met with so serious thigh at Caledonia will be obliged to rem seven weeks. Dr. Gra returned to Ottawa la CITY OF OTTAWA SOCIETY'S EL

Yesterday was the days of the third annu

City of Ottawa Agric was not properly a sh were not admitted. weather, a more delicould not be desired clouded, a gentle bree Bal scattered profusel Canada has its wet se and hot season, but all disagreeable periods calculated only to I appreciate the Elysian hope that Sunday and but the harbingers of tiful, cheering and The exhibition pror successful one, and occur to disappoint doubtedly result in the society. The Dire the Society have labor to accomplish their have publis ed a p inducements of a ver competitors. The the entries are far in out year; so much ing that several add buildings during the nothing like adequat the vegetable dep space has to be acru; The competition here & Hadford's'gold me the owner of the be very large. at the grounds ye Ladies' Department with the fast sex ar of fine work. New variety and accomp price occupy a co Floral Hall. Messr Meadows are prepar bets against anything Hall is well decorate hicles, machinery, & hibited. All the ci horse stalls and pen The grounds will day from 10 o'clock The dog and will place on the last da tion of the Flore animals will be ambitious skunk squint at the prize of an evening con enter the ring in the field to itself, it will carry off did not exhibit it odour that perva demonstrated the not far away. A l of the canine genu the exhibition wil interesting one. Express waggons show during the d sion can be had at

PULICE CU David Brown, ch $5 and costs or tw and disorderly, fin Ellen Quick, a with O'Keefe and conduct was fined Thomas Wilton assaulting a police his duty. The crowd of loafers a evening. Ohief perse, but the pri refused to go