The German and French in thinking that it is in the highest degree officers have expressed their approval of improper and indecent for Mr. Brown's all they have seen in the most unqualified organ to suggest that Her Majesty's rep. terms. resentative in Ontario is lakely to become the tool of Sir John Macdonald or of any one else. Those who best know Mr. Howland best know how untrue and unjust all such insinuations are. Honest and straightforward in principle, independent in character to an unusual degree, Lieut. Governor Howland is the last person in the world who is likely to submit to dictation from any man. But it is not the first time that the Globe has, in terms more or less direct, attacked His Honor, and hinted at his unfitness for office. The reason why it has done so is obvious to any one who will give the subject a moment's consideration. Before Confederas tion Mr. Howland was a Reformer, but he refused to become a "Brownite," and a "Factionist." When Mr. Brown threatened him with an editorial castigation he of the plain."
