CITY Couxeit .- We understand that a special meeting of the City Council will be held in the City Hall on Monday evening next, when the question of the expediency of taking steps to bring the next Provincial Exhibition to Ottawa will be discussed. There are, of course, many atvantages to be gained by bringing the Exhibition hither. It will cause a great influx of visitors, a vast outlay of money, a considerable expenditure in stores and hotels, and give extraordinary employment to cabs, omnibuses, and all possible kinds of vehicles. Whatever the cost may be, the gain probably will be greater. >

A sufficient clerical force is engaged keep up with the orders for tickets, and in order that this office may be relieved of the immense pressure incident to the business for the week or two immediately preceding the drawing, agents especially, and those desiring of procuring tickets, are requested to send in their orders immediately, as sales will have to be closed in time to make the necessary preparations for the drawing. It is the wish of the management to fill every order for a ticket, as well as to sell all the tickets, but those who apply first must be first supplied; and, if those who put off buying until sales are closed, have their money returned, instead of the tickets ordered, as in the first Gift concert in December last, when thousands of dollars that came too late were sent back, they will have none to blame but themselves.
