THE number of Irishmen in charge of the Colonies is very striking. A Parliamentary paper, just published, gives the following as in office in June, 1872: Dominion of Canada, 100; Government of Canada, 100; appointed to succeed Lord Lytton; W. Robinson, Lieut. Governor James Edmunds, Ireland; W. W. Cairns, Lieut. Governor of New South Wales; J. C. H. Hong, Lieut. Governor of Victoria; H. G. Robinson, K.C.M.G., Governor of New South Wales; and Sir G. F. Bowen, G. C. M. G., Governor of New Zealand. It is but a few months since the supreme government of the Indian Empire fell into the hands of the Earl of Mayo; the Earl of Selkirk was Lord Governor of New South Wales; Lord Monck of the Dominion of Canada; and Sir G. Macdonnell of New Zealand. Only one Catholic—important colonies. Only one Catholic—important colonies. Only one Catholic—important colonies.
