MR. BEEG, EN SCOTLAND.-We are very glad to see the following satisfactory account from our friend Mr. Alexander Begg, Emigration Agent to the north of Scotland, OTTAWA an exchange says :- " Our old and esteem ed friend, Mr. Alexander Begg, who received the appointment of Emigration Agent for the Province of Ontario some months ago is doing good service to the cause of emigration in the North of Scot land. He is making a thorough canvass of the Northwest of Great Britain, holding meetings, at which he gives lectures, and in other ways, giving the people some information about the Dominion of Canada, especially the Province of Ontario. The Caithness Courier speaks of his labors with very great praise.

SPORT ON THE TURF.

On Wednesday evening tast a bet of the following nature was concluded between two sporting men of this city: S. bet C. $200 that he had a horse out on grass that could best in a race, of two best out of three, any horse that the latter had in the same condition. Papers of agreement were signed and cheques for the amount put in a third party's hands. The race was to have come off at 3o'clock yesterday at ternoon, but at that time only C. was to the fore. An hour's grace was given S., the expiration of that time he had not yet arrived, and therefore the former trotted his horse over the course twice and claimed the stakes. finally arrived and gave as an excuse for his delay the trouble he experienced in catching his steed. He upbraided his opponent with cowardice in now refusing design during the remaining part of the to test their equine muscle, and in order to parform his parties of the he also went twice around the course-The judges have the matter altogether in difficulty in coming to a conclusion, we would advise them to throw the money
