THE Third Annual Grand Social Assembly of the Ottawa Fire Company took place last night in the St. Patrick's Hall and the Canadian Institute. It was, indeed, a large and in every sense a social gathering. Young and old tripped it on the light fantastic toe until the wee short hours.

THE streets are one mass of mud and filth. Nothing could be easier than to make this statement, and nothing would be more true. The question is not the mud, but the filth.

THE principal Hotels and Saloons in the City are well supplied with California Water. Persons afflicted with Rheumatism, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Diseases of the Skin, Kidneys, Bladder, should send for a supply of the California Water.
