The Literary and Scientific Society of Ottawa, have presented an address to His Excellency the Governor-General, Lord Dufferin, and his Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor, Lord Dufferin, in acceptance of the position of President of the Society, and promises to be present at one of the lectures. The Society is deserving of the highest encouragement, and in Lord Dufferin's acceptance to become its patron, has obtained it. A man of the high character, excellent education, refined manners and varied acquirements, Lord Dufferin is seldom to be met with, combined with this combination, for which the noble Lord is remarkable. Under his auspices this Society, seasonably, will make rapid progress.
