SPECIAL NOTICES. The proprietors of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, "Pain-Expeller," Pills, and Sheridan's Cough Condition Powders, have published a readable and instructive pamphlet, which may be had free at the store. SURE-THROAT, COUGH, COLIC, and similar troubles, if suffered to progress, result in serious Pulmonary, Bronchial, and Asthmatic affections, and in many cases, BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES are compelled so as to reach directly to the seat of the disease and give almost instant relief. The Troches are offered with the fullest confidence in their efficacy; they have been thoroughly tested and their efficacy and reputation they have justly acquired. For Public Speakers, Singers, Military Officers, and those who are attacked by the voice, they are useful in relieving an Irritated Throat, and will render articulation easy. Being an article of pure merit, and having proved their efficacy by a test of many years, each year finds them in new localities in various parts of the world, and the Troches are universally pronounced better than other articles. Obtain only "Brown's Bronchial Troch" and do not take any of the "worthless" imitations that are so common. "Troches," so called, and by the name, are a poor imitation and nothing like the BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES which are sold only in boxes of 100.

FOREIGN NEWS. A number of French dramatic writers are engaged in an effort to establish a copyright treaty between France and the United States. The "Evening Mail" alleges that the Government are resolved to deal with the education question next session, and that the bill on the subject has been drafted and is now in the hands of the English law officers. It will, no doubt, give Mr. Stanley great pleasure to hear, says the "Evening Mail," that the Government are resolved to deal with the education question next session, and that the bill on the subject has been drafted and is now in the hands of the English law officers. The scene of its exploits was a house on Chamberlain road, Lower Valley, near the city, which was called "the Chamberlain" its specialty consisted in making four pots of frisk out the provided premises, beating the bushes, and in the end, the ghost, gilding the trees in the garden. But at length the ghostly offender was overtaken in the person of a servant girl, who had been guilty of a serious offence, and the house, and restored to this trick to divert suspicion. And now by the potent spell of a sidelong magistrate, the ghost has been banished, and the larcenous handmaid is sent to prison. The indomitable Boston man has made his way to Scotland, and this is the circular he has sent to the friends of the "Ghosts of America," who respectfully announce before leaving Edinburgh for Paris, that, for the encouragement of young artists and those interested in art, his studio will be open to the public during the following week, for the reception of the young artists who wish to see him perform his feat (25 wagers) of painting six large oil pictures in six days of 14 hours each, of the following subjects:—1. A young man in a blue coat, 36 by 21; 2. two of Scottish ancestry, 30 by 30, portrait from life, 15 by 20; 3. a young man from fifteen to twenty years of age, many young women, averaging two or three years older than themselves, who if they delay marriage until they are twenty to twenty-five years old, their spouses average a year younger than themselves, and the nonforward this difference steadily increases, till in extreme old age on the bridegroom's part it is apt to be enormous. The indication of octogenarians to meet in their teens is an every day occurrence, but it is amusing to find in the love matches of boys that the statistics bear out the accuracy of the foregoing statement. The husbands of young women aged twenty and under average a little above twenty-five years, and the inequality of age between the partners is, therefore, in proportion increasing with age, till at fifty-five it averages nine years. The greatest number of marriages for men take place in Belgium, and in the Netherlands and twenty-five in England, between twenty-five and thirty in France, and between twenty-five and thirty-five in Italy. In a thousand each year; in England, it is 64; in Denmark 59; in France 57, the city of Paris showing 51; in the Netherlands 52; in Belgium 43; in Norway 36. Widowers indulge in second marriages three or four times as often as widows. For example, in England (largely of Mr. Bardsley there are 60 marriages of widowers against 21 of widows; in Belgium there are 16 to 16; in France 45 to 12. Old Mr. Waller's paternal advice to "behave to the widows," ought surely to be supplemented by a maxim to beware of widowers. —Lippincott's Magazine.
