The North Riding of York—Agricultural and Arts Association—Official Returns for West Toronto.

TORONTO, Dec. 1872.

Anticipating the resignation of Mr. Dodge, Mr. H. Seymour Hubertus publishes an address in the  Globe to the electors of the North Riding of York, soliciting their suffrage for election to the Commons. Mr. Hubertus opposed Hon. Mr. Howland in the riding at the general election of 1867.

The Executive Council of the Agricultural and Arts Association of Ontario met yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, in the room in the Parliament House, in the room of the Agricultural Hall, for the transaction of business. There were present—Mr. A. Wilson, President in the chair, Hon. D. Christie, Rev. Mr. Burnet, Messrs. Ayleworth, Graham, Mr. Morgan, Chastie, J. Young, M.P., (Waterloo) Ballantine, Shepley, Professor McCandless, Mr. Marton, and Mr. White.

Several reports were read and adopted.

Mr. Graham, the Treasurer, reported verbally that he had received on the Dennis account $760, that the Association had had a very successful year; that they had paid $13,000 in prizes at the exhibition; and that the amount of money in the bank is of $13,557. (Hear.)

Mr. Shipton moved, seconded by Mr. White, that a memorial be sent to the Dominion Government, asking them to recommend to Parliament the abrogation of the powers of agricultural journals and documents passing from one part of the Dominion to another.

Mr. Young, M. P., suggested that they should recommend the abrogation of postage upon all newspapers.

The motion was carried.

The meeting considered a cordial vote of thanks to the President for his services in the chair, and adjourned sine die.

Sheriff Jarvis, Returning Officer for West Toronto, showed the result of the election to have been 1,564 votes for Moss, and 1,097 for Blackford. The majority for Moss was 467.
