TORONTO.

TORONTO, Jan. 14. After routine business to-day a lively debate was opened by Mr. Lauder moving for all papers connected with the Central Proton and Toronto Car Company, and made it his opportunity for a personal directing them to urrender their arms to attack on Mr. McKellar, Commissioner of day. All who disobey will be tried by Public Works and making a number of court-martial. The authorities will enlisted for a year from the localities to vague charges of extravagance. Of course it was impossible for Mr. Lauder to make morrow. any speech without referring to the Proton said that Mr. Lewis, of Proton, notoriety restored in that city. had been employed by the Government ast summer, at Thunder Bay. This drew forth prompt denial from Mr. McKellar, and Mr. Lauder had to admit that he may have been misinformed.
