THE OTTAWA TIMES, MONDAY, MARCH 9, 1874. Judge Sanborn is expected by not a few to prove a good successor to Judge Badley. Judge Longenecker is also likely to give satisfaction in the absence of Judge Mack.

The Liberal cause is very prosperous in Nova Scotia. The three recent elections for the Local Legislature have resulted to its advantage. The Provincial Government enjoys a large majority.

It is stated by some that Mr. Steacy has been thus out of the ancient fold without knowing of it positively. We therefore think the report unfounded or premature. In conversation with parties connected with the Communion section in this city, we found that the prospect of their excommunication had no terrors for them, and particularly as they have taken measures to secure a church and pastor agreeable to their views of what is pure in doctrine and becoming and edifying in the conduct of Divine Service.
