THE CONSOLIDATION OF ITALY.—So long fragmentary and impotent, into one powerful State with Rome as its capital, the history of Italy presents a series of crushing defeats, ending with the step by step subjugation of her proud and gay metropolis; the expulsion of her nobles from the Spanish throne, and the ultimate for them of a series of the most liberal among royal exiles, the virtual absorption of the Kingdoms of Saxony, Wurtemberg, Hanover, with Baden, Hesse, the Hanse Towns, &c., under the leadership of Prussia, into the triumphant and empire of Germany; and the arming of Russia to assert her preponderance in the councils of Europe to the entire bewilderment but never quelled design upon the great city founded by Constantine, and the vast and stupendous and anarchical dominion of the Sultan, all events having been with profound interest the ever acting play of the drama of the Old World. The Tribune, through its numerous periodicals—now at all points in Europe where it can be found—has given a complete and instructive panorama of events on that continent, and to narrow the prolonged struggle between materialism and Ecclesiasticism on the one hand and Nonconformist—Catholic scepticism and secularism on the other, leaving a Divine Providence in all the proceeds and in all the scenes of the real conflict as destined (in our opinion) to the taking place of strife, disaster, and gloom, chagrin, and a fairer and happier future for the toiling masses of mankind.

The existing victory, a war upon corruption and robbery in office has been inaugurated in our city, where the government of our state has been revolutionized through the initial triumph of Reform which surpasses the most sanguine anticipations. It is evident that the movement thus inaugurated cannot, in the end, be circumscribed to any locality or any party, and that its purifying influence is destined to be felt in every part of the Union, rebuking vice, exposing fraud, and revealing the worst possible political and social conduct in those who have had the audacity to wield it. To this beneficent and vindictive reform, the Tribune will devote its best energies, regardless of personal interests or party偏見. It is the patriotic choice of honest and faithful men to offer to all New Dealers the most essential and amplest support.

The virtual surrender by the Democratic party of its hold on Equal Rights regardless of color, has gained the most decided half of their former intensity. Honest patriots have no cause to rise or fall, it is clear that the fundamental principles which have hitherto honorably distinguished the Republicans are henceforth to be regarded as common to the whole country. The right of every man to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness is the common law and sinequa non of all citizens before the inability of a State to enslave any portion of its people—the duty of the Union to guarantee to every citizen the enjoyment of this liberty until he forfeits it by crime—such are the broad and firm foundations of our National existence, and the hand which shall seek to dislodge them! Though not twenty years old, the Republican party has done more for the cause of Emancipation, and may fairly lay claim to the same, than any other party in the land, and the benign smile of Heaven is upon it.

Henceforth, the mission of our Republic is one of Peaceful Progress. To protect the weak from violence and oppression—to extend the blessings and stimulate the blessings of Civilization—stimulate especially to the production of new inventions for economy, progress, and thus enlarging Production—to draw nearer to the producers of Food and of Fabrics, of Goods and of Metals, and thus enhance the gains of Industry, and to facilitate transportation and exchanges between nations and arts, such as the inspiring task to which the Nation now addresses itself, and by which it would fau contribute to the progress, enlightenment, and happiness of our race. To this great and good work, the Tribune contributes its zealous, persistent effort.

Agriculture will continue to be more especially interested in its Weekly and Semi-Weekly editions, to which some of the ablest and most successful agriculturists have hitherto contributed. No farmer who has given over his attention to agriculture can afford to do without our Market Reports, others equally local and comprehensive. If he should read nothing else but what relates to his own farm, we trust his regards, we believe that no farmer who can read the Tribune can afford to do without such a journal as the Tribune. And we hope to make it equally valuable to those engaged in other departments of Productive Labor. We spend much time and thought on our columns each year, as our countrymen's general welfare enables us to do; and we are resolved that our agricultural former year shall be exceeded in varied interest and interest by those of 1872. Friends in every part of the world to make our journal better and better, to send us your subscriptions and increasing your Club for the year just before us.
