Open-Adjournment of the House -Want of Confidence-Arrival of Archbishop Lynch-Address of Welcome-Shot with a Pistol. Tosowro, March 18 h.

Jos. Desn who was wounded by a Yorkville burglar, is much worse this afternoon and his life is again despaired of. The Spring Assizes opened to-day Chief Justice Hagarty presiding. There is a large docket.

It is thought doubtful, owing to the factious conduct of the Opposition, whether the House can adjourn before next week. Another want of confidence motion was moved to-day, after debate but was withframe, because the Opposition were not agreed upon it.

Archbishop Lynch will arrive to-morrow morning by the Grand Trunk. He will be met at the station by a deputation and scorted to the Cathedral, where a triumphal arch and platform have been erected. An address of welcome will be presented. after which a Te Deum will be offered up for his sale return.
