Feb. 8, 1874. My LORD-I have the honour to enclose copies of two reports which have just arrived from Captain Glover Your lordship will perceive that the last is dated Jan. 28, eleven days ago, and that Captain Glover speaks of being within 20 miles of Coomassie. I am making every effort to send him news of my success, and orders to fall back behind the Prah, I have offered large rewards to messengers if they succeed in reaching him, and have sent to him by several different routes. In any case, in the utterly crushed state of the Ashantee forces, I have every hope that Captain Glover will be able to hold his own against any army they could bring

COOMASSIB, Feb. 5. After the severe battle at Amoaful, described in my last letter, our men continued to fight their way through a series of ambushes up to this city, which our troops entered in triumph last evening. We had a very sharp engagement with the enemy resterday at Adasi or Adam, where the A-hantees in enormous numbers assembled to resist our passage of the River Dah. This was their last effort, and King Koffee, with all his chiefs, was present at the battle.
