ROYAL
Insurance Company.
LIFE DEPARTMENT.
CAPITAL . . . £2,000,000 Stg.
SECURITY SHOULD BE THE PRIMARY CONSIDERATION.
This old and favorite Company offers this in its large Capital, and the unlimited liability of the shareholders.
Special attention is drawn to a new feature in Life business, just introduced by this Company—that of insuring on the half-credit system. By this method, persons who wish to insure for their families an insurance for a large amount, but whose present income, though improving, will not admit of it, or persons in business who wish to utilise their funds to the fullest extent, and cannot therefore spare the necessary premiums for a large life policy, can insure $5,000 for the same amount of premiums as is required for $2,500, the remainder half-premium standing at 6 per cent. interest, as a debt on the policy until paid off.
BONUS.
Persons insuring now, or within the next few weeks, will obtain the benefit of one year's bonus.
Tables and all information will be given at the office of the Company, corner Sparks and Elgin streets.

Dominion Parliament,

First Session Third Parliament.

SPEECH FROM THE THRONE,

Yesterday the weather was more favorable for the ceremonies attendant upon the State visits of His Excellency the Governor General to Parliament. Notice had been given that His Excellency would state his reasons for calling Parliament together at three o'clock yesterday afternoon, and an immense concourse of people had assembled on the Parliament Square, while the galleries of the Senate Chamber were crammed with people hours before the time appointed for His Excellency's arrival. As the hour approached the Field Battery of Artillery, commanded by Captain Stewart, trotted into the Square, and took up position near the western block, and facing the eastern block of buildings. Then the sounds of martial music were heard in the distance, and one hundred rank and file of that fine corps, the Governor General's Foot Guards, preceded by their richly dressed and excellent band, were shortly afterwards visibly approaching the two Houses of Parliament. They speedily took up position in front of the main entrance, and precisely at three the guns of the Artillery boomed forth the fact that His Excellency in a carriage and four, accompanied by his staff, and his domestic servants in gorgeous liveries, escorted by the splendidly equipped troop of cavalry, commanded by Captain Sparks, had arrived. Off went the people's hats, the air was rent with cheers, and His Excellency and attendant officers stepping from the State carriage, entered the buildings, which was lined with the Foot Guards, much in the same manner as it had been by the Artillery on the preceding day.

THE SENATE.

FRIDAY, March 27th.

At three o'clock the gallery and floor of the House presented an animated appearance, the former crowded with ladies and gentlemen, and the latter occupied by Senators, leading citizens, and officials, with rows of ladies, on the platforms on each side, devoted to honorable members during session. The desks and chairs had been removed from their places, and such arrangements made as secured the most space, and contributed best to the effect of the spectacle, than which nothing could have been finer or more brilliant. The elite of Ottawa and vicinity was well represented, the beauty of many of the ladies, and the richness and splendour of not a few of the toilettes, commanding general admiration.

Lady Dufferin arrived shortly before three, and was escorted to a seat on the left of the Throne, contiguous to that occupied by the Leader of the Opposition. Among the other ladies present on the floor, were the following:—

Miss Cameron, Mrs. H. A. Wicksteed, Mrs. Wicksteed and the Misses Wicksteed, Mrs. Dewe, Mrs. Slater and two Misses Slater, Mrs. Noel, Miss Coutlee, Miss O'Dell, Mrs. Macfarlane, Mrs. Ferguson, Mrs. and Miss Bell, Mrs. Tupper and two Miss Bell's, Mrs. Maclennan, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Amelius Irving, Mrs. and Misses Kingsford, Mrs. and Miss MacNutt, Miss Pigott, Mrs. Judge Armstrong and daughter, Mrs. Featherston, Mrs. and Misses Himsworth, Mrs. Drummond and two daughters, Mr
