Amongst the renegades it will be remembered was found Mr. Glen. President of the Joseph Hall Manufacturing Company's Works at Oshawa. The Pacific Scandal was too much for him to swallow, and at the general election last January he allied himself with the Liberal Party and worked loyally and heartily to secure the election of Mr. Cameron instead of Mr. Gibbs. Since that time Mr. Glen has been a renegade of a marked type, and has been charged repeatedly in that sense. He does not hewever submit quietly, but proceeds to turn the tables upon his accusers in the most effective way. In another column quoted from the Oshawa Reformer Mr. Glen sets himself right in the opinion of reasonable people. Of course the apologists of the Charter-sellers will still cry " renegade.
