Last week one of Mr. McLellan's road party was terribly injured by the falling of a branch. No effort was spared on the part of Mr. McLellan to secure medical aid, and at latest accounts he was under the care of Dr. Molnnis, but with a slim chance of recovery, it was feared. Lee & Robinson's little steamer, deribed as a charming little craft, has been ohristened 'Ada,' and will soon be ready for work. A number of copies of the Mainland petition to the Governor-General against the appeal to the Queen, had been sent
