ECCLESIASTICAL DISSENSIONS. fore the public, but one gentleman's claims evening.

There has for a considerable time been have recently been set forth by a leading of the English Church in the Diocese of Diocesan Synori some scenes growing out ments. 'The same journal further urges in had they occurred in an ordinary political his favour that his views on public quesmeeting. The election of office-bearers tions are particularly well fitted to soothe was upon that occasion conducted with It confesses that in the opinion of Campbell, of Peterborough-a determined attempt on the part of the High Church party to exclude him only failed when his supporters had proposed to substitute his name for that of every High Churchman on the list, and having being foiled in their object, threatened to have the vote taken by orders. Finally, the report, as will be remembered, was remitted to the committee for re-consideration, and the voting by orders averted by a back-down on the part of the High-Churchmen. This was only introductory to a noisy scene over a motion of Col. Dennison's opposing ritu alism, during which the Bishop lost his temper, and which ended by the resolution being passed amid considerable hubbub. Notwithstanding the feeling which existed, however, the people of l'oronto, being very strongly attached to the Church ment, choosing rather to watch and wait patience is not inexhaustible. It is now reported that a regular secession has tak en place in connection with the Church of the Holy Trinity -a Church noted for its ritualistic practices, where auricular confession, transubstantiation, and doctrines of a similar nature are weekly enunciated from the pulpit. It is well known that a large proportion of the congregation Mr. James I, Fellows-Dear Sir: in order had no sympathy with these things, and it is reported that on Tuesday last a deputation waited upon His Lordship ill with Disease of the Heart, accutapa-Bishop Bethane requesting him to divide | nied by violent palpitation, and from the the parish, which is an extensive and populous one, into two, and to appoint a certain reverend gentleman of Low Church | Compound Syrup of Hypophesphites was the upshot is that about a hundred of the sume my usual work, and now I am as well, petitioners have resolved to organize a Yours, very truly, W.
