The sad intelligence of the demise of a son of the Hon. D. Christie, Speaker the Senate, has reached this city. Mr. Christie had consented, at the request of the directors, to act as a judge at the Central Fair, which begins to day, but this untoward 'circumstance will prevent him fulfilling his obligation in this respect Much sympathy is evinced on all sides for the Hon. Speaker in his sad bereavement.

We understand that the Committee which has been sitting for the last five days to investigate the charges preferred against Mr. Arnoldi, Mechanical Engineer of the Department of Public Works, concluded their examination of the wit nesses last evening, and will lose no time in sending in their report to the Minister of Public Works. We understand that the charges have been in no way substan-
