PARIS, Dec. 22.—Alfonso, Prince of the Asturias, replying to an address of certain Spanish grandees says: "A monarchy alone can terminate the disorders and uncertainty which prevails in Spain." A majority of the people of Spain are agreed, and have declared their opinion that he only is the rightful representative of the Spanish Monarchy.

Boss Tweed Refused Release.

The Tweed habeas corpus case came up for argument before Justice Barrett in oyer and termener to-day. "Boss" was present with his counsel, Messrs. Dudley Field, Wm. Bartlett, Wm. O. Bartlett, E. Roat, Ex-Judge Fullerton, and Ex-Judge Comstock. District Attorney Phelps opened the case by stating that in the matter of writ papers, he thought the returns and answer contained no merits. Mr. Phelps moved that such matter in writ as seemed irrelevant should be struck out. Wheeler H. Prekham, who also appeared for the people, moved to strike out a portion of the answer, and after reading it over, desired that all paragraphs, except the first, second and ninthshould be left out. Mr. Dudley followed and argued that the motion could not be entertained. He thought that the motion to strike out part of the answer made by the other side amounted to a demurrer. After a great deal of argument Judge Barrett announced his decision, refusing to discharge the prisoner and dismissing the writ. Mr. Field then applied for a writ of certiorari, to be argued before the general term to-morrow, but the court stated that it would be preferable if the application would be made to some other justice. Shortly after this a writ of certiorari was granted by Justice Lawrence, on which the case will come up before the general term court.

LATER.—Only six men were killed by the boiler explosion in Shawana County yesterday. Another is so seriously injured that he will probably die.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Dec. 22.—In Woolsacket last evening a well dressed young man, helplessly intoxicated was committed to the lock-up, and at about 10 o'clock he was found to be dead. From an examination of baggage it is supposed that his name was William. Fox Croft. An inquest is being held.

PHILDELPHIA, Dec. 23.—A. K. Ross, father of the stolen boy, offers $5,000 reward for Charlie's return, and no questions asked, he being satisfied that the abductors were killed at Bay Ridge.

MONTREAL WEST ELECTION.

Argument before the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery. A Scrutiny of the Ballot Refused.

Yesterday morning, Mr. Thomas White, his counsel, Messrs. E. P. Davidson and Dr. McCord; and Messrs. McLaren and J. X. Archambault, counsel for Mr. Fred. Mackenzie, arrived in Ottawa, and were heard before Mr. Pope, Clerk of the Crown in Chancery, on the demand for a scrutiny of the ballots in the Montreal West election case.

Mr. DAVIDSON, on behalf of Mr. White, presented the order from Judge Beaudry, to Mr. Pope to allow a scrutiny of the ballot papers rejected and accepted.

Mr. MCLAREN presented the petition to the Superior Court, to have that order set aside, and on which Judge Berthelot had held the original order good, and declared the court had no power to revise the order of Judge Beaudry. He also presented a writ which he had taken in appeal from these adverse judgments to the Court of Queen's Bench. He maintained that this appeal suspended the judgments rendered, and that the functions of the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery were at an end in this matter, as it was now in the hands of a higher court.

Mr. DAVIDSON spoke at considerable length in support of the application, and Mr. McLaren replied to the arguments adduced. At the conclusion of their arguments,

Mr. POPE said he was of opinion that the order of Judge Beaudry's was not only an order for the inspection of the rejected ballots, but the accepted ones also, and by the Act there were to separate clauses defining the authority to issue such an order to grant an inspection of the accepted ballots.

On being asked by Mr Davidson if he considered that he had any right to enquire into the legality of an order issued by the Judge,

Mr POPE replied that he thought he had.

At the conclusion of the learned counsels' arguments, Mr. Pope asked for time to consider the matter, as it involved a new issue. Having to consult with the Minister of Justice, he asked the gentlemen to meet him at two o'clock.

At two o'clock, Mr. Pope said he had considered all the bearings of the case, and had come to the conclusion that there was ground for a writ of appeal being issued in it. He had, therefore, to decline permitting an inspection of the ballot papers. He held that the Judge occupied the same position as an Election Court, and the writ of appeal must be regarded as if issued from such a Court.

MERRIVALE.

Interesting Social.

MERRIVALE, Dec. 22.

To-night the Free Church here was crowded to excess, the attraction being a social in aid of the build funding for a new church. The Rev. Mr. Whellans occupied the chair. About half-past eight o'clock an abundant supply of excellent refreshments were served out, and heartily enjoyed. The more serious business then commenced, the programme consisting of addresses and vocal music pleasantly alternated. The Rev. Messrs. Short, Scarf, McDermott and Moore, Ottawa, gave interesting addresses, relieved by many humourous anecdotes. Rev. Mr. Moore spoke on "Modern Preaching," and the Rev. Mr. McDermott on "Some of the Ups and Downs in this World," in which he gave many notes of warning to old and young. During an interval, a handsome three storey Christmas cake was cut up and disposed of to the audience by two young ladies, for which they realised a handsome sum. The usual votes of thanks terminated a very enjoyable and successful meeting, the sum realized being over $50. There was a few visitors present from your city, tempted doubtless by their desire to aid, as well as by the prospective enjoyment of a moonlight sleigh drive, in which they were not disappointed, the weather being mild and pleasant, though snowing slightly.

TANNERIES SCANDAL INVESTIGATION.

Second Meeting of Committee.

MONTREAL, Dec. 22.

Mr. FRANK BOND, broker, was the first witness called this morning. About the middle of June Mr. Middlemiss spoke to him about the Tanneries property, and asked him if he could raise a loan of $50,000 on it. He knew that Middlemiss had an offer of the Leduc property from Mr. Rice in May. The object of the former in buying was simply to sell again and make money. He first heard of the exchange of the Leduc property for the Tanneries about July 6th, after the exchange had taken place. Mr. Middlemiss told him of it after his (witness,) return to the city, from which he had been absent since about June 26th. He only knew that a deed had passed between Mr. Middlemiss and his brother from the papers this morning. He saw none of the members of the Government in relation to this matter, and knew none of them by sight at that time. On his return on July 6th, his brother told him that he had advanced about $89,000 on the land, but did not tell him that they were interested in one-third of the property. Mr. Middlemiss suggested the sale to him. Mr. Middlemiss said that he could not realise on the property because of the discussion in the newspapers, and wanted to realize on it. The titles had been investigated by Messrs. Cross & Lunn, and they had been satisfied with it. He at that time did not know that there was 35 pounds per arpent on the property, nor did he till about two months ago. Mr. Middlemiss assured him several times that everything was correct. $30,000 for a third of the property was about 20 cents a foot. He did not know that a third of the property had been sold to Donald, and a third to McCormick and others till he saw it in the Witness. He had given Mr. Arnton instructions to sell the property. He had heard that an offer of $100,000 for the Leduc property had been made. Before he went away on June 26th, Mr. Middlemiss said he believed that he could get the Tanneries property, and asked witness if he could raise the money on it. Witness replied that he could, but said he knew the land could not be procured. Witness asked him how he could get the property, and Middlemiss said that it was none of his (witness') business.

J. R. MIDDLEMISS testified that he did not remember a conversation with an American gentleman on the cars on a
