STORM DRUM HOISTED. We learn from the Marine Department that the storm drum was ordered to be hoisted yesterday.

THE DOMINION TYPE FOUNDRY.

Whatever may be the peculiar views of individuals as to the best mode of promoting the trade and commerce of the country, whether we are protectionists or free-traders, we are unanimous in granting the general principle, that our manufacturing interests should be supported. Exception to this rule is of course justified by the circumstance that we may deal more profitably abroad, a circumstance which, however, when absent, leaves no reasonable ground for going out of the country to obtain that which can be as well supplied by our own people.

PROFESSOR FAWCETT.

In the February number of Harper's Monthly appears a short but very interesting sketch of one who has played in the past few years a not unimportant part in British politics, and one who is bound to play a much more important part in the future—we refer to Professor Fawcett. This very extraordinary man and his no less extraordinary wife have been regarded in this country as something akin to Communists, chiefly, we presume, because
