

A MYSTERY OF PARIS. The Paris journals relate the following: A young married pair, M. Bastien, an architect, and his wife, occupied an apartment on the fourth floor of a house...

Yesterday morning between six and seven o'clock, a bartender, employed in a saloon, Warren street, Jersey City, was proceeding to the store when he observed a man standing motionless against a lamp-post. He surveyed him for a few moments, then passed on. Soon afterwards a party of men entered the saloon, and the bartender recognized him as the man he had seen standing against the lamp-post. They laid him down near the stove. The bartender recognized him as the man he had seen standing against the lamp-post. They laid him down near the stove.

Having traced my 37-year-old Indian (subject), I am now giving my personal attention to my 70-year-old Indian (subject). I have been successful in my search, and have secured the services of a competent and experienced Indian doctor, who is now in the city of Ottawa, and who is prepared to give me the best of his services.
