Local Intelligence.

THE INSOLVENT LOTTERY MAN.—The case of T. E. Moore, the insolvent projector of the lottery scheme, will again come up before the courts on Monday, when his executor, Mr. O'Doherty, will make an application for his discharge.

LARCENY.—George Newbold, who a couple of weeks ago hired some new robes from Mr. P. Buckley and forgot to return them, was arrested and brought before the Police Magistrate yesterday on a charge of larceny. The case was remanded until to-day.

THE LICENSE QUESTION.—At a meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners, held on Wednesday evening, it was resolved to reduce to 100 the number of tavern and saloon licenses for the current year. The number of licenses granted last year was 120.

TO SENATORS AND M. P's.—Mrs. McIntyre (Wellington street, opposite the Bank of British North America) has a parlour and four bed-rooms suitable for Senators and members of Parliament, with or without board. The rooms are well warmed with stoves and drums; also, lofty ceilings and well ventilated.

ILLUMINATED.—Yesterday evening the Centre Block presented quite a lively appearance, lights gleaming from every window and illuminating Wellington street with their splendour. The extra light proved very acceptable, for the Corporation gas made but a very poor show, and some of the lamps went out altogether.

A DIFFICULT UNDERTAKING.—An unpleasant, and far from easy job was that undertaken on Wednesday night by Mr. George Macdonald, of the Montreal Telegraph Company, of putting up the wires of the Company at midnight, on Elgin street; what with the drawbacks of wind and darkness, it is a wonder that he succeeded with the work.

THE GALE LAST NIGHT.—The gale of Wednesday night calmed down during the early morning of yesterday, but only to resume with if possible greater fury last night. Fences were blown down in every direction, and the inmates of wooden houses felt themselves rocked to sleep if sleep any they did. There can be little doubt that the hurricane caused a considerable amount of damage, but no intelligence of anything serious has so far been received.

A NEW SET.—Yesterday afternoon quite a new lot of cabbies took their stand at the corners of Rideau and Sussex streets, allured doubtless by the increasing business caused by the opening of Parliament. Their vehicles and horses, however, were of a much inferior description to those who usually take their stand at that resort, but who on this occasion seemed to be all kept fully employed. The boisterous state of the weather, however, was a good caterer for them, and they got a fair amount of the public patronage.

EFFECTS OF THE STORM.—As a result of the furious gale of Wednesday night, the brick veneering of the rear of the new Opera house was blown down, demolishing the sheds in rear of Mr. Miles new brick block, known as "Trafalgar Place." It does not however effect the building any, as it is a substantial frame structure, independent of the veneering. The bricks were built too high, as they projected over the roof, giving the wind a purchase that ended in a portion of the wall being thrown down.

THE STREETS.—The state of the streets of the Capital yesterday was dangerous in the extreme, and many a rude shock did foot passengers receive by being suddenly precipitated to the earth. Though we have not heard of any actually serious accidents, still there were many which must have caused some sore bruises ness to the recipients. This should show conclusively how necessary it is that the street by-laws should be rigidly enforced. Some storekeepers carry out the spirit of the law at too late a date by chopping and hacking the ice-bound footways in front of their premises, making the path if anything more dangerous than before. In some instances, the footways for the length of a block have been cleaned bare, leaving an abrupt step dangerous in the extreme, while others much wiser in their generation, have simply scattered some ashes before their places of business, by far the best plan, if we except the one which ought to be followed, viz., cleaning the snow off when it falls, and thus preventing its accumulation in such unseemly and dangerous heaps.

GOWAN'S OPERA HOUSE.—Auber's beautiful opera Fra Diavalo was produced last night, the performers being better adapted to the several characters than in any of the previous pieces. The attendance although very good was not quite so large as on the other evenings owing, doubtless, to the levee being held in the Senate Chamber by His Excellency the Governor General. Mr. Brookhouse Bowler was quite at home in the character of Fra Diavolo, and as Lord and Lady Allcash Mr. Bowler and Miss Julia Holman left nothing to be desired. Miss Sallie Holman added another to her many triumphs as Perlina; and in the characters of Beppo and Giacome, Messrs. Holman and Ryan were unexceptional. Altogether Fra Diavolo must be admitted to have been the most successful of any yet performed by this talented troupe; and that it was thoroughly appreciated by the audience, was evident in the frequent bursts of applause. Miss Ida Carpenter, by her graceful dancing, and Professor Liberati by his playing, contributed much to the evening's entertainment.

BOARD OF PUBLIC SCHOOL TRUSTEES.

The Board of Public School Trustees were to have met in the City Hall last night, but a sufficient number of members to form a quorum did not come forward, and the meeting had to be postponed. The cause of the non attendance of members, we presume, is to be found in the opening of Parliament attracting them from their more prosaic duties.

THE EVENT OF THE NEW YEAR.—The holidays are ended, and the serious work of the New Year begins. The first important event before us is the last drawing of the Library Gift Concerts, which takes place in Louisville, Ky., February 27th. This drawing will as certainly take place on that date as the day arrives, and to guarantee this Gov. Bramlette offers to return their money to ticket holders if the drawing is not had at the time appointed. What more could be asked? All that is needed is to buy your tickets in time, and you may count on having your prizes on the 27th day of next February. 3745 d&w

VICE-REGAL DRAWING ROOM.

Brilliant Assemblage in the Senate Chamber.

THE NAMES OF THOSE PRESENTED.

His Excellency the Governor General held a Drawing Room in the Senate Chamber last night, when a large and brilliant assemblage was presented to him, comprising Senators, Members of the House of Commons, together with most of the leading ladies and gentlemen of the city. The Countess was unable, from indisposition, to be present, but Lady Harriet Fletcher and the Misses Hamilton were present. Notwithstanding the stormy night and disagreeable weather fully 500 ladies and gentlemen took part in the festivities of the occasion. His Excellency, attended by his suite, arrived at precisely 9 o'clock p. m., and was received by a Guard of Honour of the Foot Guards. Having taken his place on the throne, Ministers, Senators and Members of the House of Commons with their wives and daughters were first presented, followed by all other ladies and gentlemen present. The Dominion Police, under Superintendent O'Neil, proved of good service in keeping things in order and in accordance with the previously published regulations. The Guards' Band played several fine selections during the evening in the main lobby of the Senate Chamber. After presentation, the ladies and gentlemen promenaded the corridors and lobbies of both the Senate and House of Commons during the two hours the drawing room lasted. His Excellency and suite retired about 11 o'clock, the band playing the National Anthem. The following is a list of those presented to his Excellency the Governor General last night:—
