THE STORY OF THE PREEDMAN'S New Advertisements.

The New York Nation of the 15th instant has an interesting article on the rise and fall of this stupendous Radical swindle, by which thousands of ignorant and confiding negroes were robbed their hard barned savings by the saintly thieves who managed the affair.

The original act adopted in 1865 only contemplated the establishment of a savings bank in the District of Columbia and the corporators named in the bill were mostly men of good repute, although it was remarked with surprise that none of them resided in the District. At all events, the bill was favorably reported upon and adopted without debate, and the gentlemen above alluded to "and their successors" were constituted a body corporate under the title of the "Freed The Nation expresses a doubt as to the
