Daily & Weekly for 1875 describe them fully, fatts fully and fearlessly. The Weekly Sun has now attained a circula tion of over seven thousand copies. Its readers are found in every State and Territory, and its quality is well known to the public. We shall not only endeavour to keep it rully up to the old standard, but to improve and add to its variety and power.

The Weekly Sun will continue to be a thorough newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at full length when of moment, and always, we trust, treated in a clear, interesting and instrucmost scrupulous and delicate taste. It will always contain the most interesting stories and gibly printed.

The Agricultural Department is a prominent feature in the Weekly Sun, and its articles will always be found fresh and useful to the farmer. The number of men independent in politics is increasing, and the Weekly Sun is their paper especially. It belongs to no party, and obeys no dictation, contending for principle, and the election of the best men. It exposes the corruption that discreases the corruption that the corruption that disgraces the country and threatens the overthrow of republican institu-tions. HARPER'S WERKLY ILLUSTRATED.

The Weekly is the abject and most powerful illustrated periodical published in this country its editorials are scholarly and convincing, and carry much weight. Its illustrations of current evenus are full and from, and are prepared by or best designers. With a circulation of 150,000, where the standard is read by at least half a million person and its influence as no organ of opinion is simily tremendous. The Weskly maintains a posting position, and expresses decided views on point call and notial problems.—Louisville Observations.
