DITAWA, TUESDAY JUNE 1, 1875. THE LEADERSHIP OF THE OFPO SITION IN THE LOCAL LEGIS. LATURE.

ie. Mr. Cameron will calmiy cease to be, -That the Conservatives of South Simcoe in electing Mr. Macdougail to the Local Legislature, have virtually consented to the snutling out of Mr. M. C. Cameron, appears to be conceded on all hands, but that Mr. Cameron, notwithstanding his professed desire to see Mr. Macdougall re. turned, will be ready to abdicate the leadership with as much calmness as our contemporary appears to think, is a theory by no means universally accepted. The hon member for East Toronto, it is true, never neglected his lucrative practice in the courts in order to serve his party, but, fond as he is of the remunerative cases, he is not without his share of ambition-Admitted that he is not personally very well fitted to lead a party, he unfortunate ly does not believe so himself, and he is codure at the approaching Presbyterian not likely to give way without a struggle to a political Ishmaelite like the memberelect for South Simcoe, who never sat to sit in it except for his own aggrandizement, and who, to use Mr. Cameron's own expressions regarding him, has "boxed the political compass." The Nation says of Mr. Macdongall that he "his reputation for consistency as a siev "defies the threat of perforation." Th simile is worthy of being preserved. But Mr. Macdougall's reputation for con sistency is like a sieve for another reason : a common expression, it "won't hold is the very pink of consistency. His ideas are as old as the hills, and have not altered or advanced one whit since the days of the family compact.
