PHOTOGRAPHER.—J. Topley is ready for business in his temporary premises, Ritchie's block. 3867 1w.

Milwaukee Lager Beer for Sale at D. McDonell, 66 Sussex Street. 3871

EXCURSION.—A large number of persons went down to the Caledonia Springs on Saturday on the Queen and will return this morning at half past eight.

IMPROVING.—Alexander Beatty, who was injured some days ago whilst employed on the main sewer is steadily improving and there is strong hopes of his recovery.

PROTESTANT HOSPITAL.—Visitors this week are: Directors, Messrs. W. H. Thistle, and C. B. Wright; Clergy, Revds. G. M. Higginson, and A. A. Cameron; Dr. C. Church.

DARKNESS.—There was some complaint on account of the gas lamps not being lit last night. It was not a very easy task for pedestrians to travel in the dark.

IMMIGRANT ARRIVALS.—Fifteen emigrant servant girls arrived in town on Saturday morning, and were with one or two exceptions, secured employment at the Russell House.

BUSH FIRES.—Two hand engines, the Ottawa and the Rideau, were sent down the Ottawa on Saturday, by the Maude, to check the fires, reported as raging in the neighbourhood of North Nations.

GEORGIA MINSTRELS.—This pleasing combination appear to-morrow and the following night, in their entertaining roles in Gowan's Opera House. They will doubtless have a crowded house.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. Buckley had another of his fine buggies, broken yesterday. It seems that he hired it to a young gentleman, yesterday, who got somewhat intoxicated, and allowed the horse to run away.

GOWAN'S OPERA HOUSE.—The Rev. Mr. Robson, preached a very effective sermon at the morning services at this place of service. There was a very large congregation present at both the morning and evening services.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.—The usual Sunday evening services were held last night in the rooms of the above Association at the corner of Sparks and O'Connor streets. Several very interesting addresses were delivered to an appreciative and intelligent audience.

NEARLY DROWNED.—On Friday evening last as a number of little boys were playing on the Swing Bridge over the Rideau Canal on Bank Street road, one of their number accidentally fell into the water beneath and would have been drowned but for the timely arrival of Mr. John Scott, a young man of about eighteen years, who jumped in and rescued him after he had sank four times. The boy was carried away in an insensible condition.

EXCITEMENT PREVAILING.—Messrs. Baskerville & Brothers have been getting in a wonderfully large stock of general groceries, teas in particular, wines, liquors, and provisions, which shows they are determined to do business, and assist their customers. Their direct importation of wines, gin and brandies this season, not withstanding the depressed state of the country from causes yet to be seen, also proves they are looking for a better future. Although the duties and taxes are heavier than in former years, they are offering goods at lower prices, and invite the public to take a trial of their goods. Wholesale and retail, remember, at 36 Rideau street; Duke Street, Chaudiere; Sussex street, opposite Murray street; and their wholesale store on George street, second to none in this city. 3874tf

CHURCH SERVICES.—A number of our city pulpits were occupied yesterday by strange faces. This is the season of the year during which the various religious denominations hold their annual meetings, and in connection with which a good deal of pulpit interchange takes place. Several reverend gentlemen from the Maritime Provinces, who were in attendance at the meetings just held in Montreal, took occasion to visit the capital, and occupied the pulpits of the different Presbyterian churches yesterday. In the evening at 8.15, a special meeting was held in Knox Church, to hear from these gentlemen intelligence in reference to a remarkable revival work now and for some time going on in several sections of Prince Edward Island. The meeting was well attended, and the addresses were [illegible]ing, and gave striking instance[illegible] the great and good results of the revival work.
