Local intelligence.

ARRIVAL AT FATHER POINT.—The steamship Polyphemus arrived at Father Point yesterday at 4 p.m.

THE OTTAWA CRICKET CLUB.—The members of this club left town on Saturday on their annual cricket tour. They play their inaugural match to-day with Port Hope.

ON DUTY.—Mr. W. M. Somerville left for Carleton Place on Saturday, to measure a new vessel, the "Witch of the Waves," just launched on the Mississippi river.

THE SLEEPING BEAUTY in Forepaugh's Museum was accosted by a son of Erin, the other day, and asked if it weren't about time to get up, and appear civil to those who come to see her.

BAPTIST CHURCH.—The Rev. Mr. Dodson preached in the Baptist Church yesterday at both services. The Rev. Mr. Cameron, the pastor, has gone West, since coming out of the hospital, after his recent illness.

HIS ARRIVAL EXPECTED.—Dr. J. A. Grant of this city, who went to Europe with His Excellency the Governor General, is expected to arrive home to-morrow. He is a passenger by the steamship Polyphemus, which is hourly expected at Father Point.

A BODY FOUND.—A body was found floating in the Ottawa river opposite Gill's wharf, in Templeton, the other day. It has since been identified as the body of one Potvin, who was out several days ago on a fishing excursion and was drowned.

A CORRECTION.—A slight error occurred in our issue of Sunday in stating the cost of the "Royal Exchange" Hotel to be $15,000. Mr. Acres, paid $25,000 for this splendid property. The hotel will be ready for the reception of guests on the 1st of September.

BALLOON ARRIVAL.—Prof. Squires' balloon arrived in town on Saturday by the St. Lawrence and Ottawa Railways, and awaits the arrival of the great aeronaut, who is ready to make his ascent to-morrow or the next day. This will be the great feature of the O'Connell centennial celebration in the capital.

RAILWAY GUIDE.—The International Railway and Navigation Guide for August, published in the Canadian Journal of Montreal, is to hand. It is replete with the usual information necessary for the travelling community. At this season of the year it must prove an invaluable handbook. It is to be had in almost all the book stores.

CITY COUNCIL.—There will be a regular meeting of the City Council held this evening in the City Hall. Considerable business of importance requires the attention of the City Fathers. Let there be no skirting around the street corners to-night, or you may incur a quorum at seven o'clock. The city expects every alderman to do his duty.

ANOTHER HOTEL.—The place recently refitted and reopened by Mr. L. K. Clisby on the corner of Elgin and Wellington streets, is ready to receive its first guests. It was formerly called the "National House," but will henceforth be known as the "Clisby House." Our citizens seem alive to the necessity for accommodation at the forthcoming exhibition.

ANNIVERSARY FESTIVALS.—Yesterday was the anniversary of the emancipation of the negroes of the West Indies by Great Britain, and was duly observed by the coloured people of Ottawa. A fine repast was served at the George Washington Inn, York Street, Dan Rice presided, and speeches suitable to the occasion delivered. The day will be more generally observed to-day throughout the Dominion.

LAWCOURT.—A person named Alexander Ross was arrested on Saturday by Superintendent of the Ottawa and District Police for the larceny of a metal drum from the Government workshops. This man had been suspected for some time of being light-fingered, and a watch was put upon his movements, resulting in his capture in the most obvious manner. He will be arraigned before the Justice of the Peace this morning.

FAILURES.—It would seem that failures are not alone peculiar to the great monetary centers of Europe and America, for the same spirit of carelessness has received the infection. A number of houses in this city slipped down and out on Saturday, and their liabilities are said to amount to a considerable sum. The great stagnation in business and the recent pressure of the monetary market has no doubt been the cause of these bankruptcies.

CALDONIA SPRINGS.—Another excursion party visited the Springs on Saturday afternoon by the Queen Victoria. A good time was enjoyed, and the independent character of the tour contributed much to the enjoyment of the trip. The house where it has been engaged for a summer season. A programme is in the course of preparation for a regular turf meeting and other sports early in September. It will consist of steeples, chase, fox hunting and other amusements, all particular will be forthcoming in a few days.

CROCKET.—The following members of the Ottawa Cricket Club took their departure on Saturday night by the 9.30 train of the Ottawa and Lawrence Railway to play a friendly match with Western cities. Hon. T. D. Phillips, Messrs. Agar, W. R. Baker, C. B. Bowles, J. Brunsell, J. Burke, W. Fitzgerald, W. Hinshaw, G. McFarlane, Granit Howell, C. Scott, J. Smith, A. Taylor, with W. Mercer as captain. They will play in York, Hope to-day, Toronto to-morrow, in St. Catharines on Wednesday and in Niagara Falls on Thursday. They will in all probability play Kingston and Cobourg on the way home. It is to be hoped the club may have a successful as well as pleasant tour.

ARRIVED IN TOWN.—The members of Murray's circus arrived in town yesterday and are stopping at the Albion Hotel.

FIGHT ON CLARENCE STREET.—A fight occurred on Clarence street yesterday morning between two shantymen.

JUDGMENT COURT.—There was no session of this court for today, owing to the legal vacation. The next sittings of the court will be held on the last Friday of August.

REUBER HOSPITAL.—Another one thousand feet were laid for the use of the fire brigade arrived in the city on Saturday, and will be secured in the George street fire station.

TAKING UP A RESIDENCE.—The Hon. Mr. Bruce has leased a large house recently occupied by His Honour the Lieutenant Governor of Ontario, namely opposite the Normal School, which he will constitute his permanent private residence while a resident of Ottawa.

TEA-CHARGE.—The Rev. Dr. Borwick, A.M., Inspector of Public Schools in this city, has been appointed pastor of the Hull Presbyterian Church. This necessitates the resignation of that gentle man from the position which he has held for some time in connection with the public schools of the city.

THE CIRCUS.—John H. Murray's Circus has arrived in the city, and will make its great détour of the city. The first performance will commence at 10 o'clock and the last this evening. These deserts of seeing one of the best circuses on the road should not fail to see this one. It will exhibit in Hull to-morrow.

SMAL POX.—There is not a single case of small pox now in the city under the care of Dr. G. L. Lyman, the Health officer, the last case having been reported in the capital on Friday last. This state of things condition of things is attributable to the vigorous measures taken during the last year by the Health Officer and his subordinates to eradicate the disease.

THE CAR STAND.—A petition will be presented to the City Council asking for the removal of the car stand from the corner of Rideau and Sussex to some more suitable quarter. It has been suggested that the centre of the city would be better suited for the car stand, the main sewer is completed, and the street paved.

EDWARD BOADEAUX was up for a similar offence but it being his first offence he was let off with the usual caution.

JOHN MEADE was charged with being drunk on a sidewalk. He was also charged with disorderly conduct.

W. E. SPARKE was arraigned on a charge of obtaining goods under false pretences from one Westgate, a tailor. The case was adjourned for further evidence.

W. E. SPARKE was arraigned on a charge of obtaining goods under false pretences from one Westgate, a tailor. The case was adjourned till Monday.

THE LAST HOME GONE.—The last of the home tenements on the Bay Ward Market Square has been removed by Mr. Hugh Hindle, and is now on its way down York Street to King street, up King to Deseronto, and so on to the rear of the old Deseronto building.

The removal of these structures all that is now necessary to completely place this property at the disposal of the Market Committee for the purposes for which it was originally intended. It is to the honour of the City Council, will not further delay in this matter, and the improvements of the square, but at once strengthen the hands of the Committee to complete the proposed market extension.

SAW LOU.—

FURNITURE.—At No. 5, Rideau Street, Hamilton Bros. have on hand a very large stock of furniture, every description and of the newest style.
