Local Notice-St. Patrick's Literary As-

Authorised Discount.-J. Johnson.

OTTAWA, MONDAY, AUGUST 9, 187

OTTAWA COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE

The attention of our readers may be rected to the important changes to b introduced into the Collegiate Institute on its re opening in the new building, on the 16th instant. The first important change to all, without distinction of creed or of higher education, contend that serving boys have in the past been practically excluded from the Collegiate Insti tute on account of the fees. A fail opportunity is now afforded of testing the most satisfactory manner how much belief that in the immediate future the open freely to all pupils who of course come up to the required standard. There are in our midst many parents alive to the great benefits of a thorough education for free education anticipated. exercises were conducted in the past, the admission of girls was simply an impossilarge number of girls passed most creditably. All who passed such examinations and successfully, are now eligible for admission to the Collegiate Institute, and we hope to pupils to the Collegiate Institute, a very to the Collegiate Institute, and we hope to see many of them making this privilege available. In other cities large numbers of girls are taking a full High School course. Toronto, for example, has more than one fitting themselves for teaching, or merely receiving a superior English education without having any special professional placed within their reach they will doubt by doing which they will demonstrate at once the success which the promoters of Deeming, the subject of grave impor' ance to the ratepayers of the city, who necessary for the efficient maintenance of the School, we gladly through our columps call the attention of all interested to these changes and sincerely hope that in raising still further the alre dy high | Bowmanville. and well earned educational status of the Uttawa Collegiate Institute.

ASSIGNEES.

The coming into effect of the Insolvent appointment at an early day of Official Assignees. The new Act becomes law on the first proximo, and one of its chief provisions is that an Official Assignees or the public, but to make a selection from the purposes, he said, returning to New in its transit over the nations of the when related to protective the public to make a selection from the purposes, he said, returning to New in its transit over the nations of the when related to protective the public to make a selection from the purposes, he said, returning to New in its transit over the nations of the purposes, he said, returning to New in its transit over the nations of the purposes, he said, returning to New in its transit over the nations of the purposes, he said, returning to New in its transit over the nations of the purposes, he said, returning to New in its transit over the nations of the purposes, he said, returning to New in its transit over the nations of the purposes, he said, returning to New in its transit over the nations of the purposes, he said, returning to New in its transit over the nations of the purposes, he said, returning to New in its transit over the nations of the purposes, he said, returning to New in its transit over the nations of the purposes, he said, returning to New in its transit over the nations of the purposes, he said, returning to New in its transit over the nations of the purposes, he said, returning to New in its transit over the nations of the purposes, he said, returning to New in its transit over the nations of the purposes, he said, returning to New in its transit over the nations of the purposes, he said, returning to New in its transit over the nations of the purposes, he said, returning to New in its transit over the nations of the purposes, he said, returning to New in its transit over the nations of the nations not arise. But in the event of the giving real object, the registration of insolvency statistics. Under the new Act every Pic Nic Postponed - Bank Street Church. | Assignee is required to keep a register, shewing the name of each insolvent whose estate had come into his hands, bis residence, place of business, and the nature of his trade or business, the amount of liabilities and assets, the amount of dividend or composition, with a variety of other particulars. This register will be Il appointed, the Official Assignee must the centennial of the birthday of surrender the estate, is required to pre- illustrious Daniel O'Connell. ing is closed by the distribution of the the state and the discharge of the Ipsolvent the tof each to precure all the business and on the Major's Hill every preparation the purposes of a public register and the otherwise than by the appointment of e following from the Presbyterian Witn that Province :- "Mr. J. A. MacCabe of the Normal School, has been appoint-If he accepts the new situation his loss

G. B. Hadley, of Port Mulgrave, N. S.

CIRCULATION AND SPECIE.

ment Savings Banks on May 31st last, was with gold and light, chants as on great

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES,

THE INSOLVENT ACT AND THE amended and mo lifted as follows, viz

2000 lbs avoirdup: is (or 20 centals) to

GOWAN'S OPERA BUUSE.

patronage accorded him, and also for the ing from our reverence to the etersuredly be not to find gentlemen abun- uniformly kind treatment extended to nal laws of justice spreads with dantly able and withat willing to serve the members, both on and off the stage. a wave that gathers political force

The Day's Amusements

Concert and Banquet, Speeches, &c., &c.

It is much to be regretted that unfavorable weather should have interrupted appointed by the creditors, and to whom, were gxed to take place on Friday last, pare this register, and when the proceed now more than six weeks since giant hand tore from the shackled form began to hold their meetings, collect subthe Father of his Country, in keeping with Tach has an office, and it will be the in the grounds at the foot of Elgin street, immortal O'Connell.

nial panegyric of Ireland's Liberator. theme of praise that occupies the attention of so many millions to-day.

Notice is given that application | Providence that through the instrumenland Bank of Canada," head office at and led a people bleeding in the thraidom of persecution to the consolations of a free the time of our national sentiment he was accustomed to wield over his own O'Connell was free. All that night and of the leading Protestants of the city:— that liberty, and speeches of the enthusiastic | millions : to have turned out of one all the next day the joyous tidings were and speeches of the enthusiastic ministry and kept in another; to have announced, till the winged messenger of there come to us the echo of a mighty rethere come to us the echo of a mighty recurrent then from the majestic flow of amongst the wilds of Kerry-all contribute to thank God she could clasp again to her praise." Ecc. 44. feelings of our national indignatio 1 quaff plunge headlong into destruction? in fancy the bloody cup of revenge and The principles of O'Connell were based chain of penal enactment which he with triumph in the futu e.

of thought with which he commenced his were on that day offered by Irishmen and | destined to shine on in the ultimate tri-of the Catholic Church, but it was required the opposition of crowned royalty itself, and the bitter religious acrimony of a self-interested heresy that was rooted in the soil for three hundred years, mistress of the lands of the communications of the Catholic the lands of the nave of the lands of the nave proved that which had cost other nations the loss studied history, but in that science I faithful as regards the former, she had confess my incapacity to find the warning rung from the felon's cell of the warning rung from the f his own people accused of rashness McGee. simple citizen, strong only in his eloquence and sustained by his religion, shook to .ts not the revolution of a faction foundation the throne of the persecutor shall gain the full emanci ration of Ireand wrested from them the emancipation land; the most casual student of her power that swayed the destinies of nations, the prophet of her future independence.

merce of the world was conquered by as a necessity in the eventualities of time ad mapped out the world like another of O'Connell that bears with prophetic and perhaps never again shal be dis- iscences of childhood a fact we witnessed played such an array of military power over 30 years ago in the dear old capital and genius, yet from a rock in the South of Ireland. In their chagrin at disapern Atlantic there comes the sigh of blast- pointment and bitter jealousy at dean of Windsor." Doubtless this was tence said, "If such practices as have one of those startling events which the taken place in the present instance when related to posterity, -Opus factum by jury shall become a mockery, a deluance of her hopes the sunrise of her liberty bursting through the dark clouds that heretofore shrouded the horizon of the claims of humanity, nor even the last claims of humanity. the claims of humanity, nor even the of Howth and across the Wicklow moun- ascended the pulpit and made the fol- this his greatest and grandest possession her future.

It is said the Irish harp can breathe policy of self-protection could wrest from tains; the engine driver snatching the lowing eloquent discourse proper to the Is it not liberty? practical liberty, for a England; to have acquired in the British flag from the mast-head, plants it in front occasion, which was listened to through on hostile ground, and in the de- of his engine and darts forward, swift as by the operator. Varied and enequered the state of life, an influence like that which the wind, proclaiming in his course vast assembly, among whom were many idea of liberty there; the realization of time sigh in the gentle ripple of a the barbed shafts of an eloquence cradled with a mighty weight of sorrow, rose up tts glay beacon skill the joth to liberty and Proudhon, were to give us a new fangled religion for our Christianity, a Koran for our Bible. Deprived of education, of for our Bible. Deprived of education, of property, of freedom, Ireland writhed in the agony of degralation under the tyranny that overshadowed her.

Seedow the sword against the Irish, spirit of '98 from its crimson tomb, for no sooner had the guiding spirit of '98 from its crimson tomb, for no sooner had the guiding spirit of '98 from its crimson tomb, for no sooner had the guiding spirit of '98 from its crimson tomb, for no sooner had the guiding spirit of '98 from its crimson tomb, for no sooner had the guiding spirit of '98 from its crimson tomb, for no sooner had the guiding spirit of '98 from its crimson tomb, for no sooner had the guiding spirit of '98 from its crimson tomb, for no sooner had the guiding spirit of '98 from its crimson tomb, for no sooner had the guiding spirit of '98 from its crimson tomb, for no sooner had the guiding spirit of '98 from its crimson tomb, for no sooner had the guiding spirit of '98 from its crimson tomb, for no sooner had the guiding spirit of '98 from its crimson tomb, for no sooner had the guiding spirit of '98 from its crimson tomb, for no sooner had the guiding spirit of '98 from its crimson tomb, for no sooner had the guiding spirit of '98 from its crimson tomb, for no sooner had the guiding spirit of '98 from its crimson tomb, for no sooner had the guiding spirit of '98 from its crimson tomb, for no sooner had the guiding spirit of '98 from its crimson tomb, spirit of '98 from its crimson tomb, for no sooner had the guiding spirit of '98 from its crimson tomb, spirit of '98 from its crimson to when a few desperate men applied the At length her hour came, not that she torch to the pent up feelings of national to trample down or extinguish a hated can give assurance to those whom we poused the cause of justice and of right, all shook off, like another Sampson, the bonds of the harlot, but liberty came like the gentle heat of the sunrise that dispels the mists of the mists o the triumph of emancipation in Ireland Alas! to our misfortune it must be said or even to weaken them. They have ac one that the nations most loved by God monster meetings, he taught the p victory on record. Before O'Connell. Look into her political career as compared the country into the horrors of civil war by says Ventura in his eloquent panegyric, a hopeless appeal to the unequal contest rently threatening to swamp our instituwere arrayed political interests, the of arms, who in spite of the triumph of tions, if not to overwhelm ourselves. I she had at first received and you will find the shedding of a single drop of blood. supremacy of property, national antipathy. the spirit of O'Connell in his peaceful am not ignorant of history. I have that, if to the latter she have proved that which had cost other nations the loss the lands, of the funds, of the navy, of the Hieararchy would unfurl the banner of under the dome of St. Peter's Church at for that faith than did Ireland. She re- determined yet placed face he looked into army, of the Parliament; in fine, against revolution and invoke on poor Ireland Rome peruse with the faith of a Catholic ceived it in its purity, for hundreds of that code of laws which was crushing him were arrayed all the power of wealth, the woes of the past. We blush in symwould erroneously ally themselves to the spirit that has begotten the International of hell shall not prevail against it "- was made that that life should be taken was too much, that gaze had but little pathy for the lovers of our country who very city shed the blood of D'Arcy history." Alexander for his conquest. His preparations for the invasion of the British Is es and on the politics of the Home Rule.

Instead of these filled their minds with thoughts of showing the greatest contempt thanked his God who had shown Ireland so the greatest contempt thanked his God who had shown Ireland so the greatest contempt thanked his God who had shown Ireland so the greatest contempt thanked his God who had shown Ireland so for a nation upon which they had already much mercy, so much favour, so much were vast and comprehensive-never before avitation; we quote from the hazy remin. unlearned and the seditious, will interpret inflicted the most exquisite torture! love! My brethren, now a days we are official Assignees, or Joint Official Assignees, and the Popular Assignees, or Joint Official Assignees, and the Popular Assignees, or Joint Official Assignees, or Joint Official Assignees, or Joint Official Assignees, or Joint Official Assignees, and the Popular Assignees, or Joint Official Assignees, and the Popular Assignees, or Joint Official Assignees, or J In this, as in the ordinary cases of vacancy of this Contempolar of the Frederick of the Contempolar of the Frederick of the continued calls made his appearance and thanked the audience for the liberal patronage accorded him, and also for the patronage accorded him, and also for the liberal ing from our reverence to the eter-arrangements to have the celebration here lot must steer the bark. St John has got on lot must steer the bark. is all clear sailing, since there is only one a fitting homage to him so justly styled his sacred escutcheon, the eagle that some fatting homage to him so justly styled his sacred escutcheon, the eagle that some fatting homage to him so justly styled his sacred escutcheon, the eagle that some fatting homage to him so justly styled his sacred escutcheon, the eagle that some fatting homage to him so justly styled his sacred escutcheon, the eagle that some fatting homage to him so justly styled his sacred escutcheon. his sacred escutcheon, the eagle that soars aloft to the sun, intimating the sublimity of thought with which he commenced his their high position amongst the other nationalities of the Dominion, and worthy nationalities of the Dominion, and worthy wings of lancy to the sellings by which Thus it was with Ireland. No longer did to hold a prominent place in the initial tury and contemplate to the approbation of tyranny has no mercy; distrust death and destruction over our hapless they are actuated,—feelings of respect, of they are actuated,—feelings of respect, and they are actuated,—feelings of respect, and they are actuated,—feelings of respect, and they are actuated,—feelings of respect, their descendents all over the world. On umphs of the spirit, and the policy of the fetters increase in weight, chains are until in the calm and the sunshine we who, when in life, was virtuous and in of the sciences were denied her children, multiplied, despotism more cruel and shall see it cast in the miserable frag death was full of peace. Thus it is to-day. they were deprived of that which in truth The dealings of God towards men seem persecution more pitiless. But the ments of a wreck on the shores of regenpossible. Each will be bound to keep a made for entertaining the thous and expected to be present. Ref. eshment of the providence of God over the cradle register of the Insolvents who have gone booths, stands, and dancing platforms of humanity we are struck at the visible crouch down like a slave to bite Newman, some forty years age, "old in its of gratitude, that love which comes from days of their giory had vanished; thus rough his hands. And when the public had been erected; bands were there, as and intimate alliance that existed between the dust and be contented; but Christianity, young in its promise of the God and opening out their hearts the they felt that from slavery, powerly and city specially for the occasion; balloon the God of their armies; his angels were spiritual weapons, constancy, meekness, fore the Saxon came to Britain and which vidual, rushing down the bank of time of consequence was slowly deve ascension, orations, and a pyrotechnic dis seen fighting in the battle field against patience and prayer—arms whose success has never questioned it, a church which one hundred years, unite and form an self—and that was the last step in their anomalous that the intermediate links as certain as they are peaceful and comprehends in its history the rise and local of one. The preliminary play had been provided for, but all to no the enemies of his people; pondering is as certain as they are peaceful and comprehends in its history the rise and local of one. The preliminary play had been provided for, but all to no the enemies of his people; pondering is as certain as they are peaceful and comprehends in its history the rise and local of the enemies of his people; pondering is as certain as they are peaceful and comprehends in its history the rise and local of the enemies of his people; pondering is as certain as they are peaceful and comprehends in its history the rise and local of the enemies of his people; pondering is as certain as they are peaceful and comprehends in its history the rise and local of the enemies of his people; pondering is as certain as they are peaceful and comprehends in its history the rise and local of the enemies of his people; pondering is as certain as they are peaceful and comprehends in its history the rise and local of the enemies of his people; pondering is as certain as they are peaceful and comprehends in its history the rise and local of the enemies of his people; pondering is as certain as they are peaceful and comprehends in its history the rise and local of the enemies of his people is peaceful and comprehends in its history the rise and local of the enemies of his people is peaceful and comprehends in its history the rise and local of the enemies of his people is peaceful and local of the enemies of his people is peaceful and local of the enemies of his people is peaceful and local of the enemies of his people is peaceful and local of the enemies of his people is people is peaceful and local of the enemies of his people is peaceful and local of the enemies of his people is peaceful and local of the enemies of his people is peaceful and local of the enemies of his people is people is people is people is people is peo via, the High Schools or Collegiate Insti- pro cedings in all cases will be taken by purpose. Hardly had the day's sport over the catastrophe of the Red Se, the divine. We vanquish the persecutor fall of Canterbury and York, which Aututes, should not partake of the same the Official Assignee. Then, in many begun when a drenching run, a genuine prolonged day of Joshua, the tragedy of line by shed prolonged day of Joshua, the tragedy of line by shed prolonged day of Joshua, the tragedy of line by shed prolonged day of Joshua, the tragedy of line by shed prolonged day of Joshua, the tragedy of line by shed prolonged day of Joshua, the tragedy of line by shed line of the same perpendicular down pour, set in which "Hologenes", the burning or Sodom and ding his, the martyr in his grave is more Fisher left behind them; I contemplate 6th of August, 1775, He came from a derful in all His works, ever the sasis and the effect of at once driving the more the Slaughter of Sennacherib, we miss terrible to the tyrant than the rebel who a people which has had a long night and family which claimed to be of royal de tance of those who place their trust in gaily attire I and fairer of the sex preci the rule of terror from the dispensations meets him in arms on the battle field. | will have an inevitable day, I am scent; the pure blood of the Celt Him, God, who in His own good time, as Ottawa is concerned, by the commend part of the new covenant; the thunders of the new covenant is the new covenant is the new covenant. able liberality of the High Scho | Trustees, will be with the Official Assignee, A, while companions engrossed in the games, indignation are silent; the arrows of the doctrine which is alone safe and prumusic, and the sights, and vengeance are quivered; no angels fight dent was seized by () Connell, proclaimed I am gazing become the road of anxious gaze and the directing hand of vided for Ireland in the hour of her singing to a fond but vain our battles; no prophets are sent to in his addresses, embodied in the facts passage and union and the centre of the an Irish mother. When he was thirteen greatest necessity, a leader and a deliverer, hope that fair weather might eventually (smite with a rod of iron. Providence and events of his career. It was the world." Then will come the moon of .years of age, the odious laws which con- and that man was Daniel O'Connell! cure the great advantage at thorough the other part of the record with Official prevail, remained, availing themselves of sleeps like the Saviour on the bark; the Labarum of his triumph. In the cities of legender the degree old sleeps like the Saviour on the bark; the labarum of his triumph. In the cities of legender the degree old sleeps like the Saviour on the bark; the labarum of his triumph. such scaut shelter as they could find, or storm of persecution rages around his Waterford, Limerick and Dublin and on abbeys whose crumbling ivy-clai ruins ren had been so far removed, that a class watch tower of his genius, upon the sea manfully braving rain and wand; but the church and his people, one crushed the hill of Tara, where nearly a million stand in silent majesty, as the sad memelements had the best of it in the un under a weight of human sorrow to the and a half of his countrymen had assem orials of bygone glory, will lift their thither () Connell repaired 'neath the covered the land, he beheld a sorry sight ultimate object of affording important sta- equal contest, and summarily put to rout last moment of endurance when he hears bled he appealed to the principles of shades of that house the slender tree indeed. In looking upon his country he even the most ardent of the male pleasure the expiring cry of his perishing children, peaceful agitation. "Men of Ireland," he of old, the lamp of science will burn again which was yet to burst forth in great exseekers, and put an end to the sports. and commands the calm For three cen. said, "he who violates the laws betrays in their venerable sanctuaries, and the uberance, which was yet to shelter, not and her strength well spent. The pulse of only one Official Assignee for each county, was sultry, with an easterly wind, and wept and prayed from the crypths of the land of saints and other lands as well, from oppression, was her faculties were all disordered. The at any rate for each registration dis- large crowds in holiday attire might be eternal city but not until their enemies pressors desire nothing so much as to see scholars. The day must come when a flag nursed, and strengthened, and sustained people lay suffering from a drea-lful fever seen wending their way to St. Patrick's | had raised monuments to commemorate | you in arms-to hear you utter seditions of green silk with the golden harp of Erin | till it acquired sufficient strength to be of oppression, prostrate under the lash of their annihilation did He send a Libera | cries against the Government in order shall float over the old houses of Parlia transplanted to a greater garden of learn | the law, they were disunited !! Yes, they day's proceedings were very appropriately tor with the triumphant forces of the that they may have new pretexts to ment in the venerable capital of other ing, to the College of St. Omers. From were divided because in their sickness opened with services, of which the follow. Labarum thundering down the sides of oppress you still more; the day in which the follow- Labarum thundering down the sides of oppress you still more; the day in which the followthe Airs. Through a long dark night of Ireland shall have recourse to force she Shells, the Burkes and Grattons of a more from the latter to the former house, because in their troubles of the past there THE SERVICE AT THE CATHEDRAL. three centuries of persecution les will lose all hope of recovering her lib- rising generation shall inherit the spirit and from St. Omers the French revolution had been no leave for united prayer. land wept over her rifled sane orty." Doubtless the great tribune had of their fathers and legislate in forensic drove him to England. In the year 1793 O'Connell felt that he had a duty to per-An immense congregation assembled at tuaries - her blighted hopes when been schooled in the theology of terrible eloquence for the weal of their country, the profession of the law was thrown open form. God must have signified such to through a fissure in the heavens facts; the horrors of the French revolu- and over that assembly will reign and to Catholics. O'Connell embraced the him. The great Liberator took unto himthat seemed to be made of bronze, there tion had chilled his heart; the sigh of preside the spirit of him whose marble bust, profession and in five years afterwards he self the children of Ireland, with kin ly came the murmur of pity. "The cry of misery rolled around the fortress walls of crowned by the symbolic Goddess of Lib- was called to the bar. In the year 1800 words he soothed their troubles and raised Rev. Dr. O'Reilly delivered a Sermon, the children of Israel ascended unto me, Donai and St. Omers, and these thrilling erty, shall look down on the Speaker's he made his first public speech, when he their dropping spirits. Even as at times which for depth of thought and elegance I have seen the afflictions their cruel op- memories were deepened into crime chair—the immortal Liberator of Ireland. had concluded, men said that God had the father in of diction we have seldom heard equalled. pressors heap upon them." As the tri- son glow by the fate of his own But my Lord, Reverend Father and given to Ireland and to the world, a great endowed with new vigor to fight the battle umph of Constantine gave civil and re- country in 1798. He saw the dearly beloved, we deal in prophecy, a man! He was one of the first, who, as a of life and contend with adverse fortune, ligious liberty to the persecuted Christians flower and strength of the land rush cloud passes over our vision-a sunset of Catholic dared to raise his head, since so the man, whose praise we celebrate to of old, so the great Emancipation connect with the madness of unguided patriotism crimson a night of blood a nation in the passing of a penal code, which for day, placed upon his breast the plate of ted with the name of this day's celebra, to the mouths of the English canon; the throes of dissolution in awful retri those whom it effected made death in righteousness and truth, resolving that tion was the providence of God giving smoking ruins and battle fields that were bution for a career of injustice! deed right bitter, but which, for men of since Go1 had given him talent relief to the suffering children of Ireland. turned to graveyards, told their tale of Babylon and Rome were mighty honour and worth, made life worse. It is strange power, so would be use these gifts capitals in the history of the not my intention to preach for you an in the cause of his persecuted country. past, numbering three millions of inhabit- historical panegyric of the great Liberator. | men, so would be spend his days in that wild an i luri. If ht. so that prove stra gie, but I and have, did with written at midnight in letters of fire in for our admiration. I will speak of him the power of the praise of the Creator, in With I s one grand and glorious flash a century the hall of the sacreligious feast; for the as a Christian, as one who loved his God, a just demand of respect for sacred free other a barbarian chief was led on by consequently who loved his fellow-man, will. O'Connell's mission was an arduous some invisible power to destroy the scarlet | who spent his life in the service of truth's one. Not alone had he to lead the people > retribution Qui potest capere, capiat. that the Church calls upon us to unite in small difficulty since they were rendered "Not during one or twenty administra-tions," said Babington Macaulay, address-she calls praise. Hence it is that we persecution. Like a giant he went to his the inscription that is emblazoned years she guarded it with a jealous care! countrymen, he closed the book and around it, "Thou art Peter and on this So fond was she of it, that it became her with calm determination looked into the

ST. PATRICE'S CHERCH.

wisdom and the Church declare their current then from the majestic new of deep waters rush by in the thunder of to render the career of O'Connell the most bosom her noblest son. The Liberator entheir rapids. Which of the chords of our extraordinary, and his triumph with- tered Dublin in an ovation the most ennational harp shall we sweep in praise of out parallel in the annals of time." thusiastic ever given to the idol of the in inculcating upon the minds of her chilnational marp shall we sweep in praise of the mark the immortal Liberator? Shall we catch By what means did O'Connell effect people. He was seated in a trium dren the necessity of true veneration for them; the Creator and the creature had the immortal interaction in the creation and the creation across the bleak Atlantic to his Erin have separated us from the destinies that have separated us from the destinition that the destination that the destina the land of our fathers? Shall we strike the deep under the storms of human pasthe thundering chords of the martial sions, checked and guided like a fright- cipate in the demonstrations of re ease. sanctity and wisdom of creatures now 3. From this feeling of slavery, from this strain, and launching forth the pent up ened steed struggling against the reins to On arriving opposite the majestic old triumphant, and the united expression of feeling of poverty there came a feeling of clock of the Parliament building the noble | this appreciation is wast the Church most | shame. Have you ever known a man who figure of the liberator arose and amidst admirably calls praise. Singularly attrac- was once suspected by all who knew hum, Assignee. The Assignee who may be deur never before equalled here, which the unchristian feeling of retaliation on the oppressors of our country? Shall we their triumph over every opposition— pointed three times towards the Senate cently grand is the effect of this praise. ry to make life sweet, and cause its course enhance the praise of our hero by telling, therefore their recognition by the Church house of the Ireland of the past, proclaim. At one time children units, their very exas on beads, each link of the galling to day—therefore the certainty of their love shown him by his God, in His gifts, the chain of penal enactment which he with triumph in the future. The sons of Brutus, the votaries of revolution that appeal to arms for redr ss violate the laws of the Church that imposes the obligation of passive resistance. measure is wrested from the English Par | the sanctuary, and by very right which self, his very appearance declares his Sedition, whether it fails or triumphs, is liament for the relief of Ireland. Without they hold from on high, proclaim in the state contrary to the one which in days queen of the seven hills; in both cases cause, who was great and wise in his he had to teach them how they would be the nations they trampled on in their tyre generation. Therefore it is that we give led, he had to bring about a birth of feel-then could I solve the enigma of Irish away; a day came when the minds of her fascination, it was the regard of an accuser, British Parliament terrifying them into heart of faith, the letting flow upon the muskets of exasperated down-trod justice for Ireland" made use of these rocks of her shattered hopes, into the slaves, that look demanded words; "The winds that lock up your shoals of her blighted prospects, the indignant stare defied contempt. O'Confleet in the British channel will waft blood which would come in sorrow, trick- nell gained Catholic Emanci across the Atlantic hundreds of thousands ling and in wild despair from a broken day had arrived and no longer was the of the maddened children of exile who and au afflicted nation. Yes! there Catholic an inferior being in the land, the will expiate in one night of woe the in- entered into the minds of Ireland's ene- day had come when once again the in-Heaven forfend such a catastrophe to alone would they cultivate their zeal for itself and in being known should be ac are many true hearted children of vengeance took possession of their souls, wafted through the mercy of God fro Ireland who in moments of national corroded their hearts, rooted out from the English channel in upon the Irish coast indignation would wish that night of woe their very composition the last and mean and oh! my friends, O'Connell, standing had gathered its sable darkness around est feelings for suffering humanity, and there, took it quietly to his bosom and the British throne; there are men who instead of these filled their minds with with drooping head and screaming eye the words "Justice to Ireland," so often There was system in their cruelty, there used to regard with too careless an eye repeated in the harangues of O'Connell was the prosecution of a deep purpose in the doings of great men, we do not suffice to mean revenge and retatiation in their every act, there was an end to be ciently consider whether a man works for oceans of blood, but from this chair of gained, and that end was to take the glory of God or for the mere advance sacred truth we deprecate in this feeling away the lives of men and the life ment of science. What was this work of the absence of the sublime morality of the of the nation, hence poisoned weap. Emancipation? My friends, it was the new law, "I say to you love your enemies, ons should be used, weapons that freeing seven millions souls from cruel bringing down upon their knees, and trembling thus for pity, a race of men, who were accustumed to stand upon the hill tops and thus so praised their Christ; will, he was opposed to cruelty in any shape; in his moral, social, and political relations he ever retained in deepest respectively.

the public, but to make a selection from the many eligible candidates who will have their claims vigorously backed up by political and other influences.

The Act, as has been seen, provides for the appointment of an Assignee, or Joint Assignee, it is probable that at the cutest (although in this matter we do not write with a write with a wint exist at the cutest (although in this matter) we do not write with a write with a training them the pointment for a sech county will be made. If such will be the case, and so long as no further appointments are made, they will be the case, and so long as no further appointments are made, they will be made. If such will be the case, and so long as no further appointment of an the real section of the pointment of an alternative of the pointment of an alternative of the proposed of the pointment of an alternative of th