THE SCOTTISH GATHERING.

Yesterday, the day appointed for the gathering of Scotchmen under the auspices of the St. Andrew's Society of Ottawa, showed itself pleasantly in the morning, becoming hot towards noon, and culminating in a thunder storm in the afternoon.

THE GUARDS' RIFLE MATCH.

The fourth annual meeting of the Guards' Rifle Association took place at the Rideau Falls Grounds on Wednesday, under the most improving circumstances. The rain fell in torrents all through the forenoon, accompanied by heavy gusts of wind.

A MONTECALM BLOOPER.

The course of true love never did run smooth, even over a level surface, as the early wedded life of Ellen McDowell, aged fourteen years, and Mr. James, a man of some 18 summers, both of Montreal, has not opened with such rosy prospects as it might have done.
